Dominic Deliberations

I want to thank all those who organized St. Joe's Golf Outing which was another great success and those that organized Immaculate Conception, Kieler's 4th of July Picnic. Many hours go into planning and executing these events, thank you for all the hard work.

If you have any sacramental or pastoral needs please contact the parish secretary and they can direct your inquiries to the proper priest. Fr. Tom Kelley is helping organize priests in the pastorate for funerals and working with parish cemeteries. Fr. Joseph Bellamkonda will be organizing baptism prep. Dcn. Larry Tranel is handling marriage preparation and scheduling the priest for the wedding. I will continue with overall administration duties and assisting with sacramental needs.

I recently returned from vacation; I was attending a three day priest conference in Oconomowoc hosted by a ministry called, "Friends of the Bridegroom". It was focused on the identity of priesthood and how living out that identity brings encouragement and freedom to Christ's Bride the Church. Women Religious embody the bridal nature of the Church's relationship with Jesus Christ through their total consecration to Him flowing from a heart in love with Him. The mission of "Friends of the Bridegroom" is to bring healing to the Church by growing a culture of women religious vocations and to help religious and priests heal so that they can be truer models of Christ and the Church. You can learn more about this movement by looking at their website www.renewreligious.org.

Sunday's Readings Reflection

God's Law is within Reach: Deuteronomy 30:10-14, highlighted in Veritatis Splendor, suggests that God's moral law is not an external, imposed burden, but rather something inscribed within human nature, in the heart and mind.

Freedom and Truth: Veritatis Splendor underscores the connection between human freedom and truth. It argues that genuine freedom lies in conforming to the truth, which includes God's moral law. Ignoring this connection leads to the detachment of freedom from truth, which is a dangerous error.

Relevance for Today: The passage from Deuteronomy, as presented in the encyclical, serves as a reminder that God's moral precepts are not impossible to follow. It encourages individuals to embrace and live according to these precepts, which are necessary for true human flourishing.

God bless,

Fr. Greg

July 14: Saint Kateri Tekakwitha, Virgin—USA Memorial

1656–1680

Patron Saint of Canada, Native Americans, ecologists, environment, exiles, orphans, people ridiculed for their piety, and the physically impaired

Canonized by Pope Benedict XVI on October 21, 2012

Liturgical Color: White

Kateri impresses us by the action of grace in her life in spite of the absence of external help and by the courage of her vocation, so unusual in her culture. In her, faith and culture enrich each other! May her example help us to live where we are, loving Jesus without denying who we are. Saint Kateri, Protectress of Canada and the first Native American saint, we entrust to you the renewal of the faith in the first nations and in all of North America! May God bless the first nations! ~Canonization homily, Pope Benedict XVI

Prayer: Saint Kateri, you fell in love with God at an early age and never abandoned Him. You persevered through difficulties and remained faithful to Jesus, your Spouse. Please pray for me, that I may discover your purity of heart and radiate my love for God as beautifully as you did. Saint Kateri Tekakwitha, pray for me. Jesus, I trust in You.
