(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

While It Is Still Dark

If you are a person who is religious in any way, chances are that at some point, someone has asked you to give a reason why.

I meet lots of people who identify as spiritual but not religious, lots of people who are more comfortable splashing in the shallow end of belief but hesitating to wade into the more uncertain depths of doctrine. So when they ask the question "Why do you believe what you believe?" it usually comes out as "Why do you go to church?"

They want to know why I come to this specific place at this specific time. What am I expecting to happen?

We read that Mary Magdalene went to the tomb "while it was still dark." I imagine she could not sleep. She was traumatized. Grieving. Confused. Angry, perhaps. Doubting? Maybe. It's possible. We cannot know what was in her heart.

We only know what she did. We only know where she went. And we know that it was dark, that the light of Easter's dawn had not yet pierced the sky.

Often, I am grieving when I go to church, or angry, or confused, or all three. I have gone many times with a doubting and resentful heart.

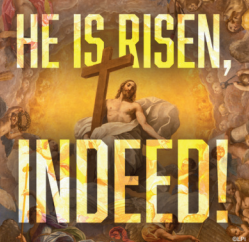

Because, you see, it is still dark. The dawn of eternity, which will illuminate all understanding, has not yet even begun to creep across my horizon.

My answer to the question, when I am asked, is that I go to church — to Catholic Mass, specifically — for the same reason Mary Magdalene went to the tomb. I go because it is the last place I saw Christ, and I am desperate to see him again.

Easter Vigil Reflection for OCIA Candidates

On this most sacred night, we rejoice with our OCIA candidates as they prepare to receive the sacraments of initiation and enter fully into the life of the Church.

The Easter Vigil is a celebration of light, life, and resurrection. It marks the triumph of Christ over death and the beginning of new life for all who believe. For our candidates, this is a moment of profound grace—a time when their journey of faith becomes a lived reality through Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

To our candidates: your courage, faith, and openness to God's call inspire us. As you rise with Christ tonight, know that your parish family surrounds you with love and prayer. May the joy of the Resurrection fill your heart and guide your steps always.

Easter Reflection for Our OCIA Candidates

As we celebrate the joy of the Resurrection, we also rejoice with our OCIA candidates who are beginning their journey toward full communion with the Church.

The Easter season reminds us that new life is possible through Christ. Just as the tomb was found empty and hope was restored, so too do our candidates begin a path of renewal, discovery, and grace. Their "yes" to this journey is a response to the risen Lord, who calls each of us by name.

Let us keep them in prayer as they walk in the light of Christ, guided by the Holy Spirit and supported by our parish family. May this season of joy and transformation inspire them to grow in faith and love.

Christ is risen—He is truly risen! Alleluia!
