Our Sacristans at St. Joseph Church

Mrs. Ann Belanger - A few years ago, Nancy approached Ann Belanger & asked if she might consider shadowing her as a possible assistant Sacristan. At the time, Ann was serving as a Catechist at the Faith Formation Center. She remembers feeling unsure at first—yet she also sensed a gentle but clear call to serve the Church in this new way. With an open heart, Ann said “yes,” trusting that the Lord would guide her.

Nancy trained Ann, even preparing a detailed list of all that must be done to ready the church & altar for Mass. Ann says she still uses that list to this day as she ministers with care & attention to detail. Ann has now been serving as Co-Sacristan for about 2-3 years, bringing her own quiet joy and dedication to the role.

Today, Nancy & Ann share the responsibilities of Sacristan through a two-week rotation, beautifully demonstrating the unity of the Body of Christ. Their humble service, offered without any desire for recognition, reflects hearts fully centered on serving God.

How doubly blessed we are to have these two faithful women caring for the Lord's house. Their devotion, teamwork, & love for the Church enrich our worship & strengthen our parish family.

With heartfelt gratitude, we thank Nancy Raymond & Ann Belanger. May God bless you abundantly for your service.

Virtues, Explained!

Mercy, Explained!

"And what does the Lord require of you? Only this: to do what is right, to show mercy, and to walk humbly with your God."
(Micah 6:8)

But what does it mean to show true mercy?

God's mercy to us knows no bounds, but that mercy does not compel Him to grant us everything our appetitive passions desire. God's perfect mercy could never allow for something that would harm His children. A father whose child has a toothache cannot, out of mercy, give the child the candy he wants, no matter how the tears of the child grieve the father's heart. The father can, and should, surround the child with love and sympathy, and help him to remedy the problem that lies at the heart of his grief. This is true virtuous mercy — a choice governed by reason, not merely an emotion.
