We cover our crosses and religious imagery for three purposes. Firstly, veils serve as a signal of the sacred time we're experiencing. Secondly, they aid in focusing our attention on the words spoken during Mass. Thirdly, they enhance our anticipation for Easter Sunday. As we embark on Holy Week, let's reflect on Christ's sacrifices for our salvation and find inspiration in His resurrection, a glimpse of the beauty that lies ahead.

Greening Our Community

Concerns have arisen regarding vehicles driving onto the sidewalk outside our church. We're pleased to announce that we've received a generous donation of four trees from an anonymous donor. These trees, bearing fruit, will enhance the beauty of our church grounds and help distinguish where cars can and can't drive around the front of the church. If you're interested in contributing flowers, trees, or other plants to our parish, kindly contact Fr. Scott at Scott.Janysek@archsa.org. Thank you so much for your generosity.
