What does it mean to be Catholic?

Each Catholic is called to full and active participation in the life of the Church and has the right and responsibility to:

1. Attend Mass on Sundays and on Holy Days of Obligation.
2. Confess your sins, through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, at least once a year.
3. Receive the Eucharist.
4. Observe the days of fasting (Ash Wednesday and Good Friday) and abstinence (Ash Wednesdays and Fridays in Lent) established by the Church.
5. Help to provide for the needs of the Church.

REFLECTIONS

Dear Sisters, Brothers, and Friends of All Saints Catholic Church: Greetings to you all, and praise the Lord.

The Fire of God's Call

On this 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time, the readings speak of the inner struggle of discipleship and the burning call of God that cannot be ignored.

The first reading from Jeremiah (20:7–9) reveals the prophet's intense experience of God's mission. Jeremiah feels mocked and rejected because of the message he must proclaim. He admits that he wanted to remain silent, yet God's Word became like a fire burning in his heart. He could not hold it in. This reading reminds that following God's call can bring difficulty, but His truth must still be spoken.

The second reading from Romans (12:1–2) urges believers to offer their lives as a living sacrifice. St. Paul calls this the true spiritual worship. He warns against being conformed to the world, but instead being transformed by the renewal of the mind. Faith requires a different way of thinking, shaped by God's will rather than worldly values.

The Gospel (Matthew 16:21–27) presents a challenging moment between Jesus and Peter. Jesus begins to speak about His suffering, death, and Resurrection. Peter resists, unable to accept the Cross. Jesus responds firmly, teaching that God's ways are not the ways of human comfort.

Jesus then speaks clearly: "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." Discipleship is not about seeking an easy life, but about surrendering to Christ. The Cross is not a symbol of defeat but of love and salvation.

This Sunday reminds that faith is costly but meaningful. Life gains true purpose not by clinging to selfish desires, but by giving oneself to God. The world promises comfort, but Christ offers eternal life.

God's Word is a fire that transforms hearts. The call is to embrace the Cross with courage, trusting that suffering united with Christ leads to glory.

May this Eucharist strengthen hearts to follow Jesus faithfully, accept the Cross, and live with the transforming fire of God's love.

CCD Registration & Faith Formation Invitation

Parents, we warmly invite you to enroll your children in CCD/Religious Education this year. Faith formation is one of the greatest gifts you can give your child—helping them grow in prayer, learn the teachings of the Church, and build a strong relationship with Jesus Christ.

CCD also prepares children to receive the sacraments of:

- Reconciliation (Confession)
- First Holy Communion
- Confirmation.

and continuing formation toward a life of faith

We also encourage parents to ask: Are your children baptized? If not, we are here to help you begin that journey.

Let 2026 be a year of faith and preparation for your family—a year to bring your children closer to Christ and strengthen your home with God's love.

For registration and information, please contact the parish office 504-361-8835, Reach the DRE: Ms. Jackie Lombard- the Religious Education Department. Fill a form at the back of the Church or scan the QR code.

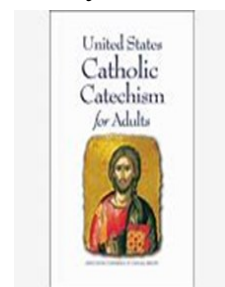

OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults)

OCIA stands for the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. It is the Church's process for preparing adults (and older teens) who are not yet Catholic—or who have not completed their sacraments—to become fully initiated into the Catholic faith.

OCIA is for those who are:

- not baptized,
- baptized in another Christian tradition, or
- baptized Catholic but have not received First Holy Communion and/or Confirmation.

Through OCIA, participants learn the Catholic faith and prepare to receive the sacraments of Baptism (if needed), First Holy Communion, and Confirmation.

Our parish OCIA program is a meaningful sign of evangelization—people are responding to Christ and seeking a deeper relationship with Him through the Church. We warmly welcome anyone interested in becoming Catholic or simply learning more about the Catholic faith. Every inquiry is a reminder that God continues to draw hearts toward deeper faith and sacramental life.

We encourage all parishioners to share this invitation with family and friends. To register please contact our OCIA Director, Gregory Cantrell, scan the QR code or Fill a form at the back of the Church or call the parish office at 504-361-8835.

REFLECTION

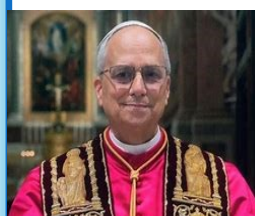

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Who can really blame Peter for saying what he felt? He loves Jesus, has just proclaimed him Christ and Lord, and probably expects him to take the throne of David when they get to Jerusalem, but now is hearing that Jesus is going to be killed when they get there. He will not let that happen! But none of them understand that this is Jesus' mission. They are, as Jesus says, "thinking not as God does, but as human beings do" (Matthew 16:23). As we are human beings ourselves, limited by human thinking, we also wish that our own mission was easy and safe. But it is not. It requires denying our desires and carrying our crosses, no matter how difficult or scary. In baptism, we were marked with the sign of the cross. As disciples, we are called to live that out.
