

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain,
and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him.
He began to teach them, saying:

"Blessed are..."

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

A BASIC CATECHISM:

We are a people of faith. This statement means nothing unless we can answer the question, "Faith in what?" Beginning this week, I will be using this column to explore some of the basic foundations of our faith. Our faith is in God and begins with and in God. We believe that there are three Persons in one God. Faith, however, is more than simply believing. It is becoming part of what we believe, becoming part of the relationship of those three Persons. Through faith, we actually enter into the life of the Trinity. At its basic core, our faith is a love story. It begins with creation and ends with eternity in the presence and life of our Creator. All of time and all of Scripture is God's invitation to know Him and be with Him. All of time and all of human experience is our response to God's invitation. This is a sacred mating dance. God proposes. We refuse. God waits. God proposes again, perhaps in another way or place. We consider. God waits for an opportunity to propose again. We finally accept, only to reconsider. The dance goes on and on. Hope joins with faith to tell us that the dance will lead to ultimate success, for both God and humanity, in eternity.

THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD:

Celebrates Jesus being brought into the temple by Mary and Joseph and their reception by Simeon and Anna. The feast is also called Candlemas because candles to be used throughout the year are blessed, a reflection of Simeon's recognition of the Light entering the world in Jesus.

PRAYER:

Lord, You are our only light. You lead us through our struggles and confirm us in our successes. You look upon us with compassion, and give us the warmth to look upon each other in the same way. Your warmth allows us to flower in goodness. Lord, may Your love always burn bright as a source of guidance for ourselves and for those around us.

WEATHER ALERT

When School is delayed or cancelled because of the weather (inclement weather or temperature), MASS IS CANCELLED! We follow school closings or delays for Northwest Schools.

SACRAMENTAL EMERGENCY PROTOCOL

As part of the Mary, Queen of Heaven Parish Family, we have established the following protocol for Sacramental Emergencies.

WHAT IS A SACRAMENTAL EMERGENCY?

Sacramental Emergencies are if someone is in imminent danger of dying and wishes to receive the sacraments before passing. This also may include those who are under someone's care and are unable to request the sacraments themselves—including but not limited to, emergency infant Baptism or last rites of someone with dementia. If someone either has a chronic illness or is not in imminent danger, please schedule an anointing. It is suggested that the sick person receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick at the beginning of any serious condition—not at the end. If you are in need of a priest or have a Sacramental Emergency after hours, please call 513-369-9820.

BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENTS

All bulletin announcements for Mary, Queen of Heaven must be approved by the appropriate director before submitting to Gina Perkins, Director of Communications, at gperkins@stjameswhiteoak.com. Announcements must be submitted by 10:00 a.m. Monday, two weeks prior to requested publish date. Please plan accordingly.

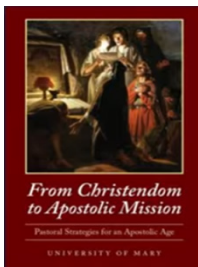

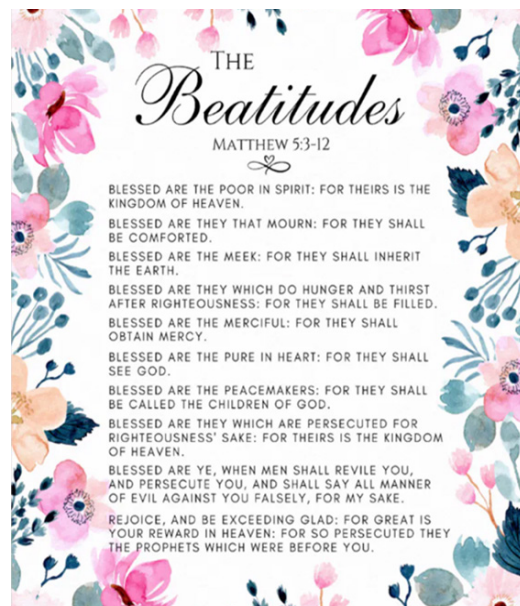

THE BEATITUDES and stewardship are deeply connected as the Beatitudes outline the heart and character of a faithful steward, describing a life of humility, mercy, and righteousness that reflects God's kingdom, while stewardship is the practical, grateful management of God's gifts (time, talents, resources, creation) in alignment with these blessed attitudes, involving service and justice.

