Prepare for laughs, chills, and a whole lot of talent. Join us for this spooky, fun stage adaptation of R.L. Stine's Goosebumps tale, with music and lyrics by Danny Abosch & John Maclay. The play follows middle schoolers, Brooke and her best friend Zeke, who are thrilled to land leading roles in their school's scary-themed play, The Phantom. But when eerie notes appear and a masked figure seems to haunt rehearsals, the kids start to wonder whether the old legend about a real phantom beneath the auditorium might be true. As strange events escalate and friends are blamed for pranks they didn't pull, Brooke, Zeke, and new student Brian dive into the mystery — uncovering hidden trapdoors, secret messages, and a truth that blurs the line between ghost story and reality. The show blends music, mystery, and Halloween-style thrills with themes of courage, friendship, and facing fears head-on.
