

St. Dominic
CATHOLIC PASTORATE

The Ascension of the Lord

June 1, 2025

While he was blessing them, he left them and was taken up into heaven. Then they worshiped him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy. And they stayed continually at the temple, praising God.

Dominic Deliberations

Dear Parishioners,

"You are witnesses of these things. And behold I am sending the promise of my Father upon you; but stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high." Lk. 24 We to have witnessed to Jesus' passion, resurrection, and had the message of redemption preached to us. So let us join the Apostles as they waited in Jerusalem for the Holy Spirit to be poured out upon them after Jesus Ascended into heaven. Let us join them by praying the Holy Spirit Novena, calling upon the Holy Spirit to be poured out upon us that we may be strengthened to give witness to all nations about the work of salvation at work in the Church.

I will be praying with all of you as I lead 5 Religious Sisters of the Hand Maids of the Heart of Jesus on retreat this week in Minnesota. It is a young religious community that is growing rapidly with lots of young women joining the community. A friend of mine introduced them to me early in my priesthood and I have stayed in touch with them ever since.

This weekend we are hosting the Parish Mission Appeal. Every year our parishes host a Mission who give us an opportunity to learn about their service to the poor and they give us an opportunity to help support their work. This year we get to support Hands Together, a key educational and development organization working in Haiti's largest and poorest slum, Cite Soleil. It was started in 1986 by Fr. Tom Hagan after he had led a group of Princeton University students to Haiti and was compelled to respond to the needs of the poor there.

I want to remind all our dedicated volunteers, who help with all the various aspects of parish life, that our parish secretaries will be the primary contact for parish related items and the principals will be the primary contact for school related items. If any volunteers are working with our various vendors for doing business, any contract or business agreements need to be forwarded to the secretary or principal for me to look at before I sign. The secretaries are able to remind me if something hasn't been completed and is time sensitive. Thank you for all that you do to help the parish continue its work of spreading the good news of Jesus Redemption.

The pastorate pastoral council is working with me to do a liturgical workshop in the early fall which will include training for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Lectors, Sacristans, and Musicians. Please stay tuned for when that gets scheduled.

God bless,

Fr. Greg

Catholic Corner

The Ascension marks the completion of Jesus' earthly mission. He first united His divine nature with human nature through the Incarnation at the moment of the Annunciation. Saint Thomas Aquinas teaches that from that moment on, Jesus, the Son of God, experienced three types of knowledge. First, being God, He had beatific knowledge, that is, a direct knowledge of His, the Father's, and the Holy Spirit's essence. Second, He had the perfection of infused knowledge, that is, a bestowal of all truths given to the angels in Heaven, especially those truths necessary for the completion of His divine mission. Third, He began to acquire learned knowledge, or experiential knowledge. This was the form of knowledge attained through His human nature from the senses and His human reason.

The final stage of the salvation of humanity will take place when Jesus returns to judge the living and the dead. At that time, every human body will rise, will endure the final purification and transformation, and will share in the new and resurrected state in which the faithful will stand, body and soul, before the Most Holy Trinity and experience the fullness of the Beatific Vision forever. What Jesus has already accomplished in His human form is what we look forward to in hope at the end of time.

The Feast of the Ascension was celebrated annually from as early as apostolic times. When the Council of Nicaea set the date for the celebration of the Resurrection in 325, it chose to keep Easter on the first Sunday after the first full moon occurring on or after the vernal equinox. This decision also placed the Ascension, being forty days after Easter, on a Thursday. Today, many ecclesiastical provinces transfer the celebration to the following Sunday to provide for a wider celebration.

Parish Mission: May 31/June 1

Hands Together

Focus - "responding to the cry of the poor"

Hands Together grew out of Fr. Tom Hagan's wish that college students and others hear "the cry of the poor" and "see the face of Jesus" in people living in the slums and rural areas in Haiti. Our projects rest upon a foundation of Catholic social teaching that recognizes the dignity of every person and the fundamental responsibility for the poor and vulnerable. We embrace, with a special love, people who are completely marginalized and are living in squalor.

Service

By establishing schools, orphanages, nutrition and feeding programs, medical clinics, sustainable-development projects, and partnerships with local leaders and communities, Hands Together is building a better world for thousands of suffering people in Haiti. Hands Together volunteers bring needed skills to many of our educational, health and sustainable-development projects. Hands Together supports other projects that align with our mission, both in Haiti and elsewhere.

Thank you to all of you who have already made a gift to the 2025 Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA).

As we celebrate the Solemnity of the Ascension, let us recall that just before Jesus ascended, He gave the Great Commission to His disciples: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19). Jesus also calls each of us to carry on the Great Commission. By supporting the Annual Catholic Appeal, you support catechesis and evangelization opportunities in the Diocese of Madison, enabling them to witness Christ to those around them.

Gifts to the ACA can be made by returning the mailers that were sent out or by visiting madisondiocese.org/2025aca.

On the last day of school, HG-IC School presented Fr. Bernie with cards and a picture of the school community in appreciation for his 18 years serving our school.

New Director of Dickeyville Grotto

We are excited to announce that we have hired Jennifer Digman for the part time position as the Director of the Dickeyville Grotto. She is a farmer and the founder and owner of Wild Angels Creamery selling handcrafted cheeses. She comes with great experience in marketing and managing people particularly in the agriculture industry with companies like Prairie Farms and Ever Ag. She's committed to building a strong community and believes that tourism plays a vital role in supporting both our church and the community.

Thank you to Nicole Felder for her wonderful leadership as the Grotto Director.

Women invited to Renew Hope in Christ

Women are invited for a special spiritual day of renewal Saturday, June 28, at St. Francis Xavier Church, Cross Plains. Building upon the Catholic Church's 2025 Jubilee - Pilgrims of Hope, the Madison Diocesan Council of Catholic Women (MDCCW) chose "Renewing Hope in Christ" for the theme of its 70th annual gathering.

Dr. ValLimar Jansen, an internationally renowned singer, storyteller and songwriter, will engage the audience as she shares her gifts "to lift people up and ignite passion and purpose within them for Christ." Presenting in the morning and afternoon, she will share Scripture proclamation, reflection, music, costumed dramatic storytelling, prayer, and inspirational exhortation.

Bishop Donald J. Hying will be the main celebrant and homilist for the late morning Mass. Concelebrating with him will be Father Scott Jablonski, host pastor; Monsignor Duane Moellenberndt, MDCCW Spiritual Advisor; and other attending priests.

MDCCW President Carol Rogers, Fennimore, encourages women to register early. "Be prepared to hear a powerful speaker."

A fun event at the convention is a silent auction with items brought by members and parish councils. Proceeds from this auction help the MDCCW continue its work.

Registration

Registration for the event is $50 and due by June 20. The registration fee must accompany the registration form and is not refundable but is transferable. Registration can be done on-line, www.MDCCW.com or by mail to Coreen Marklein, 1307 Crawford St, Baraboo 53913.

For more information, go to the website or contact Convention Chair Kathy Roelke at 608-469-8698 or roelke@tds.net.
