FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

A NEW YEAR

Today is the beginning of a new Church year. We are a bit ahead of the civil new year, beginning January 1. What will the new year bring? There will be joys and sadness, difficult challenges and wonderful surprises. We will celebrate Baptisms and weddings and funerals. Much like any other year, we will celebrate the life we share with each other and with Christ. During Advent, we prepare ourselves to celebrate both the birth of Christ and His coming again. This is not new. The presence of God is not newly arrived. God has been with us since the beginning of time. Advent is about both the birth of Christ and about our rebirth in Him. We look for God in places where we may have missed Him. We look to the future, not as something new, but as something old but not yet clearly seen. If we begin the year seeking Christ, we will certainly find Him as the year unfolds. This will be a good year for one simple reason. It will be a year we spend with each other and with and in Jesus. Happy New Year. Happy Advent. May God bless us all in our journey forward with Christ.

PRAYER

Father, You promise mercy to the poor and strength for the weak. Have mercy on us. We are in need of Your grace. Help us to bear Your Son, Jesus. Renew us, Father, in all ways. May Christ be reborn in us. We pray as always in Jesus' Name. Amen.

SACRAMENTAL EMERGENCY PROTOCOL

As part of the Mary, Queen of Heaven Parish Family, we have established the following protocol for Sacramental Emergencies.

WHAT IS A SACRAMENTAL EMERGENCY?

Sacramental Emergencies are if someone is in imminent danger of dying and wishes to receive the sacraments before passing. This also may include those who are under someone's care and are unable to request the sacraments themselves—including but not limited to, emergency infant baptism or last rites of someone with dementia. If someone either has a chronic illness or is not in imminent danger, please schedule an anointing. It is suggested that the sick person receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick at the beginning of any serious condition—not at the end. If you are in need of a priest or have a Sacramental Emergency after hours, please call 513-369-9820.

ADVENT WREATH PRAYERS

Week One

Reader 1: The first week of Advent, we remember the gift of hope we have in Christ. The prophets of Israel all spoke of the coming of Christ, of how a savior would be born, a king in the line of David. They spoke of how he would rule the world wisely and bless all nations.

Reader 2: As followers of Christ, we wait with hope for His return. As we light this candle, we remember that it was from the manger at Bethlehem that He came and gave light to the world. As we light this candle, we are reminded to be alert and to watch for the light of Christ even in the most unlikely places and people. (Reader lights the first purple candle on the Advent Wreath.)

Family members share one way they have experienced hope today.

Reader 3: Let us pray – Loving God, we thank You for the hope You give us. Help us prepare our hearts for the Lord's coming by being open seeing to the light of Christ in others. We ask this in the name of the one born in Bethlehem, Jesus our Lord.

All: Amen.

THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION IS A GREAT SOLEMNITY OF THE CHURCH AND A HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION.

There is no Vigil Mass on Sunday evening. Listed below are the Mass times offered within our Family of Parishes.

Monday, December 8:

St. Ann at 10:30 a.m. (school attends)
St. Bernard at 8:30 a.m. (school attends)
St. James at 8:30 a.m. (school attends) and 7:00 p.m.
St. Margaret Mary at 12:00 Noon

Confessions at St. Ann on December 8 are cancelled.

STEWARDSHIP OF TALENT

STEWARDSHIP AND THE FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT – HOPE

As we begin our new Church year this first Sunday in Advent, Matthew tells us that Jesus reminds us about our main purpose in life to be awake, aware and prepare the way. Hearing about floods and thieves in the night is certainly ominous, but we realize how fragile life is and what a gift we have in this one life. Those people who flee their homes due to floods, fires, storms and wars know that all can be lost in a moment. Jesus challenges us to focus on those things that are truly important, not to stay awake every night, but to be in the present so that we might recognize Him when least expected. Paul challenges us to put on the armor of light as we prepare for the day of salvation. Isaiah reminds us to put away our swords and our spears. As good stewards, we ask God to show us how to recognize the face of God in all we encounter. In our prayer, we ask God to help us to notice in our busyness what is truly important.

We have arrived at the powerful season of Advent, a season to prepare with awe and gratitude for the Feast of the Incarnation of Jesus, born to us as Savior and Brother. A season to prepare for His return at the end of time. It is also a moment to remind ourselves that our individual judgment day is coming, too — the moment when we will be called to give an account for all the love God has shown us and the gifts He has given us during our lifetime. An important document on stewardship, published by the Diocese of Wichita, titled, The Pillars of Parish Stewardship, says, "God reveals His perfect and infinite love for us most visibly in His son, Jesus Christ. A steward makes God's love visible by imitating Jesus ... Stewardship is the response of the disciple to God's unconditional love for us. Stewards bask in the wonder and awe of God's love." Or, in other words, Advent is a steward's season! Our readings for the first week of Advent waste no time in calling our urgent attention to these themes of reflection and preparation. They seem to shout, "Wake up! Get ready!" and offer us some practical advice to make the most of this Season. The Gospel warns, "Beware that your hearts do not become drowsy from carousing and drunkenness and the anxieties of daily life." How easy it is to lose focus on our Lord either by too much indulgence in our lives or by too much worry about our lives. Both extremes are easy to fall prey to. To avoid these traps, we are told to "be vigilant" and "pray for strength to sustain us." During Advent, we Christian stewards must ask ourselves some hard questions. Am I staying faithful to my prayer life? Am I using my energy and skills to serve others? Am I overly concerned about material gain? Am I relying on my "stuff" or my investments as my source of comfort or security? Am I living for the moment or for the coming of the Lord? Thessalonians offers us a beautiful Advent prayer as we move through this season of reflection and preparation. Let us make it our prayer for each other: "May the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all... so as to strengthen your hearts, to be blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his holy ones. Amen."

