God's Mosaic-like Plan

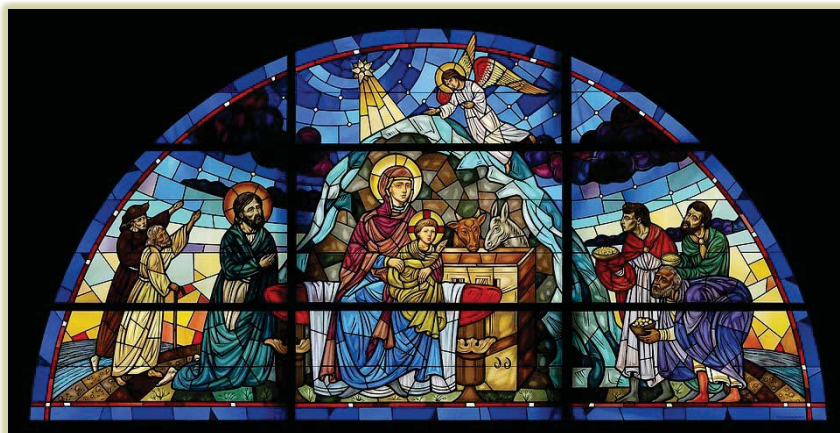

First off, we want to congratulate Father Jean Pierre on the Silver Jubilee of his Ordination! For twenty-five years now he has faithfully served our Lord and most recently, served our Walpole Catholic Collaborative. He is unselfish, ready to respond when the need arises and helps shepherd us. We are lucky to call him our Pastor! Thank you and God bless you, Father JP!

Kathy and I also want to thank all of you for 30 wonderful years as part of this faith community. We are blessed to call you fellow parishioners and friends! Our family has so many wonderful memories of the Parish and School experience here that we will cherish forever! Thank you!

I wanted to leave you with something that I have been turning over in my mind for the last few weeks that I hope in some small way is viewed as a parting thought on our life in Christ. Here goes.

If we were to watch an artist paint, they would of course start with a blank canvas. Imagine though if they grabbed the blue paint and only painted what was to be blue in the picture, and then they set it aside. I guess that might be pretty, but the blue is all by itself.

Next, the artist grabs another blank canvas and yellow paint and paints everything that is yellow in the painting, then sets it aside also. And imagine if the artist did the same thing with each of the colors and each of the shades of the colors until the painting was done, but each color only residing on its own canvas. Again, pretty I guess but missing how the colors and shading all come together and complement each other. I think we'd feel incomplete, right? Now if instead the artist had used a single canvas and all of the colors, shading, texture and lighting on that one canvas, we'd have a mosaic, beautiful to look at.

So, now let's compare that to our faith life. The colors represent all we preach about as important parts of our faith life – the Eucharist, prayer, the Rosary, Adoration, the Mass, Baptism, anointing, forgiving others, trust, surrender, reconciliation, our faith community and so on. Individually, each of these are beautiful, necessary and efficacious. But if we only practice one of these, like the artist who only used one color per canvas, they are not as beautiful as when viewed and practiced collectively.

A faith life that practices coming to Mass, but lacks prayer, reconciliation, trust... is less than it could and should be. On the flip side, prayer in front of the Blessed Sacrament that is backed by fasting, Mass attendance, surrender and trust is a faith life that is more powerful and more beautiful than prayer by itself.

All the individual parts of our faith life become a mosaic when we practice them all together. A mosaic of only one or two colors is less than the mosaic that uses all the colors and talents of the artist. They complement each other and make each of the practices more powerful and potent. Think of it as creating a mosaic that is way more than the sum of its parts.

That's the life, the mosaic-like plan He has for us. If we embrace all of it, we will be blown away by its beauty... by that blank or one-color canvas transformed into our beautiful life with Christ!

