The background is a painting of a landscape. The sky is a vibrant, textured mix of reds, oranges, and yellows, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. Bare, dark trees are silhouetted against the sky. The ground is a dark, textured green and brown, possibly a field or forest floor. The overall mood is contemplative and spiritual.

Let us celebrate the birth of our Blessed Mother on this joyous day!

Our Stewardship

“But when these signs begin to happen, stand erect and raise your heads because your redemption is at hand.”

Luke 21:28

We celebrate Advent each year in preparation for the birth of Jesus, His first coming, as we await His second coming. What will you do differently this Advent season to grow in friendship and love with Jesus? How will you inspire others to do the same? Start by sharing your God story with others, especially those that are closest to you. Invite and accompany them on their faith journey this Advent.

Taken from archstl.org

Weekly Collection & Mass Attendance

Due to early bulletin deadlines, collection totals and Mass attendance for November 24th will be displayed in the next bulletin.

Stewardship: A Season of Giving and Preparing

As we enter the season of Advent, we are called to prepare our hearts for the coming of Christ. This is a time of waiting, hope, and reflection—a time to recognize God’s abundant gifts in our lives and how we can use them to serve others.

Through stewardship, we live out our faith by offering our prayer, participation, and generosity. Let this Advent season inspire us to pray more deeply, engage more fully in the life of our parish, and give generously to those in need.

May our preparations for the birth of Christ deepen our gratitude and strengthen our commitment to live as faithful stewards of His love and grace.
