R: (3c) We are his people: the sheep of his flock.

Sing joyfully to the LORD, all you lands;
 serve the LORD with gladness;
 come before him with joyful song. R

Know that the LORD is God;
 he made us, his we are;
 his people, the flock he tends. R

The LORD is good:
 his kindness endures forever,
 and his faithfulness to all generations. R

We resumed Ordinary Time in the evening of Pentecost Sunday, which closes out the fifty days of the Easter Season each year. The two Sundays that follow Pentecost are special solemnities to celebrate the Most Blessed Trinity and the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi). Thus, the three Sundays following the Easter Season present us with a trifacta of celebrations for three beautiful pillars of the Catholic faith: the Church, the Blessed Trinity, and the Eucharist. We now rejoin our regularly scheduled Sundays in Ordinary Time, already in progress.

The Responsorial Psalm for this Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time is a short and simple psalm that is a favorite hymn of praise in both the Old Covenant (Judaism) and the New Covenant (Christianity). As a response to the First Reading from the Book of Exodus, Psalm 100 complements God's offer to the Israelites through Moses: Therefore, if you harken to my voice and keep my covenant, / you shall be my special possession, / dearer to me than all other people, / though all the earth is mine. / You shall be to me a kingdom of priests, a holy nation. (Exodus 19:5-6a).

In the Old Covenant, this psalm expresses praise and thanksgiving to God that Israel had been chosen as God's special possession, using the metaphor of a flock that harkens to the voice of its shepherd to describe the tender and close relationship between God the Shepherd and his special people, his flock. God was to make Israel a holy nation, a kingdom of priests, for the purpose of drawing the Gentiles into worship of the one, true God of Israel. Sadly, however, the Israelites broke their end of the covenant.

Jesus is the New Covenant in his very person, the Eternal High Priest; and since we are baptized into Jesus, all the baptized share in the common priesthood of Jesus, making us a kingdom of priests, a holy nation. All the baptized become part of God's flock, with Jesus as the Good Shepherd. Through baptism, we become God's special possession; his people, the flock he tends. With all the baptized, let us praise the Lord and come before him with joyful song, thankful for his faithfulness in making the New Covenant in his Son.

God bless you,
 Fr. Tom

PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH

Glorious St. Joseph, spouse of the Virgin Mary, we beseech you through the Heart of Jesus Christ, grant to us your fatherly protection.

O you whose power reaches all our necessities and who know how to make possible the most impossible things, open your fatherly eyes to the needs of your children. In the confusion and pain which press upon us, we have recourse to you with confidence.

Deign to take beneath your charitable guidance this important and difficult affair, the cause of our worries, and make that its happy outcome serve for the glory of God and the good of his devoted servants. Amen.

—St. Francis de Sales

St. Joseph, pray for us.
 St. Bartholomew, pray for us.
 St. Sebastian, pray for us.

PARISH UPDATE

The Parish Pastoral Councils of St. Joseph Parish and St. Bartholomew Parish came together for the second time on Tuesday, June 13, in Ward Hall. Members of the St. Bartholomew council were pleased to be introduced to Fr. Michael Ssenfuma, the new parochial vicar at St. Joseph Parish.

The main order of business at this meeting of the parish councils was to select two members from each council to lead the development of a transition plan for bringing the two parishes together. While we do not yet have a timeline for the transition of the two parishes into one, this team will make recommendations to the Parish Pastoral Councils for ways that the two parishes can begin to come together. Nadine Kocho and Kathy Reilly (St. Bartholomew) will work with Jill Meyers and John Wallace (St. Joseph) on the transition plan, with Deacon Bob Horn facilitating.

In addition to the transition plan, the parking and accessibility issues continue to receive attention. Members of both councils are sensitive to the concerns regarding parking and accessibility. Several ideas were discussed, and some next steps were identified as we investigate workable solutions.

While the timeline for the transition to St. Joseph Parish is not yet determined, the goal is clear: one vibrant, unified Catholic parish for Needham.

Eucharistic Adoration is held Fridays at St. Joseph Church
 following the 6:50 AM Mass, until 12:00 PM.

Faith in Action: It All Starts with You.

I am so grateful to all who have helped launch a successful 2023 Catholic Appeal campaign here at St. Bartholomew. We have raised $54,053 so far, which means we have reached 50% of our goal. If you have not had a chance to do so, please consider making your gift to the Appeal today by picking up an envelope at the back of the church or making an on-line donation at www.bostoncatholicappeal.org. Participation from every St. Bartholomew household is important, and every gift makes a meaningful difference in putting faith into action to support the parishes, schools, and ministries of the Archdiocese of Boston.

Thank you for your always generous response to the Catholic Appeal.

Nativity of John the Baptist

FIRST CENTURY
FEAST DAY: JUNE 24

In the Gospels, John, a kinsman of Jesus through their mothers, preached repentance and baptized to prepare for the Messiah's coming. This feast marks his exceptional birth to the aged priest Zechariah and the equally aged and barren Elizabeth. The angel Gabriel announces his birth in a vision to Zechariah, who hesitates in believing and is struck mute until eight days after John's birth. Then, Zechariah, in a beautiful canticle that ends the first chapter of Luke's Gospel, proclaims that John "will be called prophet of the Most High." John's eventual beheading is commemorated with an Aug. 29 feast. A patron saint of Canada and Jordan, John is also the patron of Florence and the Knights Hospitaller of St. John.
