PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

"It is our church. It is the house of God, & we do it for our Lord," says Mary Ann Tanguay.

Living out our faith takes many forms for everyone. Within the St. Louis Church family, the St. Louis Cleaning Ministry truly lives the faith through loving service to our beautiful church. Early every Monday morning, this devoted group arrives to wash floors, dust, vacuum, set up for upcoming Masses, funerals, & weddings, & decorate for the various liturgical seasons. They even take on a "grand ménage" whenever it is needed.

Beyond the work itself, this ministry is filled with shared stories, friendships, & genuine care for one another. In their hearts, they hold a deep love, respect, & reverence for their church & for God. It is truly beautiful to watch them work together in harmony. They often arrive with fresh-baked goodies to joyfully share as brothers and sisters in Christ.

Ruth Thibeault, our Sacristan, also serves faithfully on the Cleaning Ministry & has done so for more than 25 years. When asked why she continues, she simply shares, "We do it out of love. We do it for our God. Our faith keeps us going." Ruth's love & faithfulness are evident in everything she does for our parish. It is always a joy to see her preparing the church, often accompanied by the sound of her sweet voice gently humming one of her favorite hymns.

Mary Ann Tanguay began helping when Fr. Jim Plourde was our pastor. He asked Mary Ann and Alice Blanchette to paint the sacristy & the chapel. She accepted this enormous task—one that required many late evenings—and did so lovingly for the Lord. Mary Ann especially cherished caring for the House of God, & this experience opened the door to her ongoing service with the Cleaning Ministry. We are deeply grateful for her many years of faithfulness. Mary Ann is always willing to help in any way needed.

Betty Ann Gagnon joined the Cleaning Ministry in 2008 during Fr. Jim Nadeau's time as pastor. When help was needed, she answered the call. Betty looks forward to Monday mornings, when she can gather with others to care for the church. She shares, "I do it for the Lord, for my health, because He is my Lord & my health."

Judy Saucier has been cleaning for about 12 years. She began while she was still working & had Mondays off. "I wanted to do it," she says. Judy loves helping both the church & the community, adding, "Where else would you want to be but, in His church, and be close to Him? It is so peaceful."

Joel Martin has been part of the Cleaning Ministry for about 5 years. He began by replacing his brother, Rosaire Martin, & soon found it became a regular commitment. "It is good exercise," Joel says, and he enjoys contributing to the care of the church.

Vicki Boucher has been cleaning for 5 to 6 years. She shares that her journey began when Miss Simone Levesque asked her to become a Eucharistic Minister. Serving in church brought her great joy, & when she learned, more help was needed to clean, she spoke with Ruth Thibeault & joined the ministry. Vicki says, "I love it—being so close to God & feeling such peace. When I am cleaning at church, that is when I feel closest to Jesus."

All these individuals truly deserve our gratitude. We are blessed as a parish to have such loving, caring, & dedicated people caring for the House of God.

Thank you to
Ruth Thibeault, Mary Ann Tanguay, Betty Ann Gagnon, Judy Saucier, Joel
Martin, & Vicki Boucher
for your faithful service.
