“The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit.”

Mass Intentions

When a priest offers Holy Mass, he has three intentions: First, to offer the Mass reverently and validly in accord with the norms of the Church. Second, to offer the Mass in union with the whole Church and for the good of the whole Church. Third, to offer the Mass for a particular intention, such as the repose of the soul of someone who has died. An individual may ask a priest to offer a Mass for several reasons: for example, in thanksgiving, of the intentions of another person (such as a birthday), or, as in common, for the repose of the soul of someone who has died. One must never forget the infinite graces that flow from the Sacrifice of the Mass which benefit ones soul.

Mass Intentions Policy

1. Mass intentions may not be taken for over a year ahead.
2. We understand that some dates have special meaning and sometimes certain dates are preferred. Please know that these dates are subject to availability.
3. Weekend Mass intentions are limited. Please have your Mass offered during the week if possible.
4. Please note that one is not required to be at a Mass offered for a specific intention.
5. Mass intentions scheduled may be subject to change due to unforeseen circumstances. Donors will be notified if possible in such cases.
6. Twice a week we have collective Masses in which multiple intentions are offered. All donors must consent to having their Mass intention offered on this day and the Mass is labeled "Collective Mass" in the bulletin.

Thank you for your understanding.
 If you have any questions please contact Fr. Bryan.

From Death to New Life

† Dick Edwards

May our beloved deceased rest in peace.

BEFRIENDER MINISTRY

A Listening Presence

Qualities of a BeFriender

Some reflections on qualities of a person who is a BeFriender

- * A person who can listen to others even when what they say doesn't seem to make sense.
- * A person who can allow others to express their own feelings without telling them how they should or shouldn't feel.
- * A person who is willing to sit quietly with others when they can't put their hurts into words.
- * A person in whom others can freely confide, knowing that confidentiality is a priority.
- * A person who can accept others as they are, rather than the way that person thinks others ought to be.
- * A person who will give others time and opportunity to make their own decisions without feeling a need to decide for them.
- * A person who can ask how others are doing without feeling an obligation to tell them what they should be doing.
- * A person who is able to admit that they, too, experience life as burdensome at times and find it necessary to seek comfort and support from others.
- * A person who understands and values the faith community as necessary for spiritual growth.
- * A person who has an ability to draw on his or her own spiritual resources.
- * A person who can show concern and care in these ways is a true BeFriender.

Reminder:

We continue to support the efforts of Gary White, former St. Bernadette parishioner/student, and his project WaterPartners for our Lenten Almsgiving.

Gary White, WaterPartners executive director and co-founder and (actor) Matt Damon, H2O Africa co-founder, joined forces to create a organization called water.org.

Pick up an envelope in the vestibule and return it with your almsgiving donation, a corporal work of mercy, on Palm Sunday. There will be baskets in the vestibule to receive your almsgiving. Your envelope will be carried in procession with our gifts on Holy Thursday.