CATHOLIC APPEAL

The 2026 Catholic Appeal has launched here at St. Mary and Blessed Sacrament parishes and across our Archdiocese. Our participation in the Catholic Appeal signifies an important way that we can share Christ's promise, care, and love with others. For those who have already made a gift, please know that I am deeply grateful. When each parish reaches its Appeal goals, that parish will receive funds back for our local programs and ministries. To make an online gift, please visit: www.bostoncatholicappeal.org.

SECOND COLLECTION—THIS WEEK

This week's second collection is for the Seminarians. This supports the formation and training of seminarians in the Archdiocese of Boston for service as future priests. Please be generous and support these seminarians on their journey toward their ordination to the priesthood. For more information, please visit www.VocationsBoston.org. We are grateful for your generosity.

BAPTISM REGISTRATION

Baptism is the first sacrament of Christian initiation. It is the sacrament that frees a person from original sin and makes that person a member of Christ and His Church, thus being the way to a new and spiritual life. One must be baptized before sharing in any of the other sacraments. Infants can be baptized soon after birth. At the time of baptism, parents vow to practice their faith and provide a Catholic upbringing for the child.

Group baptisms take place on the second Sunday of the month at 1pm at St. Mary's and at Blessed Sacrament on the third Sunday of the month at 12:30pm.

To register, please contact our Baptism Coordinator, Pat, at 508-668-4974 ext. 115. Leave a message and your call will be returned.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

READING 1.....ACTS 2:1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. (cf. 30) Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Bless the LORD, O my soul! O LORD, my God, you are great indeed! How manifold are your works, O LORD! the earth is full of your creatures;

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the LORD endure forever; may the LORD be glad in his works! Pleasing to him be my theme; I will be glad in the LORD.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

If you take away their breath, they perish and return to their dust. When you send forth your spirit, they are created, and you renew the face of the earth.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

READING1 CORINTHIANS 12:3B-7, 12-13

Brothers and sisters:

No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

SEQUENCE- VENI, SANCTE SPIRITUS

Come, Holy Spirit, come! And from your celestial home
Shed a ray of light divine!
Come, Father of the poor!
Come, source of all our store!
Come, within our bosoms shine. You, of comforters the best;
You, the soul's most welcome guest;
Sweet refreshment here below; In our labor, rest most sweet;
Grateful coolness in the heat; Solace in the midst of woe.
O most blessed Light divine, Shine within these hearts of yours,
And our inmost being fill!
Where you are not, we have naught, Nothing good in deed or thought,
Nothing free from taint of ill.
Heal our wounds, our strength renew; On our dryness pour your dew;
Wash the stains of guilt away:
Bend the stubborn heart and will; Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray.
On the faithful, who adore And confess you, evermore
In your sevenfold gift descend;
Give them virtue's sure reward;
Give them your salvation, Lord;
Give them joys that never end. Amen.
Alleluia.

ALLELUIA

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL.....JOHN 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you."

When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you."

And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness and
snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou,
O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
by the power of God,
thrust into hell Satan,
and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen..

SANCTUARY CANDLES AT BLESSED SACRAMENT

Remember a friend or loved one with a sanctuary candle lit in his/her name. Your Candle Intention can be in the Chapel or the Main Church for a $15 donation. The candle will burn from Sunday to Sunday for the week requested. All intentions will be noted in our bulletin. Call our Parish House at 508-668-4700 to request one.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

BLESSINGS AT MASSES

While only practicing Catholics are allowed to receive the Eucharist, anyone is welcome to come to the altar for a blessing during Communion. Because only priests and deacons are permitted to give a blessing, you must choose a line with a priest or deacon - and not a Eucharistic Minister - and cross your arms over your chest as you approach.

Our Mission Statement

We, the faith community of the Walpole Catholic Collaborative, welcome all people with our open hearts and joyful spirits. Rooted in the love of Christ and His Church, we seek to live a Catholic-centered life, nourished by the sacraments and guided by the Gospel. Through worship, service, and discipleship, we strive to grow in faith and share God's grace with the world.