From our youth, we learned that "blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven ... and the peacemakers, for they shall be called the children of God."

Today, we can take that approach to stewardship, because blessings follow those who give to help their church.

The Beatitudes were spoken by Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount, found in Matthew, and also in the Sermon on the Plain, in Luke. They describe the character and attitudes valued in the Kingdom of Heaven and serve as a guide for living a Christian life. Key Beatitudes include blessings for the poor in spirit, those who mourn, the meek, and the peacemakers – and they are among the best-known Bible verses.

In a reversal, the Beatitudes pronounce blessings on those who are typically considered unfortunate by worldly standards, such as the poor in spirit and those who mourn. They emphasize virtues such as mercy, purity of heart, and a thirst for righteousness as qualities that lead to God's blessing.

ST. ANN MEN'S GROUP – BOOK DISCUSSION

Beginning on Saturday, February 14, the St. Ann Men's Group is going to host a book discussion on the 2nd and 4th Saturdays of the month. The group will meet in the Trinity Room from 8:00-9:00 a.m. and will begin with Monsignor James Patrick Shea's, From Christendom to Apostolic Age. Each of the five chapters will be discussed and be used as a springboard to talk about the current culture that we live in and educate ourselves on the best ways to share our Catholic faith with others in an increasingly non-Christian culture.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL CORNER

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL FOOD PANTRY UPDATE

Through your generous donations of nonperishable food items, volunteers of the St. Vincent de Paul Society are able to assist neighbors in need within our community. If you are interested in learning more about the work of St. Vincent de Paul, please contact one of our conference presidents. PRAYER FOR NEIGHBORS

"Precious Holy Spirit, I come to you with a broken heart for all our brothers and sisters in Christ who are living with no security, no shelter and no safety from the outside world. Please be with all the men, women, and children in our world who are homeless, as well as the struggling poor and our St. Vincent de Paul neighbors. Give them extra warmth and peace, as we provide opportunities for a better life. Give them hope where there is no hope and provide wisdom as they work through their trials. Lord, let them know they are loved and prayed for, Your precious children, who will never be forgotten. In Jesus name, Amen."

Vincetians offer our neighbors hope in a material sense by easing their current financial crisis, but more importantly, we offer them spiritual hope in Christ's never-ending love for them. Vincetians are keenly aware of our dependency on God's providence and the power of prayer. Mary, Queen of Heaven Vincetians invite you to save the above prayer and to pray it often for our neighbors-in-need.

"The measure of our love for others can largely be determined by the frequency and earnestness of our prayers for them."

SAINT ANSGAR

Saint of the Day: February 3

Patron Saint of Denmark

The "apostle of the north" (Scandinavia) had enough frustrations to become a saint – and he did. He became a Benedictine at Corbie, France, where he had been educated. Three years later, when the king of Denmark became a convert, Ansgar went to that country for three years of missionary work, without noticeable success. Sweden asked for Christian missionaries, and he went there, suffering capture by pirates and other hardships on the way.

Fewer than two years later, he was recalled, to become abbot of New Corbie (Corvey) and bishop of Hamburg. The pope made him legate for the Scandinavian missions. Funds for the northern apostolate stopped with Emperor Louis' death. After 13 years' work in Hamburg, Saint Ansgar saw it burned to the ground by invading Northmen; Sweden and Denmark returned to paganism.

He directed new apostolic activities in the North, traveling to Denmark and being instrumental in the conversion of another king. By the strange device of casting lots, the king of Sweden allowed the Christian missionaries to return.

Saint Ansgar's biographers remark that he was an extraordinary preacher, a humble and ascetical priest. He was devoted to the poor and the sick, imitating the Lord in washing their feet and waiting on them at table. He died peacefully at Bremen, Germany, without achieving his wish to be a martyr. Sweden became pagan again after his death, and remained so until the coming of missionaries two centuries later. Saint Ansgar shares the celebration of his liturgical feast with Saint Blaise on February 3. Ansgar's life is another reminder that God writes straight with crooked lines. Christ takes care of the effects of the apostolate in His own way; He is first concerned about the purity of the apostles themselves.
