Dear Sisters, Brothers and Friends of All Saints Catholic Church: Greetings and Praise the Lord

Viewing God as a safe haven in times of difficulty and as a secure base for activities in the World

Last week September 26 was “Daughter’s Day.” Of course, I don’t know who decided that, or any of the other days I see celebrated on Facebook. But it was delightful to see picture after picture of young girls and young women, all beaming, with their parents saying how proud they were of “our daughter” and “my daughter.”

I suppose we do think of our children like that, as if they are “ours” in a sense that they belong to us. Just watch a child wait for a parent at the airport; when they see each other, the joy is so amazing that you know they belong to each other. A lot of this belonging comes from our physical relationship; we say “my flesh and bones.” But where else in our lives is there a sense of belonging?

The readings underscore the human reality that men and women belong to each other when they have made a commitment in marriage. This reflects the relationship that the Scriptures show between Adam and Eve: “bone of my bone, flesh of my flesh.” This ideal from the book of Genesis has been a model for how essential marriage is to our human existence. We realize today that woman was created not as someone inferior to the man, but rather as someone who shares equality with man. Mutual love assumes this.

But notice how the belonging between man and woman come about. At some point, each must make a deliberate commitment to come to belong to each other, so powerfully that St. Paul will say that the wife’s flesh is the husband’s flesh, and vice versa. Many cultures see this belonging as a decision that a family makes to give their daughter to a worthy man. Even today some marriage ceremonies use the phrase, “Who gives this woman away.” But we Catholics see marriage as based in loving decision between the couple.

It is our faith and teaching that the man and woman belong to each other in God; that made with us—as unbreakable as is his love, so unbreakable should our marriage commitments be. We know, today, that many marriages do break; we know that divorce is just about as traumatic to a person as the death of a family member.

It’s way too easy to sit in judgment on broken marriages. That’s not the point of today’s readings. More, our task as believers and Christians is to witness to the kind of love that Jesus shows us, and the faithfulness that was at the heart of his saving work. Jesus, as part of his saving work, bound himself to us with a faithful love that shows that we belong to him, and he belongs to us. He gives us a model of expansive, generous love that we are called to show in different ways in our lives.

While only a few are our blood family, our love extends to those beyond our families by the respect, honesty, and care that we exercise with others. While our nations and races show differences, our love calls us beyond those difference to embrace all people. While forces around us try to divide us, our love calls us to work for unity and peace. Jesus is not afraid to call us brothers and sisters; he calls us to live the same way.

What gives you a sense of belonging to Christ?

FAITH FORMATION FOR MEN

Our new ministry "FAITH FORMATION FOR MEN" encourages men of the parish to come together and grow in holiness. God calls each of us to come to Him. The stronger our faith, the closer we come to the Lord. This ministry will strengthen the faith of participants.

We look forward to All Saints men meeting monthly to grow in the Lord. Meetings are held on the second Wednesday of every month in the church building at 7 pm. Deacon Harold Vincent and Deacon Raphael Velasquez will coordinate this ministry.

OLD CHURCH GETS MODERN RESTROOM

By Alexis Broussard Robinson

As in most historic buildings, especially places of worship, having a restroom inside the building is a true luxury.

The current All Saints church building was dedicated by Archbishop Shaw on May 10, 1931, with a school next door. If the restroom was needed, it required walking up the church aisle to the right front corner of the church, retrieving a key, maneuvering about six steps to the restroom in the school yard.

The need for a restroom became so much more obvious when a wheelchair bound person, elders or parents with small children were in attendance.

Did we mention the weather?

With no covering between the church and the school, inclement weather was a challenge for everyone.

Talks of installing a restroom had occurred for many years. Even more of a concern was when both the church and the school were entered into the National Register of Historic Places in 2019.

Eurydice Bush-Harrison, a parishioner, contacted the State Division of Historic Preservation.

She said, "They advised that this type of alteration would not affect the registry listing."

After the restroom idea remained dormant for some time, Father Fred Kaddu initiated a campaign to raise the funds needed for a restroom in the only space possible in the church, the confessional.

The confessional was then moved to the usher's locker room.

"When the idea of installing a restroom in the church came up, it seemed like a pipe dream, a much-needed pipe dream, said Greg Cantrell, immediate past parish council president, noting that it had been talked about in the past and never came to fruition.

But a parish fundraiser raised more than $51,000 to fund the project.

"Today we are blessed to have a beautiful, old church with a beautiful, modern restroom," said Mr. Cantrell. "Our parishioners, and our many visitors especially during funerals, enjoy the convenience and privacy of a nice addition to our old church."

HOLY HOUR/
EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

Holy Hour (Latin: hora sancta) is the Roman Catholic devotional tradition of spending an hour in prayer and meditation on the agony of Jesus Christ in the garden of Gethsemane, or in Eucharistic adoration in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. A plenary indulgence is granted for this practice. The practice is also observed in some Lutheran churches and some Anglican

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

OCTOBER: MONTH OF THE ROSARY

The month of October each year is dedicated to the Most Holy Rosary. This is primarily due to the fact that the liturgical feast of Our Lady of the Rosary is celebrated annually on October 7. It was instituted to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary in gratitude for the protection that she gives the Church in answer to the praying of the Rosary by the faithful.

The Rosary is appealing and simple. The purpose of the Rosary is to help us meditate on the great mysteries of our salvation. Every time we pray the Our Father we are reminded that Jesus' Father is the initiator of salvation. Praying the Hail Mary reminds us that we are joining with Mary in contemplating these mysteries. In addition, they help to make us aware that Mary was and is still intimately joined with her son, Jesus, in all the mysteries of earthly and heavenly existence. The constant repetition of prayer creates an atmosphere of contemplation.

The traditional fifteen Mysteries of the Rosary were finalized by the sixteenth century. The mysteries are grouped into sets: the Joyful Mysteries, the Sorrowful Mysteries, the Glorious Mysteries, and, in 2002, Pope John Paul II announced the new Luminous Mysteries.

October is the Month of the Rosary

REFLECTION

Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

To that end, we are reminded on Respect Life Sunday that we are called to care for all human life, for we are all members or potential members of the one body of Christ. We witnessed Jesus' care for the vulnerable in his ministry, from those with terrible diseases and those possessed by demons to Samaritans and little children, none of whom were welcomed by those around him. Jesus could sympathize with them, for he himself was made lowly so that he could suffer and die for us. Today we defend the lives of the vulnerable and care for those who are least able to do so themselves.
