PASTOR'S PULSE ON THE PARISH

SUNDAY
DECEMBER 14
2025

Dear Friends,
It's hard to believe, but we're already to the third Sunday of Advent, and the Church's call to prepare the way for the Lord is a message received with great joy on this Gaudete Sunday. The liturgical color of rose returns to remind us of the impending coming of the Lord's birth and the dawning of our salvation.

St. Juan Diego

This past week, we commemorated the memorial of St. Juan Diego, who was a servant of Mary and of the Church as he brought to the bishop of his area a bouquet of roses that had been picked on the hill of Tepeyac.

Juan had gathered them into his tilma, and when he presented them to the bishop as evidence of the proof he had asked for to corroborate the appearance of our Lady to him, he also received another very special gift: the imprint of our Lady's face upon the tilma.

There was much rejoicing, and the modern-day Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe welcomes hundreds of thousands of pilgrims each year in Mexico City.

St. Juan Diego has a special love for those discerning God's will. Up until the time of our Lady's apparition to him, he was a simple peasant farmer.

There was really nothing extraordinary about his life. He loved the Lord most deeply and was very humble. Those qualities endeared him to our Lord's heart as the Spirit chose him for something great. That something great, however, didn't come along until he was 50 years old! ☺

God's time is not our time

I hear so often from our young people, "Father, I just don't know what God has in store for my life. I wish I could understand what He is calling me to do."

Additional Confession times

Not only was St. Juan Diego an important part of the construction of the basilica in our Lady's honor, but after its construction, he was the greeter – welcoming pilgrims from near and far to encounter the Blessed Mother and to rejoice in her love as he did.

The Lord reveals Himself to us in His time, and while we wish His time and our time were united together, that's not always the case.

I tell our young people not to be discouraged, and to remain close to the Lord through His Church, a strong life of prayer, and an ever-present spirit that listens for the voice of God in the whispers of daily living.

Discerning God's will

Some will be called to be great public figures who stand out and are recognized by many. Others will be called to live far simpler lives and to respond to the Lord's call to be a good wife, husband, mother, or father.

The world may not know of our notoriety, but our Heavenly Father surely does. God will reveal who He wishes you to be, and sometimes, perhaps that vision is not congruent with the vision we have established for ourselves. "Yet not my will be done, but yours."

St. Juan Diego teaches us a beautiful and important lesson: live in God, and wait for those moments in which He asks you to do things in His name. Whether big or small, do them with love and with a deep desire to serve Him and help His love reach to the ends of the earth.

"St. Juan Diego teaches us a beautiful and important lesson: live in God, and wait for those moments in which He asks you to do things in His name."

- Fr. Michael

these opportunities. I hope that all of us can make a good Confession before Christmas and prepare a heart worthy of the Lord to dwell there. If the additional times don't work into your schedule, our neighboring parishes are offering various opportunities for Confession, and you're welcome to take advantage of one of those options as well.

Calendar raffle update

We're not quite to the 50% mark as yet for raffle ticket sales. If you haven't had a chance to purchase raffle tickets, please do so. I'm very grateful for your assistance in making the calendar raffle a success, as it's the most important (and only) fundraiser of the year.

Closing Mass for Jubilee Year

The Feast of the Holy Family will be special this year as we conclude the Jubilee Year with a special Mass celebrated by Bishop Hying. He'll be the principal celebrant at the 10:00am Mass. Following that Mass, those in attendance will be encouraged to visit the cathedral and see the progress that's been made.

We may have a few more faithful at this Mass than we usually do. Extra seating will be set up and available to accommodate the added number of people. It will be a beautiful celebration!

May we find the Lord in all things – both the ordinary and extraordinary – and always remember the motto of St. Therese to do little things with great love.

With love in the Sacred Heart,

Fr. Michael

O ANTIPHONS DURING ADVENT

December 17-23, 2025

The following information is found at www.usccb.org/prayers/o-antiphons-advent:

O Antiphons

The Roman Church has been singing the "O" Antiphons since at least the eighth century. They are the antiphons that accompany the Magnificat canticle of Evening Prayer from December 17-23. They are a magnificent theology that uses ancient biblical imagery drawn from the messianic hopes of the Old Testament to proclaim the coming Christ as the fulfillment not only of Old Testament hopes, but present ones as well. Their repeated use of the imperative "Come!" embodies the longing of all for the Divine Messiah.

December 17

O Wisdom of our God Most High,
guiding creation with power and love:
come to teach us the path of knowledge!

December 18

O Leader of the House of Israel,
giver of the Law to Moses on Sinai:
come to rescue us with your mighty power!

December 19

O Root of Jesse's stem,
sign of God's love for all his people:
come to save us without delay!

December 20

O Key of David,
opening the gates of God's eternal Kingdom:
come and free the prisoners of darkness!

December 21

O Radiant Dawn,
splendor of eternal light, sun of justice:
come and shine on those who dwell in darkness
and in the shadow of death.

December 22

O King of all nations and keystone of the Church:
come and save man, whom you formed from the dust!

December 23

O Emmanuel, our King and Giver of Law:
come to save us, Lord our God!
