Doing the Work

I once heard a very accomplished artist talk about the fact that he always enjoyed giving away his work for free, that it made him feel good to offer his original paintings as gifts to others. He noted, however, that after a while, he felt as though this was being taken for granted and that his recipients no longer truly appreciated what he had to offer. His conclusion ultimately was that he had to honor and value his own art if he wanted others to do the same.

The bottom line for all of us is that we appreciate and treasure that which costs us something much more so than if it did not. You could say that the higher the mountain, the greater the sense of accomplishment for having scaled it.

I think we can apply this same life lesson to faith, which is why we can liken our own experience of faith to a process or journey and recognize that we may have highs and lows, rich periods followed by arid ones, and that it can change over time. And although we may hope for miracles and grand scale knock-you-off-your-horse epiphanies like Saul's on the way to Damascus, these may end up just like the free paintings and we many not treasure them had they come to us in a different manner.

I know what you're wondering: "Is he saying that we shouldn't hope for miracles?" In a word: No! That is not what I am saying. However, there can be tremendous grace that comes out of the struggle, from navigating the hills and valleys of a life in pursuit of Christ, and of doing the work. So, what does "doing the work" look like? Here are five ways:

Learn. The Catholic faith tradition is rich in insight, inspiration, and instruction. For some, understanding the work of the great thinkers, such as Thomas Aquinas, Teresa of Ávila, and Catherine of Siena, will be most helpful. For others, it could be the example of Joseph, Joan of Arc, or Francis of Assisi that can best inform us about our faith. Faith is not a passive sport, rather it is one that requires our active participation, and we can learn a great deal from those who have gone before us.

Serve. We know from the model of our Savior himself who "did not come to be served but to serve" (Matthew 20:28), that we are to care deeply about each other and to let our actions speak louder than words. What might you do to serve?

Sacraments. As Catholics, we have the great treasure of the Sacraments in which we do not merely receive but rather participate. Just as our Father chose to collaborate with creation in order to reveal his great mystery, we too can experience this through the signs and symbols of the Sacraments which we believe become greater because of God's intervention. And in doing so, we too become greater.

Model. If our lives demonstrate faith, trust, and hope, then we are showcasing why we believe that the Good News of Christ is actually good news indeed. Let all those who observe us ask themselves what it is about us that elevates us, guides us, and helps us to live fully and with joy. Be a curiosity, an oddity, and let them wonder. This is preaching the Gospel without words.

Relationship. The most important aspect of a life well lived is to be in relationship with the Father, his Son, and the Holy Spirit. Ultimately, our faith will be tested and challenged, but nothing can ever prevail against us if we have an active relationship that is empowered and uplifted by prayer. As with any relationship, we are called to go deeper, to trust, and to humbly reveal all, even our vulnerabilities, fears, and flaws. Only when we surrender, can we then soar.

Anything worth having is worth working for.

BAPTISM REGISTRATION

Baptism is the first sacrament of Christian initiation. It is the sacrament that frees a person from original sin and makes that person a member of Christ and His Church, thus being the way to a new and spiritual life. One must be baptized before sharing in any of the other sacraments. Infants can be baptized soon after birth. At the time of baptism, parents vow to practice their faith and provide a Catholic upbringing for the child. Group baptisms take place on the second Sunday of the month at 1pm at St. Mary's and at Blessed Sacrament on the third Sunday of the month at 12:30pm.

To register, please contact our Baptism Coordinator, Pat, at 508-668-4974 ext. 115.

Leave a message and your call will be returned.

CONFESSIONS

Confessions are held on Saturdays from 2:45-3:50pm at Blessed Sacrament and St. Mary Churches and on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays at 5:15 and 6:15am (before and after the 5:45am Daily Masses) and after the 9am Daily Mass on Mondays and Wednesdays at St. Mary and Saturdays at Blessed Sacrament Churches.

Confessions are also heard on the first Wednesday of the month at Blessed Sacrament Church from 7-8pm. Please use the Chapel door at the East Street entrance.

In addition, parishioners can approach the priest before or after a Mass.

SATURDAY MORNING VIRTUAL PRAYER GROUP

Our virtual prayer group meets over Zoom Saturday at 9am. With an emphasis on the scriptures, we read and then reflect on the theme of Sunday's Mass readings. All are invited. The Mass readings can be found at <https://bible.usccb.org/daily-bible-reading>. We close with prayers in union with the Church and each other and for special intentions. Often reflections offered in the group are published in the blog www.ComposingCatholic.org. You can join the meeting by following this link or typing it into your search bar: <https://tinyurl.com/OurVPG> Email alan.doty@walpolecatholic.org if you have questions or are having difficulty joining.

