Carrying Your Prayer Intentions on the Camino de Santiago

This September, a small group from both of our parishes will set out on the Camino de Santiago, the ancient pilgrimage route that leads to the tomb of St. James. Pilgrims have walked this path for more than a thousand years, seeking renewal, healing, clarity, gratitude, and deeper communion with God.

During the registration process, I received several messages from individuals stating that they wished they might attend but could not for many good reasons, including physical challenges, financial constraints, timing considerations, and others. Perhaps the most surprising part for me was how many contained a request that our group hold a special intention in our hearts as we walk to Santiago.

As we prepare for this journey, I want you to know that we will carry your prayer intentions with us every step of the way.

One of the most beautiful traditions of pilgrimage is that pilgrims walk on behalf of others as well as themselves. This includes family, friends, neighbors, and even people they have never met... and so, in that spirit, I invite you to share your intentions with me. You may offer a name, a situation, a burden you are carrying, or a prayer of thanksgiving. Whatever you entrust to us, we will hold that in prayer as we make our way toward Santiago.

This practice has deep roots in Scripture. St. James reminds us to “pray for one another” (James 5:16), and St. Paul urges that “supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people” (1 Timothy 2:1). When we pray for someone else, we participate in the life of the Body of Christ. We say, in effect: You are not alone. I will stand with you before God. This is one of the quiet but powerful ways we “bear one another’s burdens” (Galatians 6:2) and make the love of Christ visible in our community.

Pilgrimage also teaches us something profound about praying for strangers. Along the Camino, it is common for pilgrims to pray for the person walking beside them, the person they met only once, or the person whose story they heard in passing. There is something deeply Christlike about offering prayer for someone who cannot repay you and may never know you prayed for them.

Praying for others also shapes our own hearts. It softens us, broadens our compassion, and helps us see the world as God sees it. Sometimes prayer changes circumstances in ways we cannot explain. Other times, prayer changes us... giving us patience, courage, or peace. Either way, prayer is never wasted.

As we prepare for the Camino, I invite you to participate in this pilgrimage in a few simple ways. First, please consider sharing your prayer intentions with me. We will carry them with reverence and lift them up each day along the way. Second, I encourage you to pray for our pilgrims as we walk. And finally, I invite you to choose one person - perhaps even someone you do not know well - and hold them in prayer. A small act of intercession can be a great act of love.

If you would like us to carry your intention to Santiago, please feel free to send me an email at rey.spadoni@walpolecatholic.org, or if you prefer, write it down, enclose it in a sealed envelope, and leave it for me at the Blessed Sacrament parish office on Diamond Street.

In this way, our Camino becomes not just a journey for a few of us, but a spiritual pilgrimage for others as well. May God bless you, and may we continue to walk together in faith, hope, and charity.

2026 REV. DONALD DELAY SERVICE RECOGNITION AWARD WINNERS

Thank you so much for selecting me as a recipient of this scholarship. I was truly honored and grateful to receive this award.

My faith has always been an important part of my life, and it means a lot to be recognized by my parish community. Growing up in the Catholic Church, receiving my sacraments, attending Mass with my family, and participating in parish activities have all helped shape who I am. While I know I still have room to grow in my faith, I am thankful for the values and guidance the Church has given me throughout my life. The service opportunities I have had through both the parish and the community have taught me so much. Whether helping with baptisms, supporting athletes through Mass Special Hockey and Unified Track, coaching younger kids, or spending time with residents at New Pond Village, I have learned that serving others is one of the best ways to live out my faith. These experiences have shown me the importance of kindness, compassion, and being present for others, which are lessons I will carry with me wherever I go.

This fall I will be attending Saint Anselm College to study Elementary Education. I am excited to continue growing academically, personally, and spiritually in a Catholic college community. Receiving this scholarship will help support me as I begin this next chapter, and I am incredibly thankful for your generosity.

Thank you again for this honor and for investing in the young people of our parish. I am grateful for your support, your prayers, and the example of faith and service that this award represents.

Most sincerely,
Caitlin Caulfield

BAPTISM REGISTRATION

Baptism is the first sacrament of Christian initiation. It is the sacrament that frees a person from original sin and makes that person a member of Christ and His Church, thus being the way to a new and spiritual life. One must be baptized before sharing in any of the other sacraments. Infants can be baptized soon after birth. At the time of baptism, parents vow to practice their faith and provide a Catholic upbringing for the child.

Group baptisms take place on the second Sunday of the month at 1pm at St. Mary's and at Blessed Sacrament on the third Sunday of the month at 12:30pm.

To register, please contact our Baptism Coordinator, Pat Chitvanni, at 508-668-4974 ext. 115. Leave a message and your call will be returned.

David Fielding

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

READING 1.....ZECHARIAH 9:9-10

Thus says the LORD:

Rejoice heartily, O daughter Zion,
shout for joy, O daughter Jerusalem!
See, your king shall come to you;
a just savior is he,
meek, and riding on an ass,
on a colt, the foal of an ass.
He shall banish the chariot from Ephraim,
and the horse from Jerusalem;
the warrior's bow shall be banished,
and he shall proclaim peace to the nations.
His dominion shall be from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. (cf. 1) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

I will extol you, O my God and King,
and I will bless your name forever and ever.
Every day will I bless you,
and I will praise your name forever and ever.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

The LORD is gracious and merciful,
slow to anger and of great kindness.
The LORD is good to all
and compassionate toward all his works.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

Let all your works give you thanks, O LORD,
and let your faithful ones bless you.
Let them discourse of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

The LORD is faithful in all his words and holy in all his works.
The LORD lifts up all who are falling and raises up all who are bowed down.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

READING 2ROMANS 8:9, 11-13

Brothers and sisters:

You are not in the flesh;
on the contrary, you are in the spirit,
if only the Spirit of God dwells in you.
Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him.
If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit that dwells in you.
Consequently, brothers and sisters, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live according to the flesh.
For if you live according to the flesh, you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

ALLELUIA

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL.....MATTHEW 11:25-30

At that time Jesus exclaimed:

"I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth,
for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones.
Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will.
All things have been handed over to me by my Father.
No one knows the Son except the Father,
and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him."

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened,
and I will give you rest.

Take my yoke upon you and learn from me,
for I am meek and humble of heart;
and you will find rest for yourselves.

For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL
THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou,
O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
by the power of God,
thrust into hell Satan,
and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen..

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

ST. MARY'S CEMETERY

St Mary's Cemetery in Needham, founded in the 1870's, is the parish cemetery of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes. The Cemetery is a reverent resting place for those awaiting reunion with the Risen Lord. The decision to pre-plan and purchase interment rights is a responsible and thoughtful gesture, sparing loved ones the stress of making difficult decisions during a time of grief and loss.

For information, call the cemetery staff at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church at 781-235-1841.
