

Wisdom 4:7-14 (female)

A Reading from the Book of Wisdom

The righteous one, though she die early, shall be at rest.
For the age that is honorable comes not with the passing of time, nor can it be measured in terms of years.

Rather, understanding passes for gray hair,
and an unsullied life is the attainment of old age.

The one who pleased God was loved, living among sinners, was transported — snatched away, lest wickedness pervert her mind or deceit beguile her soul;
for the witchery of paltry things obscures what is right and the whirl of desire transforms the innocent mind.

Having become perfect in a short while,
she reached the fullness of a long career;
for her soul was pleasing to the LORD,
therefore he sped him out of the midst of wickedness.

But the people saw and did not understand,
nor did they take that consideration into account.
