STEWARDSHIP

July 13, 2025

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Jesus said to him, ‘Go and do likewise.’” LUKE 10:37

This was Jesus’ command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know, or someone that looks different than you, or someone that has different beliefs than you, or someone that you don’t like. All without expecting anything in return.

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

These are accurate numbers for our parish for the given month.

Month	May Actual
Offertory	164,029.00
Expenses	190,394.00

Thank you for continuing to support our parish. Your generous donations and commitment to support us with your Time, Talent and Treasure is greatly appreciated and needed to meet our financial obligations and support the programs of the Church. The staff and I continue to pray for you. Please continue to pray for us, our parishioners and the world community. Peace be with you! +++ Father Hoa

“As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God’s varied grace” (1Pt 4:0)

DID YOU KNOW?

For Catholics, having their marriage recognized by the Church is important because the Catholic Church views marriage as a sacrament, a sacred union between a man and a woman, and a reflection of Christ's love for the Church. A Catholic marriage, recognized by the Church, is seen as a path to holiness and a way to receive God's grace to strengthen the marital bond. It also signifies a commitment to the Church's teachings on marriage and family life. "The matrimonial covenant, by which a man and a woman establish between themselves a partnership of the whole of life, is by its nature ordered toward the good of the spouses and the procreation and education of offspring; this covenant between baptized persons has been raised by Christ the Lord to the dignity of a sacrament." CCC 1601

Here's why it's important:

Sacrament: Catholics believe marriage is a sacrament, a visible sign of God's grace, and a sacred covenant with God.

Fullness of the Sacraments: Recognizing the marriage in the Church allows Catholics to fully participate in the sacraments, including the Eucharist and Reconciliation, which are central to Catholic life.

Grace and Blessings: A sacramental marriage is believed to bring God's grace, which strengthens the couple's commitment and helps them navigate the challenges of married life.

Indissolubility: The Catholic Church teaches that marriage is a lifelong, indissoluble union. Recognizing the marriage in the Church reinforces this commitment.

Family Life: Marriage is seen as the foundation of a loving and healthy family life and recognizing it within the Church aligns with Catholic teachings on family values.

For Catholics who married outside the Church there is a process that allows them to bring their marriage into the Church and have it recognized as a sacrament. Contact Genni Sayers at gsayers@holymfamilyfw.org to get started.
