FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

ACCIDENT OR PROVIDENCE?

Margaret of Scotland was born in Hungary in 1045. Her parents were English prince Edward and Hungarian princess Agatha. The family was in exile. When Margaret was 10 years old, the family returned to England when Edward was called back as a potential king. Edward died shortly after arriving in England and the family had to flee again after the victory of William the Conqueror in 1066. They were shipwrecked in Scotland in 1068. They were given the protection of Malcolm III, King of Scotland who would marry Margaret in 1070. Quite a few twists and turns to finally bring Malcolm and Margaret together, accident or providence? How did you and your spouse come together? Was God's hand present in it? The marriage would also be filled with God's presence. Malcolm was not a great man of faith, and he would not be the faith leader of the family. Margaret was very strong in her faith. In his love for her, Malcolm would grow in his own faith and support Margaret in her works of service and her dedication to sharing the faith. In some families, the celebration of the faith is more balanced between the spouses. In some, it is led primarily by one spouse. The important thing is seeing growth in faith, love and service. We see this very clearly with Margaret and Malcolm. Thanks be to God! Next week will focus on Saints Louis and Zelie Martin, the parents of Therese of Lisieux. Let us always be in prayer with and for each other.

PRAYER

Heavenly Father, we thank you for all good gifts. We thank you especially for calling us together as a Church. You bless in so many ways. Bless all our married couples. Help them as they continue to grow together and bless all of us through the model they offer us. We pray as always in Jesus' Name. Amen.

SACRAMENTAL EMERGENCY PROTOCOL

As part of the Mary Queen of Heaven Parish Family, we have established the following protocol for Sacramental Emergencies.

WHAT IS A SACRAMENTAL EMERGENCY?

Sacramental Emergencies are if someone is in imminent danger of dying and wishes to receive the sacraments before passing. This also may include those who are under someone's care and are unable to request the sacraments themselves – including, but not limited to, emergency infant Baptism or Last Rites of someone with dementia. If someone has a chronic illness or is not in imminent danger, please schedule an anointing. It is suggested that the sick person receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick at the beginning of any serious condition – not at the end. If you are in need of a priest or have a Sacramental Emergency after hours, please call 513-369-9820.

WHAT DO WE MEAN WHEN WE SAY: "STEWARDSHIP AS A WAY OF LIFE"

Who is a Christian Steward: "One who receives God's gifts gracefully, cherishes and tends them in a responsible and accountable manner, shares them in justice and love with others, and returns them with increase to the Lord."

The Way of Life means our resources must be used to reach out to others to build God's Kingdom of Love, Justice, and Peace.

As stewards, Christian living means that we view our resources of time, talent, and resources as gifts from God. We do not "possess" or "own" these resources, but we are entrusted with them to nurture their growth and use them widely.

As a gift from God, everything we are and have is freely given for our good. We should return a portion of those goods (our time, talents, and resources) to God and His work through the church in gratitude for His abundant generosity.

Stewardship is neither a secular term nor a code word for fund-raising. It is a way of life – the wise use of all that we are and have, knowing that what we are and what we are becoming comes from God.

Once one decides to be a Disciple of Christ, Stewardship is not an option!

Tuesday, November 11 is Veterans Day.

As a reminder, we will celebrate one Mass for the entire Family of Parishes on civil holidays.

CCHD PROVIDES THE CATHOLIC FAITHFUL with concrete opportunities to live out the love of God and neighbor in ways that express our baptismal call and continuing Eucharistic transformation. CCHD is made possible by the generous support of Catholics in the United States, especially through an annual parish collection.

CCHD is an essential part of the Church in the United States' social mission, and a unique part of the Catholic community's broad commitment to assist low-income people, families and communities.

There will be a second collection on November 15/16.

The use of your envelopes will help us to forward your offering.

Thank you.

THANK YOU

On behalf of the Mary Queen of Heaven Christian Outreach Ministry, thank you to all the parishioners for the generous donation of 288 coats and 3 bags of hats, scarves and gloves. They were given to families in need at St. Joseph Church, St. Boniface Church and Community Matters.

NOVEMBER IS NATIONAL ADOPTION MONTH

The month focuses on the joys of adoption, the needs of children in foster care, and the support systems that help families grow. The 2025 Theme is "Honoring our Youth; Strengthening Pathways for Lasting Bonds." National Adoption Day is Saturday, November 22, 2025 and Courts and organizations in four hundred plus communities in our country hold special events to finalize adoptions from foster care.

Please pray for the children to find parents/families who will adopt them. Adoption resources can be found at <https://resources.catholicaoc.org>.

ST. BERNARD BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY

We are looking for a few new people to join our bereavement ministry. We are called to bury the dead; this is one of the Corporal Works of Mercy. Take advantage of this opportunity to help others as they grieve. Most of our ministers assist at funeral Masses, acting as greeters to direct visitors and family as needed. Some wish to be trained to work with families to plan funerals, some send cards and attend the Masses to pray with the family. If you are interested in learning more about this ministry, please contact Barb Yoder, yoder@stbernardtc.org.

SAINT JOSAPHAT

Saint of the Day: November 12
Patron Saint of Ukraine

Born in what is now Ukraine, John Kunsevich – who took the name Josaphat in religious life – went to work in Wilno and was influenced by clergy adhering to the 1596 Union of Brest. He became a Basilian monk, then a priest, and soon was well known as a preacher and an ascetic. At a relatively young age, upon becoming both bishop of Vitebsk and archbishop of Polotsk, Saint Josaphat faced a difficult situation. Most monks, fearing interference in liturgy and customs, did not want union with Rome. By synods, catechetical instruction, reform of the clergy, and personal example, however, Josaphat was successful in winning the greater part of the Orthodox in that area to the union.

But the next year a dissident hierarchy was set up, and his opposite number spread the accusation that Saint Josaphat had “gone Latin” and that all his people would have to do the same.

Despite warnings, he went to Vitebsk, still a hotbed of trouble. A priest was sent to shout insults to him from his own courtyard. When Josaphat had him removed and shut up in his house, the opposition rang the town hall bell, and a mob assembled. The priest was released, but members of the mob broke into the bishop’s home. Saint Josaphat was struck with a halberd, then shot, and his body thrown into the river. It was later recovered and is now buried in St. Peter’s Basilica in Rome. He was the first saint of the Eastern Church to be canonized by Rome.

Saint Josaphat’s death brought a movement toward Catholicism and unity, but the controversy continued until 1964, when newspaper photos of Pope Paul VI embracing Athenagoras I, the Orthodox patriarch of Constantinople, marked a significant step toward the healing of a division in Christendom.