Get ready, Christian stewards! He's coming! Let's prepare with awe and wonder.

It is the mission of the EVANGELIZATION TEAM to work with and for the community of Mary, Queen of Heaven to offer studies, speakers, classes and more, to assist the people of God in growing closer to our Lord. We welcome your ideas and participation. Contact Barbara Yoder, Director of Evangelization, at yoder@stbernardtc.org or 513-353-4207, ext. 5.

FIRST RECONCILIATION – THANK YOU!

On Saturday, November 15th, all of the family children from the four parishes, PSR, and the three schools came together to celebrate God's forgiveness in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. We especially would like to thank our priests, Fr. Jim & Fr. Bryan, and our visiting priests: Fr. Ric Dressman, Fr. Norm Langenbrunner, Fr. Tom Nolker and Fr. Dave Lemkuhl. Thanks also to Deacon Tim who arranged all the logistics at St. James Church for the sacrament, and to Elena McSwane, the catechists and the Evangelization Team for their preparation efforts and planning help for this important sacrament.

ADVENT BOOKLETS

As a gift from the Mary, Queen of Heaven Family, you may pick up either of the Advent booklets, which have been purchased to help you prepare your heart and mind for Christmas during the season of Advent. They are available at the doors of the church. We have two options: Quotes from Pope Leo & Pope Francis with Advent reflections, and The Little Advent Book from the Saginaw Diocese. Please choose one and use it as a tool for a fruitful Advent!

BIBLE STUDY – THE GOSPEL OF LUKE

ADVENT ACTIVITIES AT ST. BERNARD SCHOOL

As we enter this season of hope and preparation, St. Bernard students are growing in faith through prayer, service, and celebration.

WHOLE-SCHOOL ADVENT RETREAT

Students will begin the Advent season with an all-school retreat following Mass on Wednesday, December 3. Together, they will assemble "blessing bags" filled with food and personal care items for those in need and create Christmas cards with their "buddies" to send to homebound parishioners.

ADVENT FIELD TRIPS

First-grade students, along with their sixth-grade "buddies," will visit the Our Lady of the Holy Spirit Center in Norwood, OH. The Center recreates Bethlehem during Roman times, giving students a glimpse of life at the time of Christ's birth. Guided tours, sacred art, and a visit to the reliquary chapel provide a meaningful and educational way to begin the Advent season.

CATHEDRAL OF ST. PETER IN CHAINS

The 8th graders will visit the Cathedral of St. Peter in Chains for a tour in preparation for the sacrament of Confirmation on January 25. They will also explore the historic Holy Cross/Immaculata Church in Mt. Adams, deepening their understanding of our faith and local Catholic heritage.

SAINT FRANCIS XAVIER

Saint of the Day: December 3, Patron Saint of Japan and Jewelers

Jesus asked, "What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?" (Matthew 16:26a). The words were repeated to a young teacher of philosophy who had a highly promising career in academics, with success and a life of prestige and honor before him.

Francis Xavier, 24 at the time, and living and teaching in Paris, did not heed these words at once. They came from a good friend, Ignatius of Loyola, whose tireless persuasion finally won the young man to Christ. Francis then made the spiritual exercises under the direction of Ignatius, and in 1534, joined his little community, the infant Society of Jesus. Together at Montmartre they vowed poverty, chastity, obedience, and apostolic service according to the directions of the pope.

From Venice, where he was ordained a priest in 1537, Xavier went on to Lisbon and from there sailed to the East Indies, landing at Goa, on the west coast of India. For the next 10 years, he labored to bring the faith to such widely scattered peoples as the Hindus, the Malayans, and the Japanese. He spent much of that time in India, and served as provincial of the newly established Jesuit province of India.

Wherever he went, Xavier lived with the poorest people, sharing their food and rough accommodations. He spent countless hours ministering to the sick and the poor, particularly to lepers. Very often he had no time to sleep or even to say his breviary but, as we know from his letters, he was filled always with joy.

Xavier went through the islands of Malaysia, then up to Japan. He learned enough Japanese to preach to simple folk, to instruct, and to baptize, and to establish missions for those who were to follow him. From Japan he had dreams of going to China, but this plan was never realized. Before reaching the mainland, he died. His remains are enshrined in the Church of Good Jesus in Goa. He and Saint Thérèse of Lisieux were declared co-patrons of the missions in 1925.
