

YOU Are Invited

Unfinished Business: Understanding Racism's Past to Shape a Better Future

Presentation & Discussion

What

Join us as we present the legacy of racism and its systemic consequences on society today. Where have we been? Where are we now? Let's talk about it!

This is an engaging, candid, non-judgmental, and non-political discussion.

Organized by the St. Odilia Racial Equity Ministry

Sponsored by the Shoreview Human Rights Commission

When

Monday, June 16, 2025 from 5:30-7:30 PM

Where

Shoreview Community Center

(in the Shoreview Room, upper level)

4580 Victoria Street North, Shoreview, MN 55126

Guest Speaker

David Williard – Associate Professor of History, University of St. Thomas. Professor Williard teaches undergraduate and graduate courses in Modern United States History; the Civil War Era; the Historical Foundations of Racial Thought, Slavery, and Emancipation; and American Legal History.

RSVP

This is a free event. All are welcome (walk-ins included). For planning purposes, please RSVP to rem@stodilia.org or call 612-508-7564.