PASTOR’S PULSE ON THE PARISH

SUNDAY
AUGUST 31ST
2025

Dear Friends,
St. Monica, the mother of St. Augustine, is a woman of great power in the Church’s history, and that power is displayed through the constant, fervent and faithful prayer to bring her son to Christ.

It took many years, but Monica’s tears and prayers not only won her son over to Christ, he also gave his entire life to the Lord, becoming a bishop and a prolific writer!

It is a great and comforting witness to see what prayer can accomplish, but as always, it is done in God’s time. I have no doubt that Monica would have much preferred that her son come to the Lord many years before, but in God’s providence, he allowed her spiritual ardor to be built up within her, while at the same time fortifying her son for the great pastoral work he would embrace after coming to Jesus. Those were things that both Monica and Augustine could not see clearly, but which God could see very well.

Our ways are not God’s ways

Providence is something that many struggle with in the spiritual life. In a world of instant gratification, we want to make our prayer, snap our fingers, and poof - we have an answer. That may be the way of humanity, but it is not the way of God.

We may never come to know God’s providence in certain situations until we behold the glory of heaven. On our part, we surrender and trust that God will take whatever it is we bring to Him and allow it to become part of His goodness and love. We may not see it, we may not understand it, but we know by our faith that God’s goodness will always be revealed at the right time, and in the right moment.

Fix our eyes on Jesus

The opening prayer of the 21st week in ordinary time brings this all into beautiful focus: “that, amid the uncertainties of this world, our hearts may be fixed on that place where true gladness is found.”

The world is constantly shifting beneath us, and uncertainty lurks around every corner.

Tragic things can happen which can change lives in a short moment. It might feel as though we’re not able to stand as the evil one attempts to draw us away from God into the quagmire of despair and heartbreak.

It’s in situations like this that we dig down deep and bring forth the faith of St. Monica: we keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, and on the place that has been prepared for us. Our eyes on the eyes of Jesus - fixed upon Him, gazing upon Him, trusting in Him. He is the one who makes the crooked ways straight and calms the raging seas. All we need is found in the ocean of His merciful heart.

Updates around campus

It was another big week of accomplishments on the cathedral campus. On Wednesday of this past week, several semis visited our campus with pieces of the covered parking entry. A crane was onsite to offload the trucks and place the pieces where they needed to be. It was a very successful operation!

Now that the pre-stress concrete is in place, it will be decorated with stone veneer which matches closely to the church. Significant work was also accomplished in the sanctuary, with the completion of the marble tile and the initial framing of the predellas (platforms) for the bishop’s cathedra (chair) and the main altar. I’ve shared some photos so you can see the progress!

Bell installation is Sept. 3rd & 4th

Next week will be another big week on campus, with the scheduled lift of the bells and support structure into the bell tower. The lift is scheduled for Wednesday, September 3rd, with an alternate date of Thursday, September 4th in case of inclement weather or high winds.

While I know that some of you would like to be physically present to watch this great occasion, we will be very limited to the number of people we can have on campus due to the heavy equipment and potential risks involved. I will plan to live stream the lift on our parish Facebook page

Smoke is generated as the first pieces of the covered parking entrance are welded in place.

“He is the one who makes the crooked ways straight and calms the raging seas. All we need is found in the ocean of His merciful heart.”
- Fr. Michael

(www.facebook.com/StBernardMadison) in case you’d like to log on and watch from the comfort of your home. It will be a wonderful experience to share in together - even if only virtually.

I continue to be grateful to each of you for your prayers. Please offer the bell lift as a special intention to Our Lady in the coming week. While every safety precaution will be taken, there are always risks and unknowns which require quick thinking.

May the Holy Spirit be in the hearts of all who will be involved to safely accomplish this great part of the project.

With love in the Sacred Heart,
Fr. Michael

The front fascia of the covered parking lot entrance is welded in place.

Erection of the covered parking entry is complete.

LIVES OF THE SAINTS

September 3, 2025

The following information is reprinted with permission from www.catholicculture.org:

St. Gregory the Great

St. Gregory was born at Rome in 540. He was successively senator and prefect of Rome before the age of 30. After five years he resigned and became a monk, transforming his own house into a Benedictine monastery, and founding six others. At the age of 50 he was elected pope, serving from 590 to 604. In 14 years he accomplished much for the Mystical Body of Christ.

After seeing English children being sold as slaves in Rome, he sent 40 monks, including St. Augustine of Canterbury, from his own monastery to make “the Angles angels.” England owes her conversion to him. At a period when the invasion of the barbarian Lombards created a new situation in Europe, he played a great part in winning them for Christ. When Rome itself was under attack, he personally went to interview the Lombard King.

At the same time he watched equally over the holiness of the clergy and the maintenance of Church discipline, the temporal interests of his people of Rome and the spiritual interests of all Christendom. He removed unworthy priests from office, forbade taking money for many services, and emptied the papal treasury to ransom prisoners of the Lombards and to care for persecuted Jews and victims of plague and famine. These deeds and others made him, in the words of an antiphon in his office, “the Father of the City, the joy of the World.”

Gregory reformed the liturgy, and it still contains several of his most beautiful prayers. The name “Gregorian chant” recalls this great Pope’s work in the development of the Church’s music. His commentaries on Holy Scripture exercised a considerable influence on Christian thought in the Middle Ages. St. Gregory died on March 12, 604. His body lies at St. Peter’s in Rome.
