TENDING GOD'S FLOCK

12 November 2023 | Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A

1. Today, October 4, Pope Francis opened the assembly of the Synod of Bishops with a Mass in St. Peter's Square. During his homily, the Holy Father said that the primary task of the synod is "to refocus our gaze on God, to be a church that looks mercifully at humanity, a church that is united and fraternal." The pope acknowledged that some people have fears about the synod, but he reminded them that it is "not a political gathering, but a convocation in the Spirit; not a polarized parliament, but a place of grace and communion." For the first time, this current Synod of Bishops will include voting delegates who are not bishops. Nearly a third of the 364 voting delegates were chosen directly by the pope, including laypeople, priests, consecrated women, and deacons. Fifty-four voting members are women.

2. Did you know that you can obtain a plenary indulgence in favor of a deceased person by visiting the cemetery and praying for the dead between November 1-8? (On other days the indulgence is only partial.) A plenary indulgence is a remission of temporal punishment for sins that have already been forgiven through sacramental confession. It has the effect of releasing souls from purgatory, so they can go to heaven sooner. To acquire a plenary indulgence, it is necessary to fulfill three conditions: confession, communion, and prayer for the intention of the Holy Father while being detached from sin.

3. In today's gospel (Matthew 25:1-13), we heard about the parable of the ten bridesmaids. Five of them were sensible, while the other five were described as "foolish." By means of this parable, Jesus proclaimed to anyone willing to listen: "God is coming! Be prepared to meet him when he comes." Today we are reminded that we should prepare our lamps, that we must keep them burning brightly by providing ourselves with enough oil of repentance, with enough oil of charity. Then we will be ready to encounter God anytime he chooses to come.

~ Fr Glenn | 4 October 2023

November is the month dedicated to remembering the dead. On Saturday, November 4, Father Glenn, assisted by Deacon Mark, led our annual Memorial Mass for those from our parish who passed away in the past year. As we gather in prayer, let us remember and pray for the souls of our departed loved ones. You can place the names of your deceased loved ones in an "All Souls" envelope (located at the back of the church), then put it in the offertory collection. You can write the name of the deceased in the "Book of the Names of the Dead" located in the sanctuary.

START EACH DAY WITH A GRATEFUL HEART

St. Thomas Corner of Gratitude!

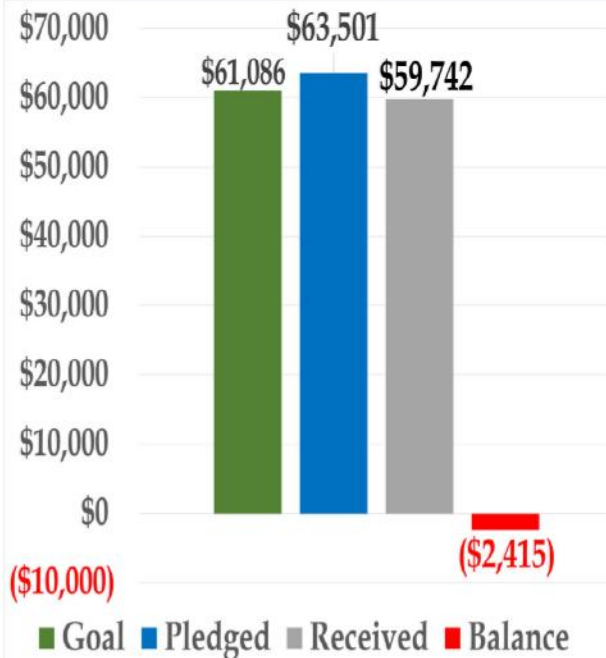

The Women's Guild Ministry demonstrated incredible generosity by rallying their members to raise funds, enabling them to contribute altar flowers for our church. Their support extended over several months, with donations in July, August, September, October, and once again this week (November 11 through November 17).

Our heartfelt gratitude goes out to the Women's Guild for their consistent and generous contributions, which have enhanced the beauty of our church.

SVdP // YFF ADVENT SALE // KNIGHTS FAMILY OF THE MONTH

In today's Gospel Jesus challenges us to "stay awake" by taking time to seriously look at ourselves, the priorities of our lives, and how we are growing spiritually.

Ask yourself "What would Jesus Christ do?" and then put your food donation in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry box next weekend so that those who are suffering will be able to celebrate Thanksgiving.

In October, your generosity through the Society of St. Vincent de Paul made it possible to extend the love and care of Jesus to those in need. Thanks to your gifts, we assisted families by providing 95 cases, distributing 2869 lbs. of food staples, bread, pastries, paper products, cleaning supplies, and personal hygiene items to 246 people within our parish boundary. A dedicated team of 18 volunteers contributed 63 hours, offering not just their time but also donated clothing, pastries, and bread.

Below is a list of items currently in short supply on our pantry shelves. Your continued support is valued, and we gratefully accept any food items you may wish to donate.

Pasta Sauce, Diced Tomatoes and Pasta Sauce Ketchup Mustard Mayo Rice Instant Potatoes Coffee, Instant Coffee, Tea Powdered Milk and Evaporated Milk Chef Boyardee Canned Meats, Canned Chicken, Canned Tuna Pancake Mix and Syrup Canned Vegetables Canned Soups, Ramen Noodles, Instant Potatoes, Macaroni and Cheese, Peanut Butter, Jelly, Canned Fruit Instant Oatmeal Cereal Crackers Snacks and Drinks Laundry Soap Dish Soap, Body Wash, Bar Soap Shampoo, Toilet Paper, Paper Towels, Toothpaste, Paper Towels, Kleenex Napkins.

Your generosity is the driving force behind the St. Thomas the Apostle Food Pantry, making it a beacon of hope for many in our local area.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to each one of you!

May God continue to bless you abundantly for giving from your heart, affording us the opportunity to serve and assist those who are less fortunate. .

Dan, Jasmine, and their three daughters have lived in Hernando County for three years. Dan works as an Assistant State Attorney in Sumter County, while Jasmine serves as a Human Resources Operations Manager at Florida Virtual School. They are actively involved in the Youth Faith Formation program at Saint Thomas and can often be seen attending the Sunday Mass at 10:30 a.m.
