Virtues, Explained! Self-Control

Self-control flows from the cardinal virtue of temperance, and it's really all about boundaries. Through self-control, a gift of the Holy Spirit, we avoid surrendering too much of ourselves to our passions. ©LPi

Our Sacristans at St. Joseph Church

“As a Sacristan, you care for the house of God with selfless devotion and commitment.”

How blessed we are as a parish to have two extraordinary women - Mrs. Nancy Raymond & Mrs. Anne Belanger - who live this calling with such humility and love at St. Joseph Church in Soldier Pond.

Mrs. Nancy Raymond - For over ten years, Nancy Raymond has lovingly cared for St. Joseph Church as its Sacristan. She recalls being invited into this ministry by former Sacristan Bernadette Dube, who asked Nancy to shadow her. Though Nancy expected to assist behind the scenes, God had other plans, shortly after she began, Bernadette could no longer continue, & Nancy stepped faithfully into the role.

Throughout her years of service, Nancy has worked with many priests, including Fr. Albert, Fr. Jim Nadeau, Fr. Alex, Fr. Kent Ouellette & Msgr. Labrie. She treasures these memories, & she even laughs about one particular moment when she forgot to place the key in the Tabernacle. When the priest went to retrieve the hosts, he couldn't open it. Nancy quickly resolved the situation but still smiles as she recalls saying, “I locked Jesus out of His house.”

Nancy's dedication is a true blessing to our parish. Organized & wholehearted, she tends to the vestments, altar linens, & the sacred space with deep reverence. Her service is a quiet ministry of love, & on behalf of St. John Vianney Parish, we extend our sincere gratitude.

Lenten Reflection for OCIA Candidates

Lent is a sacred season of prayer, fasting, and conversion. For our OCIA candidates, it marks a time of deep spiritual preparation as they draw closer to receiving the sacraments and entering full communion with the Church.

This journey mirrors Christ's own path to the cross—a path of surrender, trust, and love. As our candidates reflect on their relationship with God, may they be strengthened by grace and supported by our prayers.

Let us walk with them in faith, offering encouragement and hope as they continue toward the joy of Easter.