SERVICE RECOGNITION AWARDS

To the Clergy, Scholarship Committee Members, and Parishioners,

I am deeply honored and sincerely grateful to be the recipient of the Reverend Donald R. Delay Service Recognition Award. To be selected for a scholarship that bears the name of someone so devoted to faith, service, and community is truly humbling.

This award means more to me than just financial support—it is a reminder of the values I strive to live by: compassion, service, and a commitment to making a difference in the lives of others. I am excited to share that I will be attending The University of New Hampshire this fall, where I will be pursuing a degree in nursing. It is my goal to follow a path of service through healthcare, with a special passion to help people in their time of need.

To the clergy who lead with faith and dedication, to the scholarship committee who entrusted me with this honor, and to the parishioners whose ongoing support helps nurture the dreams of young people like me—thank you. Your belief in me inspires and encourages me more than you know.

With heartfelt thanks and appreciation,
Ava Dacey

BLESSED SACRAMENT PARISH – 150TH ANNIVERSARY CAPITAL CAMPAIGN UPDATE

As we joyfully commemorate 150 years of faith, fellowship, and service at Blessed Sacrament Parish, we’re pleased to share meaningful progress made possible by your generous contributions to the 150th Anniversary Capital Campaign. Each completed and upcoming project reflects our shared commitment to preserving and enriching the sacred and administrative spaces that support our vibrant community.

Retaining Wall Restoration

The entire retaining wall—extending over 500 linear feet—has been rebuilt and repointed. A new foundation was added to a significant section of the wall, securing its stability for years to come and preserving the boundary of our parish grounds.

Pipe Organ Repair

Our beloved pipe organ has been fully repaired and rejuvenated, allowing its majestic sound to once again uplift and inspire during liturgies and special occasions.

Parish Office Roof Replacement

The roof of the Parish Office—home to our administrative operations—has been successfully replaced, ensuring the continued smooth functioning of the services that support parish life.

Sound System Upgrade (Including the Chapel)

This summer, we look forward to implementing a full upgrade to the church’s sound system. This enhancement will improve clarity and consistency during Mass and parish events. Importantly, the project will also include the installation of a dedicated sound system for the chapel, ensuring an improved experience in this intimate and sacred space.

We are sincerely grateful for the generosity, prayers, and encouragement each of you has offered in support of these efforts. Together, we are investing in a legacy of care and stewardship that will serve the parish family for generations to come.

With appreciation and blessings,
Peter Gallitano

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

READING 1.....DEUTERONOMY 30:10-14

Moses said to the people:

"If only you would heed the voice of the LORD, your God, and keep his commandments and statutes that are written in this book of the law, when you return to the LORD, your God, with all your heart and all your soul.

"For this command that I enjoin on you today is not too mysterious and remote for you. It is not up in the sky, that you should say, 'Who will go up in the sky to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?'

Nor is it across the sea, that you should say,

'Who will cross the sea to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?'

No, it is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R.(9a) Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

The law of the LORD is perfect,
refreshing the soul;

the decree of the LORD is trustworthy,
giving wisdom to the simple.

R. Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

The precepts of the LORD are right,
rejoicing the heart;

the command of the LORD is clear,
enlightening the eye.

R. Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

The fear of the LORD is pure,
enduring forever;

the ordinances of the LORD are true,
all of them just.

R. Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

They are more precious than gold,
than a heap of purest gold;

sweeter also than syrup

or honey from the comb.

R. Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

READING 2.....COLOSSIANS 1:15-20

Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things were created through him and for him.

He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church.

He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he himself might be preeminent.

For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him, making peace by the blood of his cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

ALLELUIA

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life;
you have the words of everlasting life.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL.....LUKE 10:25-37

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test Jesus and said, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

Jesus said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?"

He said in reply, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself."

He replied to him, "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live."

But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

Jesus replied, "A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. Likewise a Levite came to the place, and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side.

But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight. He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn, and cared for him.

The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, 'Take care of him. If you spend more than what I have given you, I shall repay you on my way back.'

Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?"

He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy."

Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou,
O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
by the power of God,
thrust into hell Satan,
and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen..

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
