For the Sick and for the Health of Noe Reyes Alvarado & Family

Heavenly Father;

Today with hearts full of gratitude, we remember the countless blessings You have poured out upon our parish school. We thank You for the generations of students, teachers, parents, and staff who have walked through our school doors. Thank You for the knowledge gained, the friendships forged, and the faith that has been nurtured.

As we close this chapter, we acknowledge our sadness and the weight of this final farewell. Yet, we also recognize that the true spirit of this school is not confined to a building, but lives on in the lives of every person who was shaped here.

Bless every student who has learned here, that the seeds of faith, knowledge, and kindness planted in their hearts may grow and bear fruit in the world.

Bless every teacher and leader, that their gifts may continue to inspire wherever they are called next.

Bless our parish community, that even in change, we remain united in Your love and mission.

Lord, as we step into a new chapter, help us carry forward the spirit of this school a spirit of service, compassion, and faith — so that its light will never truly fade

We entrust our past, present, and future into Your hands, confident that You make all things new.

Vaya con Dios

Introducing our new 'Did You Know' Section. We will be posting fun facts about saints, roots of Catholicism, the church, priests, and so much more ! Stay tuned for more.

The Eucharistic miracle in Orvieto played a key role in launching the Solemnity of Corpus Christi.

In 1263, a priest named Father Peter of Prague was struggling with doubt. Though faithful, he found it hard to believe that Christ was truly present — body, blood, soul and divinity — in the consecrated Host. While offering Mass in the town of Bolsena, just outside Orvieto, he begged God to strengthen his faith. At that moment, blood began to drip from the Host onto the corporal and the altar.

Shaken, Father Peter halted the Mass and went directly to Pope Urban IV, who was residing in nearby Orvieto. After an investigation, the miracle was confirmed, and the corporal was enshrined in the cathedral, where it remains to this day.

Just one year later, Pope Urban IV instituted the Solemnity of Corpus Christi for the universal Church, commissioning St. Thomas Aquinas to compose the liturgical texts. The Church responded to doubt with procession, with worship, with reverence. And we are called to do the same

Today, in a world riddled with skepticism, indifference and confusion, the need for Eucharistic faith is no less urgent. We are told that religion is a private matter, that sacraments are merely symbolic, and that hope is little more than wishful thinking. Yet throughout history, God has worked Eucharistic miracles — like the one at Orvieto and many others across the centuries — not to dazzle us, but to affirm the truth of his presence and to strengthen our faith. Christ truly dwells among his people, hidden in the Host, carried in the monstrance, and received into our very bodies in Holy Communion.

How This Eucharistic Miracle Helped Spark Corpus Christi

Our membership is open to any practicing Catholic male who has reached the age of 18. Anyone who may be interested in joining our council, please reach out to our Grand Knight or anyone in the parish that you may know to be a Knight.

Jesus Sends Us to Do His Work

Today's Gospel reading tells the story of Jesus sending out His twelve apostles to do His work in the nearby towns. He was teaching them to do His work: healing the sick, raising the dead, and even driving out demons. Do you think they might have been a bit nervous, or even scared, to do this work?

Did you know that you are also called to be a disciple of Jesus? Some people are called to be missionaries and bring Jesus' word to far away places, but most of us - especially when we are young - are called to do Jesus' work close to home.

What are some of the ways you can be an apostle for Jesus? Maybe you can pray for sick or hurt people that you know of. You can tell people the stories of Jesus that you know. And did you know that even by being a good example to others, you are teaching them about the love of Jesus by your actions?

Don't be scared - do Jesus' work for the people around you today!

Jesus sent His Apostles to the surrounding towns to preach and heal. Can you find the way to the nearby town for the Apostles?

Chosen for the sake of the World

In the Old Testament, Adam and Eve damage our relationship with God. But God launches a plan to bring us back to Him. Through the descendants of Abraham, God sets the Israelites apart from the rest of the world. The Israelites worship God and God holds His chosen people close to His heart.

In the New Testament, Christ reveals that the Israelites were set apart in order to bring about His coming. By dying and coming back to life, Christ reveals that His sacrifice is all about bringing everyone back to God! God's chosen people started out as a family and now it has grown into a Church!
