SPEND TIME WITH OUR LORD EACH WEEK

Eucharistic Adoration takes place each Monday immediately following the 12:10 pm Mass and concludes at 6:30 pm with the Novena to St. Jude. and Benediction.

From the Pastor's Desk . . .

Remember Memorial Day is always a poignant day, a time to mourn the dead of war, a time to be thankful for them and the freedoms for which they died. It is a time to teach all children that America is still good.

To all the soldiers, sailors, Marines, airmen, Merchant Marines, Coast Guardsmen and everyone else who has given their life to serve the United States of America or to achieve the freedom of others from tyranny, we remember!

Enjoy the holiday, yes. The parade will be fun, but don't forget the reason for it, the nature of it. Teach children true patriotism. It must happen in the family. Forgive this, but the rest of the column today is about priests.

Prayers A few weeks ago I was at a Funeral Mass in another parish. When it was over I was speaking with a lady who is a parishioner there. After a few minutes she told me that she prays for priests, specifically and by name. She said there is a group of people who pray for a priest, usually the pastor (for which I am grateful), in various parishes. Then she reached into her pocket and presented me with a page with a very beautiful prayer on it... both sides, single-spaced. I thanked her for giving me that and for praying so much for her priests. Now, I present it to you in the event that someone may wish to pray for me or Fr. Denis, or Fr. Gerry or Fr. Mathew, or any other priest! Or for all priests!

I will have it placed in the bulletin this week as an insert! I do so with humility and gratitude. What a nice thing it is! Here is a funny cartoon about prayer:

Yes, I guess sometimes prayer demands action, whether doing a work of mercy or buying yourself a pony.

Swiftly fly the years Speaking of priests, this week I will observe anniversary number 42. Here is the moment of ordination to the priesthood by Archbishop Peter Leo Gerety:

The Apostles conferred the priestly office by the laying on of hands, and so has it been for twenty centuries. After the laying on of hands, one is vested in stole and chasuble, the priestly vestments. Then, the new priest's hands are anointed with sacred chrism, setting them apart to do God's work (right photo). It has been the greatest gift in my life, of course. And the greatest responsibility.

This year, in fact yesterday, May 27, four priests were ordained for the Newark Archdiocese. In my year we had 18. Here is a photo of the newly ordained during the Mass in 1981. The arrow points to me, partially obscured in the second row. To the far right of me is Fr. Dennehy. Only he and I remain actively assigned. Others have died, retired, or sadly, left.

I have had many very significant assignments and they were all wonderful and happy. None was especially easy but I have always had good friends and good priests around me. Here at Saint Philomena I feel hugely blessed by you, our parish family. I feel sometimes that there is nothing we cannot do! Here we all work together and respect and love each other. We have an abundance in the things that matter to God. I am proud and thankful to be the pastor here, grateful for my brother priests and for our dear parishioners.

I wish you all a very happy and meaningful weekend!
~ Msgr. Fuhrman

Word of Life

"Even the weakest and most vulnerable, the sick, the old, the unborn and the poor, are masterpieces of God's creation, made in his own image, destined to live forever, and deserving of the utmost reverence and respect."

Memorial March for Life

Please join with the Livingston L.I.F.E (Life Is For Everyone) Committee as we march in the Livingston Memorial Day parade on Monday, May 29, to honor all those who have given their lives to preserve our freedom, and all those who stood firm in defense of life.....in memory of the millions of our children who have been killed by abortion.....in prayer for all those touched by abortion that they allow themselves to experience the Lord's forgiveness and healing, and for our Country that God may deliver us from this Holocaust.

The parade begins at 10:00 AM after the memorial service that will start at 9:30 AM. We will gather on the Library side of the oval immediately after the memorial service. We march behind the L.I.F.E. banner and our nation's flag (no signs or posters please). All are welcome to join us. Families with children wishing to march can watch the parade at the town hall area and then fall in behind the L.I.F.E. banner when we turn onto So. Livingston Ave. For information call Dan Kraft at (973) 992-6132.

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." — Jn 20:21-23

The Chaplet of the Divine Mercy

Excerpts from the Diary of Saint Faustina

"O humility, lovely flower, I see how few souls possess you. Is it because you are so beautiful and at the same time so difficult to attain."

(Diary 1011)

Reflections on Stewardship

"To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good." 1 CORINTHIANS 12:7

To receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit you must open your heart and invite Him in! Ask the Holy Spirit to guide your thoughts, words and actions every day! Be grateful for all the gifts God has given you! Regardless of our individual circumstances, God has given all of us many blessings. What we do with those gifts is our gift back to God! By generously sharing everything we have and everything we are, we become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered" and our lives truly reflect God's light, love and mercy.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

Dear Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive your Body and Blood. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. Stay close to me, Jesus, so that I may be close to all our sisters and brothers, especially those who are most in need of your loving care. Amen.

Bereavement Ministry

If you have recently suffered the loss of a loved one and are new to this ministry or have joined us in the past and are in need of continued support, please contact Sr. Niky for more information on how this ministry can be a source of comfort during this difficult time.

Read my memoir, A Mother's Survival: Finding Balance Through the Storms by Hope Brooks.

It is the journey of how I overcame a traumatic childhood, marriage to a man with mental illness, the consequences of divorce on my children, remarriage, and raising a blended family. With strength and God by my side, I walked the path to find the power of forgiveness. The book can be found on Amazon.
