What does it mean to be Catholic?

- Each Catholic is called to full and active participation in the life of the Church and has the right and responsibility to:
1. Attend Mass on Sundays and on Holy Days of Obligation.
 2. Confess your sins, through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, at least once a year.
 3. Receive the Eucharist.
 4. Observe the days of fasting (Ash Wednesday and Good Friday) and abstinence (Ash Wednesdays and Fridays in Lent) established by the Church.
 5. Help to provide for the needs of the Church.

REFLECTIONS

Dear Sisters, Brothers, and Friends of All Saints Catholic Church: Greetings to you all, and praise the Lord.

Forgiven to Forgive

On this 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Gospel teaches about the boundless mercy of God and the call to extend that mercy to others.

In today's Gospel (Matthew 18:21–35), Peter asks Jesus an important question: "How often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Peter thinks he is being generous. But Jesus responds, "Not seven times, but seventy-seven times." This means forgiveness has no limit. Mercy must be continual, just as God's mercy is endless.

Jesus then tells the parable of the unforgiving servant. A servant owes his master an enormous debt—impossible to repay. The master, moved with compassion, forgives the entire debt. Yet that same servant refuses to forgive a fellow servant who owes only a small amount. Because of his hardness of heart, the master condemns him.

This parable reveals a powerful truth: all have received mercy from God far beyond what can ever be deserved. Sin is the great debt that Christ cancels through His Cross. To refuse forgiveness to others is to forget what has been received.

Forgiveness is not always easy. Hurt can run deep, and wounds may remain. Yet Christ calls for hearts free from bitterness. Forgiveness does not mean ignoring wrongdoing; it means releasing vengeance and trusting God with justice.

This Gospel challenges every believer to reflect: Is mercy offered as freely as it is received? The Christian life is rooted in grace. Those who have been forgiven are called to forgive. Those who have been loved are called to love.

Families, communities, and friendships are healed when forgiveness becomes a habit rather than an exception. Mercy transforms relationships and reflects the heart of God.

May this Sunday renew gratitude for God's limitless forgiveness and inspire hearts to become instruments of mercy, peace, and reconciliation in the world.

CCD Registration & Faith Formation Invitation

Parents, we warmly invite you to enroll your children in CCD/Religious Education this year. Faith formation is one of the greatest gifts you can give your child—helping them grow in prayer, learn the teachings of the Church, and build a strong relationship with Jesus Christ.

CCD also prepares children to receive the sacraments of:

- Reconciliation (Confession)
- First Holy Communion
- Confirmation.

and continuing formation toward a life of faith

We also encourage parents to ask: Are your children baptized? If not, we are here to help you begin that journey.

Let 2026 be a year of faith and preparation for your family—a year to bring your children closer to Christ and strengthen your home with God's love.

For registration and information, please contact the parish office 504-361-8835, Reach the DRE: Ms. Jackie Lombard- the Religious Education Department. Fill a form at the back of the Church or scan the QR code.

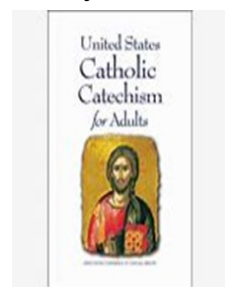

OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults)

OCIA stands for the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. It is the Church's process for preparing adults (and older teens) who are not yet Catholic—or who have not completed their sacraments—to become fully initiated into the Catholic faith.

OCIA is for those who are:

- not baptized,
- baptized in another Christian tradition, or
- baptized Catholic but have not received First Holy Communion and/or Confirmation.

Through OCIA, participants learn the Catholic faith and prepare to receive the sacraments of Baptism (if needed), First Holy Communion, and Confirmation.

Our parish OCIA program is a meaningful sign of evangelization—people are responding to Christ and seeking a deeper relationship with Him through the Church. We warmly welcome anyone interested in becoming Catholic or simply learning more about the Catholic faith. Every inquiry is a reminder that God continues to draw hearts toward deeper faith and sacramental life.

We encourage all parishioners to share this invitation with family and friends. To register please contact our OCIA Director, Gregory Cantrell, scan the QR code or Fill a form at the back of the Church or call the parish office at 504-361-8835.

REFLECTION

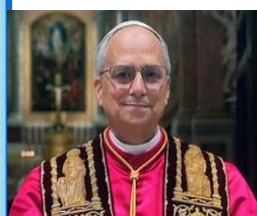

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In a way, today's Gospel is a logical extension of the golden rule. Earlier, Jesus taught his disciples, "Do to others whatever you would have them do to you" (Matthew 7:12). Today's parable teaches them: Forgive others as you would have them forgive you. He closes with the kicker: God will forgive you as you forgive others. None of us is sinless. None of us always does the right thing. None of us is proud of our weakest moment. Yes, we may be in the right in whatever case is leading to our resentment or anger. But if we don't forgive the person who injured us, we can't expect forgiveness from God, let alone a neighbor we ourselves have wronged.
