FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

GIVING IT ALL

The Apostle Paul first met Aquila and his wife Priscilla in Corinth. They were Jews who had recently been expelled from Rome. As providence would have it, they were tentmakers just like Paul. They invited him to stay with them. They would share their trade and their faith. Later, the couple would accompany Paul to Antioch and to Ephesus. In Ephesus, they would meet Apollos, an eloquent and faithful follower of Christ. They would correct him on some points in his teaching of the Way. They continued working with Paul for the rest of their lives, possibly being martyred with him in Rome. Aquila and Priscilla are strong examples of the bond of marriage being strengthened by faith, and faith being strengthened by the bond of marriage. They work together. They also provide a strong example of marriage reaching out to others. Marriage does not separate us. Rather, it becomes a foundation for the work we do. This is true both in the ordinary work of tentmaking and the extraordinary work of faith-building. Finally, both in the bond of marriage and in the bond of faith, even death can not triumph over it. Next week will focus on All Saints and All Souls, the saints we know helping us and each other on the Way. Let us always be in prayer with and for each other.

PRAYER

Heavenly Father, we thank You for all good gifts. We thank You especially for calling us together as a Church. You bless in so many ways. Bless all our married couples. Help them as they continue to grow together and bless all of us through the model they offer us. We pray as always in Jesus' Name. Amen.

SACRAMENTAL EMERGENCY PROTOCOL

As part of the Mary Queen of Heaven Parish Family, we have established the following protocol for Sacramental Emergencies.

WHAT IS A SACRAMENTAL EMERGENCY?

Sacramental Emergencies are if someone is in imminent danger of dying and wishes to receive the sacraments before passing. This also may include those who are under someone's care and are unable to request the sacraments themselves – including, but not limited to, emergency infant Baptism or Last Rites of someone with dementia. If someone has a chronic illness or is not in imminent danger, please schedule an anointing. It is suggested that the sick person receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick at the beginning of any serious condition – not at the end. If you are in need of a priest or have a Sacramental Emergency after hours, please call 513-369-9820.

STEWARDSHIP OF TALENT

A GOOD STEWARD?

It is important to ask yourself, "Am I being a good steward with all that God has given me? With all the blessings, with all the things I have prayed for?" Maybe you've prayed for your first home, a new car, a spouse, or children to fill your home. So now when you look at your life, and look at all the things that God has given you and answered your prayers with, are you showing God that you are a good steward of these things? This is a very powerful question to ask yourself because if you're not, should God bless you with more? If you're not able to appreciate and take care of what you have already received, should He give you more? What would you do with more?

One way to become a better steward is to shift your mindset from ownership to one of management. The thought of managing things compared to owning things changes everything. It is such a different perspective. You move away from not just being the owner of a home but the manager of a home as well. And as a manager or steward, you start asking yourself, "What would God want me to do with this home, this car, or this family?" And how would God want me to treat this? Instead of holding onto things you no longer need, you start to look for ways to share them. You invest in what He has entrusted to you and has given to you. This may be a completely different outlook on life than you may have had before.

Stewardship is showing God that I am grateful for the things He has already made me responsible for, the things He thinks I am capable of taking care of. Being a good steward also shows God that I can handle more. I know and I trust myself to be a good steward with what comes next and what other additional blessings God has in store for me.

MENTAL WELLNESS SPEAKER

Over the past few years, the focus on mental health has risen to the forefront of conversations, media attention, and a variety of school programs. Continual feelings of hopelessness, sadness and depression continue to rise, especially among adolescents and young adults.

In recognition of the continuing mental health crisis in our nation, the USCCB launched a new component of its National Catholic Mental Health Campaign this month. "Healing and Hope" is focused on amplifying local engagement on mental health and the accompaniment of people struggling with mental illness. The Campaign has 3 primary goals: To raise awareness of the mental health crisis, to combat stigma surrounding the topic of mental health, and to advocate for all those impacted by the crisis. The message is simple. Everyone who needs help should receive help. There will be so much more to be done, but this Campaign is great start.

An important first step to understanding mental wellness is educating ourselves. On Wednesday, November 5, Lisa Averion from the Archdiocese of Cincinnati's Respect Life office will host a presentation at 7:00 p.m. in the church at St. Ann. Make plans to spend an hour to learn more about mental wellness.

ST. JAMES SCHOOL INFORMATION

SHARE YOUR EXPERIENCE – VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Bring hope to those in need by volunteering with our Caregiver Assistance Network programs for as little as a couple of hours a month or as often as a few hours a week. Caregivers need support and encouragement – but who takes care of the caregiver? If you have ever been a caregiver for a friend or family member, or have worked in a caregiving profession, we need your expertise! Enrich your life as well as the lives of others by mentoring current caregivers, co-facilitating caregiver support groups, co-leading Powerful Tools for Caregivers classes, or helping people living with dementia participate in our weekly Creative Connections program. All volunteers will receive training and support. For more information, please contact Angie Homoele at 513-869-4483 or email can@ccswoh.org. The Caregiver Assistance Network is a program of Catholic Charities Southwestern Ohio, funded in part through the Council on Aging.

LET'S GET READING!

SAINTS SIMON AND JUDE

Saints of the Day: October 28

Patron Saints of Woodworkers and Lost Causes

Jude is so named by Luke and Acts. Matthew and Mark call him Thaddeus. He is not mentioned elsewhere in the Gospels, except of course where all the apostles are mentioned. Scholars hold that he is not the author of the Letter of Jude. Actually, Jude had the same name as Judas Iscariot. Evidently because of the disgrace of that name, it was shortened to "Jude" in English. Simon is mentioned on all four lists of the apostles. On two of them he is called "the Zealot." The Zealots were a Jewish sect that represented an extreme of Jewish nationalism. For them, the messianic promise of the Old Testament meant that the Jews were to be a free and independent nation. God alone was their king, and any payment of taxes to the Romans – the very domination of the Romans – was a blasphemy against God.

No doubt some of the Zealots were the spiritual heirs of the Maccabees, carrying on their ideals of religion and independence. But many were the counterparts of modern terrorists. They raided and killed, attacking both foreigners and "collaborating" Jews. They were chiefly responsible for the rebellion against Rome which ended in the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70.

As in the case of all the apostles except for Peter, James and John, we are faced with men who are really unknown, and we are struck by the fact that their holiness is simply taken to be a gift of Christ.

It is a reminder that we cannot receive too often. Holiness does not depend on human merit, culture, personality, effort, or achievement. It is entirely God's creation and gift. God needs no Zealots to bring about the kingdom by force. Jude, like all the saints, is the saint of the impossible: Only God can create His divine life in human beings. And God wills to do so, for all of us.
