May We Be a People Who Stand for Something

Winston Churchill once stated: "If you have enemies, good. It means you stood for something at least once in your life." At first hearing, this sounds brash, even combative, yet beneath its grit lies a truth we may forget: a life of conviction will not always be met with applause. To stand for something, especially something true, good, and holy is to risk misunderstanding, resistance, and even hostility. But Scripture reminds us that such courage is not only necessary; it is the very soil in which God's light breaks forth.

Isaiah speaks to a people who know darkness intimately. The prophet describes a land "in gloom," a people who have walked in deep shadow. Yet into that very darkness, Isaiah proclaims a promise: "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light." God does not wait for perfect conditions to reveal His glory. He shines precisely where fear, confusion, and division seem strongest. The light does not appear because the people have triumphed; it appears because God is faithful.

This is the same dynamic at work in the Gospel of Matthew. Jesus begins His public ministry not in the centers of power but in "Galilee of the Gentiles" - a region considered spiritually marginal, even compromised. Yet Matthew tells us that in this unlikely place, Isaiah's prophecy is fulfilled. Christ's light dawns not where people are already strong, but where they most need courage, healing, and hope.

And what does Jesus do as this light breaks forth? He calls disciples. Ordinary fishermen - men with no credentials, no influence, no strategic advantage. He calls them not to comfort but to mission: "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." To follow Him is to step into the light - and to stand for that light in a world that often prefers the shadows.

This is where Churchill's insight becomes especially relevant for the Christian life. If we follow Christ with sincerity, we will inevitably stand for something. And if we stand for something, we will eventually face resistance. Not because we seek conflict, but because truth has a way of unsettling what is false. Love has a way of exposing what is selfish. Mercy has a way of challenging what is cruel. Unity has a way of confronting what is divisive.

St. Paul understood this well. Writing to the Corinthians, he pleads for unity: "that there be no divisions among you." Yet he also names the reality that factions have already formed.

Some claim allegiance to Paul, others to Apollos, others to Cephas. Paul refuses to play that game. His mission is not to build a fan base but to preach Christ: Christ crucified, Christ risen, Christ who alone is the source of unity. To stand for Christ, Paul knows, is to risk disappointing those who want him to take sides, to flatter their preferences, or to soften the demands of the Gospel.

But Paul stands firm. Not harshly, not arrogantly, but with clarity and love. He stands for the One who called him. And in doing so, he teaches us that Christian conviction is not stubbornness; it is fidelity. It is the courage to remain rooted in Christ even when others misunderstand, criticize, or oppose us.

For Catholics today, this message is both challenging and liberating. We live in a world that often rewards compromise and punishes conviction. To speak of truth, to defend the dignity of every human person, to uphold the teachings of Christ and His Church can certainly invite criticism. But if we never face resistance, it may be worth asking whether we are standing for anything at all.

The good news is that we do not stand alone. The same Christ who called fishermen on the shores of Galilee calls us now. The same light that broke into the darkness of Isaiah's world shines into ours. The same Spirit who united the early Church strengthens us today.

To stand for Christ is not to seek enemies. It is to seek fidelity. And if resistance comes, we need not fear. For every moment of courage becomes a place where God's light can shine more brightly - through us, in us, and sometimes even in spite of us.

May we be a people who stand for something. May we stand for Christ. And may His light, shining through our imperfect but willing hearts, bring hope to a world still longing for the dawn.

The Children's Choir at Blessed Sacrament is singing at the 4pm Christmas Eve mass with a prelude prior. Singers of all ages are welcome!

This is a wonderful opportunity for children to actively participate in the liturgy, and have fun! Rehearsals will take place in the Community Room throughout the month of December.

To paraphrase St. Augustine, "Singing is praying twice." We hope to see you there!

BAPTISM REGISTRATION

Baptism is the first sacrament of Christian initiation. It is the sacrament that frees a person from original sin and makes that person a member of Christ and His Church, thus being the way to a new and spiritual life. One must be baptized before sharing in any of the other sacraments. Infants can be baptized soon after birth. At the time of baptism, parents vow to practice their faith and provide a Catholic upbringing for the child.

Group baptisms take place on the second Sunday of the month at 1pm at St. Mary's and at Blessed Sacrament on the third Sunday of the month at 12:30pm.

To register, please contact our Baptism Coordinator, Pat, at 508-668-4974 ext. 115. Leave a message and your call will be returned.

ADULT CONFIRMATION OPPORTUNITY – SPRING 2026

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

READING 1.....ISAIAH 8:23-9:3

First the Lord degraded the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali; but in the end he has glorified the seaward road, the land west of the Jordan, the District of the Gentiles.

Anguish has taken wing, dispelled is darkness: for there is no gloom where but now there was distress. The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom a light has shone.

You have brought them abundant joy and great rejoicing, as they rejoice before you as at the harvest, as people make merry when dividing spoils. For the yoke that burdened them, the pole on their shoulder, and the rod of their taskmaster you have smashed, as on the day of Midian.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. (1a) The Lord is my light and my salvation.

The LORD is my light and my salvation;
whom should I fear? The LORD is my life's refuge;
of whom should I be afraid?

R. The Lord is my light and my salvation.

One thing I ask of the LORD;
this I seek: To dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, that I may gaze on the loveliness of the LORD and contemplate his temple.

R. The Lord is my light and my salvation.

I believe that I shall see the bounty of the LORD in the land of the living. Wait for the LORD with courage; be stouthearted, and wait for the LORD.

R. The Lord is my light and my salvation.

READING 2.....CORINTHIANS 1:10-13, 17

I urge you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree in what you say, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and in the same purpose. For it has been reported to me about you, my brothers and sisters, by Chloe's people, that there are rivalries among you.

I mean that each of you is saying,
"I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ."

Is Christ divided?

Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel, and not with the wisdom of human eloquence, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its meaning.

ALLELUIA

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Jesus proclaimed the Gospel of the kingdom and cured every disease among the people.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL.....MATTHEW 4:12-23

When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, that what had been said through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled:

Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the way to the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles, the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death light has arisen.

From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea; they were fishermen.

He said to them,

"Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men."

At once they left their nets and followed him.

He walked along from there and saw two other brothers, James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They were in a boat, with their father Zebedee, mending their nets.

He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him. He went around all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and curing every disease and illness among the people.

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou,
O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
by the power of God,
thrust into hell Satan,
and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen..

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

ST. MARY'S CEMETERY

St Mary's Cemetery in Needham, founded in the 1870's, is the parish cemetery of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. The Cemetery is a reverent resting place for those awaiting reunion with the Risen Lord.
