From DO/SPIN to STILL/GRATEFUL

I work with individuals who are contending with some type of change or transition in their lives, dealing with an unresolved conflict, or hoping to gain a new level of awareness and clarity on specific issues. For many of them who are in a similar stage of life as me (I grew up watching The Brady Bunch and am no stranger to striped polyester pants), I often hear about plans to wind down a career and transitioning to “the next chapter”.

At the core of so many of these discussions is the notion of identity. We all form our identities based on our upbringing, experiences which gave us joy or hurt us, and how we found our way through the various hills and valleys we encountered. For many people, that all came together in the form of always doing, of being active, of accomplishing, of setting and reaching goals. These individuals acclimated to a go-go-go lifestyle and that resulted in spinning plates, balancing and juggling many priorities, always multi-tasking, and feeling the need to please others nearly constantly.

Moving forward for such folks is often found in gaining some measure of stillness and quiet. And because so many of us are accustomed to chasing and searching, we do well to pause and recognize what we already have... and that perhaps that that is sufficient. This is, of course, the practice of being grateful.

I like to think of this as moving from a mode of DO/SPIN to one of STILL/GRATEFUL.

The very same notion can be applied to our spiritual lives, to our pursuit of a relationship with Christ, and to our ongoing desire to discern the will of the Holy Spirit. I myself have often defaulted to DO/SPIN when it comes to faith. If I am hoping to draw closer to God, I immediately wonder: What can I do? And this sometimes means: what additional plates might I spin? So, I will buy an on-topic book, subscribe to a related podcast, look for some new retreat opportunity, join a group, and so forth. It's always about doing and spinning.

More recently, I have been attempting to be STILL/

GRATEFUL. What does that look like? So far, it has looked like this:

Sitting in the Adoration Chapel for an extended period of time without any sort of agenda or preconceived expectation about what I'll gain from the experience

Going for a walk without my headphones blaring music or a podcast episode

Journaling in a quiet space and remembering to jot down all the people and things in my life for which I am grateful

Not listening to music or talk radio while I'm driving

Keeping the TV off at night... because once it goes on, I know I'll get sucked into some streaming show or movie

In other words, I'm trying to learn about being rather than doing. It's sometimes quite difficult because our culture has trained us to favor a constant and steady diet of noise, interruptions, distractions, notifications, split screen viewing, and other ways of spinning endlessly. And so, we need to retrain ourselves out of this.

Why?...

... Because God is hidden behind all the noise, interruptions, and distractions. We need to actively make room for God... and silence and stillness are the best means to that end.

I often am asked: “What can I DO to get closer to God?” In the past, I have had a number of action-oriented answers to this question, most of which have left the person with a list of things to DO. I'm modifying my approach and focusing more on how a person can simply be STILL.

Perhaps it's for you to move from DO/SPIN to STILL/GRATEFUL too?

Save the Date

On Sunday, May 24 the 11am Mass at Blessed Sacrament will be in honor of Fr. Jean Pierre's 25-year Ordination anniversary and a Farewell to our wonderful parishioners Deacon Jim & Kathy Hyatt. The 11:30am Mass at STM will be cancelled for that day so that all parishioners will have the opportunity celebrate these milestones. There will be a Reception to follow the Mass. More details to follow.

MOMS' GROUP

Please join us Tuesday April 21st from 9-10am for a Moms' Group meet up in the Community Room at Blessed Sacrament. Come join us for fellowship and refreshments. Kids are welcome! Coffee and munchkins will be provided. Please contact Cassie at cassandrainsantiago@gmail.com for any questions.

BLESSINGS AT MASSES

While only practicing Catholics are allowed to receive the Eucharist, anyone is welcome to come to the altar for a blessing during Communion. Because only priests and deacons are permitted to give a blessing, you must choose a line with a priest or deacon - and not a Eucharistic Minister - and cross your arms over your chest as you approach.

PINE STREET INN COLLECTION

Thanks to all who donated to our last collection.

Our next collection is Thursday, April 23 (9am-noon) and Saturday, April 25 (10-11am) at St. Mary Parish Center (205 Washington St., 1st awning, off the parking lot). Please help us start the new year right.

