The unclean spirit convulsed him and with a loud cry came out of him.

Fiducia Supplicans

On the pastoral meaning of blessings

Statement of guidance from Bishop James Johnston

Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph

“The recent declaration by the Dicastery for the Doctrine of the Faith (Fiducia supplicans) makes a clear distinction between different kinds of blessings. It recognizes that God desires the good for all persons, including those in objectively irregular same sex or heterosexual relationships, and if one reaches out for God’s assistance, that should not be denied. It is inaccurate to say that the Catholic Church is now approving or validating same-sex unions or unions which are outside of marriage. The declaration makes allowance for ministers to bless people in these difficult situations that they may be assisted by God’s grace along the path of conversion and salvation. It is also most clear that these are not liturgical blessings and are not to be offered in a manner including clothing, gestures or words that would risk confusing the blessing with a sacramental marriage.” Read and share from kcsjatholic.org. World Day for Consecrated Life | February 2

This celebration is attached to the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 2. This Feast is also known as Candlemas Day; the day on which candles are blessed symbolizing Christ who is the light of the world. So too, those in consecrated life are called to reflect the light of Jesus Christ to all peoples. Please pray for all those who have made commitments in the consecrated life, and be sure to thank them on their special day. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation.

Your Safety Matters

If the weather turns hazardous and any of you are afraid of driving in bad conditions, we would rather you be safe than wind up hurting yourself or your vehicle. All Masses are live streamed at stbernadettekcmo.org if the office is open. If you can safely attend Mass, please do.
