3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Representing his Father, Jesus didn't focus on sin. He urged people to believe that the reigning of God, a world moving unstopably toward unity in love, was happening in their midst. In calling them to metanoia, Jesus invited others to see what he saw — that the world was on the way to a future in which God would be all in all — and that future was already appearing.

GOD'S PITY FOR THE HEATHEN

So Jonah arose, and unto Nineveh, according to the word of the Lord. Now Nineveh was an exceeding great city of three days' journey. And Jonah began to enter a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them to the least of them. For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he and he

So the

from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and in ashes. And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

REFLECTION

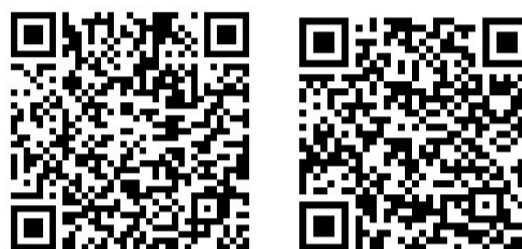

January 21, Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

The entire book of Jonah consists of only four chapters, and the chapter we hear today must be the only one Jonah would be proud of. You see, this is the second time the LORD called Jonah on this mission. In the first chapter, Jonah responds immediately to God’s call . . . by jumping on the first ship sailing in the opposite direction! During a brutal storm, the sailors throw him overboard, fearing that he brought on God’s wrath. In chapter two, Jonah is swallowed by a great fish, leading him to pray in desperation. Given a second chance in the passage we hear, he obeys at once. But in the final chapter Jonah is miffed. Nineveh was the enemy! Jonah hoped that he might see at least some of God’s promised wrath. But God teaches him that repentance, not punishment, was always the goal, for God’s mercy trumps God’s anger. Jonah may have failed to do right at first, and his heart was still divided when he did right, but he saved thousands of people from destruction because in the end he followed God’s call.