We will be collecting healthy snack items that will be served to the guests for lunches at the shelter, but will also go to outreach vans. These vans go out at night and check on people that do not go to shelters.

The upcoming schedule is May 28 & 30 & June 25 & 27.

To organize this collection, please use our Sign Up Genius on our website (www.walpolecatholic.net). Contact Bill Connors at bconnors@newenglandrubber.com with questions.

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

READING 1.....ACTS 2:14, 22-33

Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed: "You who are Jews, indeed all of you staying in Jerusalem. Let this be known to you, and listen to my words. You who are Israelites, hear these words. Jesus the Nazarene was a man commended to you by God with mighty deeds, wonders, and signs, which God worked through him in your midst, as you yourselves know.

This man, delivered up by the set plan and foreknowledge of God, you killed, using lawless men to crucify him. But God raised him up, releasing him from the throes of death, because it was impossible for him to be held by it.

For David says of him: I saw the Lord ever before me, with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed. Therefore my heart has been glad and my tongue has exulted; my flesh, too, will dwell in hope, because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, nor will you suffer your holy one to see corruption. You have made known to me the paths of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence.

"My brothers, one can confidently say to you about the patriarch David that he died and was buried, and his tomb is in our midst to this day. But since he was a prophet and knew that God had sworn an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants upon his throne, he foresaw and spoke of the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he abandoned to the netherworld nor did his flesh see corruption. God raised this Jesus; of this we are all witnesses. Exalted at the right hand of God, he received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father and poured him forth, as you see and hear."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. (11a) Lord, you will show us the path of life.

Keep me, O God, for in you I take refuge;
I say to the LORD, "My Lord are you."
O LORD, my allotted portion and my cup,
you it is who hold fast my lot.

R. Lord, you will show us the path of life.

I bless the LORD who counsels me;
even in the night my heart exhorts me.
I set the LORD ever before me;
with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed.

R. Lord, you will show us the path of life.

Therefore my heart is glad and my soul rejoices,
my body, too, abides in confidence;
because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld,
nor will you suffer your faithful one to undergo corruption.

R. Lord, you will show us the path of life.

You will show me the path to life,
abounding joy in your presence,
the delights at your right hand forever.

R. Lord, you will show us the path of life.

READING 2.....1 PETER 1:17-21

Beloved: If you invoke as Father him who judges impartially according to each one's works, conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning, realizing that you were ransomed from your futile conduct, handed on by your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold but with the precious blood of Christ as of a spotless unblemished lamb. He was known before the foundation of the world but revealed in the final time for you, who through him believe in God who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

ALLELUIA

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Lord Jesus, open the Scriptures to us;
make our hearts burn while you speak to us.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL.....LUKE 24:13-35

That very day, the first day of the week, two of Jesus' disciples were going to a village seven miles from Jerusalem called Emmaus, and they were conversing about all the things that had occurred. And it happened that while they were conversing and debating, Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him. He asked them, "What are you discussing as you walk along?"

They stopped, looking downcast. One of them, named Cleopas, said to him in reply, "Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know of the things that have taken place there in these days?"

And he replied to them, "What sort of things?"

They said to him, "The things that happened to Jesus the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, how our chief priests and rulers both handed him over to a sentence of death and crucified him. But we were hoping that he would be the one to redeem Israel; and besides all this, it is now the third day since this took place. Some women from our group, however, have astounded us: they were at the tomb early in the morning and did not find his body; they came back and reported that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who announced that he was alive.

Then some of those with us went to the tomb and found things just as the women had described, but him they did not see." And he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are! How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them what referred to him in all the Scriptures. As they approached the village to which they were going, he gave the impression that he was going on farther. But they urged him, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them. And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?"

So they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!"

Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL
THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness and
snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou,
O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
by the power of God,
thrust into hell Satan,
and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen..

BIBLE STUDY GROUP

Fr. Heni is leading a Bible Study every 2nd and 4th Thursday of the month, unless in conflict with a funeral or other church activity. We will meet in the Blessed Sacrament Community Room right after daily mass (around 10am).

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
