Notes from Bishop Hurley

Advent:

This week we begin our celebration of season of Advent. It is a time of hope and expectation as we prepare to celebrate the birth of the Lord and His final coming in glory. Again this year the parish is making available "The Little Blue Book" which this year consists of six minute reflections on the Infancy narrative of St. Luke. These booklets prepared by the diocese of Saginaw are based on the writings of Bishop Kenneth Untener. They are prepared seasonally and have been an inspiration for many. Each family is welcome to take a copy for Advent reflection and prayer. There is no charge or offering expected for these booklets.

I have mailed an Advent Christmas letter to all registered parishioners and have included the Advent/Christmas schedule for your convenience. You will also find a copy of my letter as well as the schedule in this weeks bulletin.

This Friday is the feast of the Immaculate Conception, the patroness of the United States. It is also a holyday of obligation. Masses are at 8:15 am and 7:00 pm.

Mass Schedule:

You will note that with the multiple masses scheduled for Christmas we have not scheduled an 8:00 am Mass on Sunday, December 24 and December 31. It is also my understanding that this was the practice every Sunday during the recent pandemic.

All parishes in the Archdiocese have been asked to review their Mass schedules, and looking at Mass attendance and consider consolidation of the number of Masses offered in each parish where it is possible to do so.

Every year each parish is asked to count the number of people in attendance at each of the Sunday Masses on two Sundays in October and to review the need for those presently scheduled.

In October of each year all parishes are asked to do a Mass count on two weekends. For the past year these Mass counts at Our Lady of Refuge were done on:

October 14/15		and	October 21/22
5:00 pm	114		5:00 pm	118
8:00 am	119		8:00 am	119
9:30 am	194		9:30 am	217
11:30 am	223		11:30 am	223
Total:	630	Total:	728

As you may know the seating capacity of the church is currently 700 per Mass. Presently and for some years the church is generally about half filled at any weekend Mass. From our records we know that these numbers have not changed significantly over the past number of years.

Effective December 24 we will discontinue the 8:00am Mass as part of our regular Sunday Mass schedule. While I realize this will represent an inconvenience for some, we will continue to have 3 weekend Masses (1 on Saturday and 2 on Sunday) which is consistent with the neighboring parishes we work with.

I am grateful for your understanding in this matter as you are in so many others.

Retirement fund for Religious: Each year there is an annual collection to assist religious communities (mostly women) meet the expenses of providing for the sisters who served in our schools and parishes years ago on minimum wages and no provisions for retirement. This collection is a way to thank the religious women and men who gave their lives to serve in our schools and parishes over the many years. The Church in the United States despite all it's weaknesses is still strong and vibrant. Much of this strength and vibrancy is because of the dedication and commitment of religious serving in our schools and institutions in the past. They now need our support in their old age. Their absence in our parishes and schools today is a great loss. Envelopes for this collection will be found in the pews and I invite your generosity. Please return your envelopes in the Sunday collection.

Wishing you God's every blessing,
Bishop Walter A. Hurley

Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for baptisms, Faith Formation registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or Confirmation sponsor, and even funerals.

If you would like to register in the parish, please call Carol Bishop at (248) 682-0920. We welcome you to our parish family!

Advent Wreath – Candle Lighting

We have a tradition here at Our Lady of Refuge Parish of having parishioners come forward to light our Advent Candles. Those involved will join the procession behind our Altar Servers and go directly to our Advent Wreath where you will light the appropriate candle or candles for that Advent Mass.

There is a reservation sheet where you can sign up in advance for a Mass located on the podium in the narthex next to our processional cross. Thank you in advance for your participation! If you have any questions or concerns contact Lisa Marie at 248-418-7424 or lblanek@olorcc.org.

Immaculate Conception

This is the Patronal Feast Day of the United States of America, a Holy Day of Obligation! We will be celebrating this amazing day with our school children during the 8:15am Mass on Friday, December 8th and an evening Mass at 7 pm.

Our Holy Mother Mary, chosen by God, leads us into salvation by reversing the sin of Eve and guiding our nation in growing our relationship with her son, Jesus Christ. Everyone of us are called to celebrate together this Holy Day in the Mass of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Come and open your hearts and minds to the Word and all the blessings intended for you and your families throughout this Advent Season!

Advent /Christmas 2023

Dear parishioners and friends of Our Lady of Refuge Parish,

In the midst of this troubled world filled with poverty, homelessness, war, violence, and sometimes personal tragedies we begin the season of Advent. In a troubled world we are filled with hope as we look forward to our celebration and commemoration of the feast of the Birth of the Lord at Christmas and New Year of God's grace.

Advent is a time to look back in thanksgiving on the blessings and presence of the Lord in our lives and the life of our parish community. It is also a time to look forward with confident hope. In Advent we are invited to prepare ourselves for the celebration of the birth of Christ and His Second coming.

I want to thank you for your participation and support of Our Lady of Refuge Parish as well as the needs of those beyond our parish this past and previous years. We hope for your continued participation and support in the days to come. In my own name and on behalf of the parish staff, thank you so much.

On the reverse side of this letter you will find the times and dates for our Advent and Christmas celebrations with the hope that you will be able to join us in prayer in this season and in these days. Please note that with Christmas being on Monday we will have a slightly revised weekend schedule. The same will be true New Year's weekend.

It is my prayer for you and your families that you may have the gift of faith, the blessing of hope and the peace of the Lord at Christmas and always but especially in the days ahead looking forward to a future greater than any past.

Merry Christmas and Blessed New Year to all.

Sincerely yours in the Lord,
Most Rev. Walter A. Hurley

As we start Advent the first reading from Isaiah laments our separation from God:

Why do you let us wander, O LORD, from your ways, and harden our hearts so that we fear you not?

The Responsorial Psalm (Psalm 80) picks up this theme and ask God to remember and protect his people:

*Once again, O LORD of hosts, look down from heaven, and see;
take care of this vine,
and protect what your right hand has planted...*

The musical setting has a desolate, barren feel. Lord, make us turn to you, let us see your face, and we shall be saved. You can listen to the setting of this Psalm at www.timothyrsmith.com

EVANGELIZATIONDave Kennedy*248.418.7221*dkennedy@olorcc.org

Hello Everyone and Happy Advent!

This first week of Advent marks the beginning of the liturgical year and is a time of joyful anticipation, and spiritual preparation, as we prepare to celebrate the birth of our Savior Jesus Christ.

This week we will be lighting the first Advent candle, known as the “Prophets Candle” or “Candle of Hope”. The purple color of the candle, and the Advent season, is a representation of our penance and longing as we prepare for the Christmas celebration. This week the Church will focus on the theme of hope as we draw inspiration from the Old Testament prophecies that tell of our coming Messiah.

As we reset our Liturgical calendar for Advent, I invite you to engage in the beautiful prayers, scripture readings, and liturgical observances offered during this time of anticipation. To aid in this, the Little Blue Advent Books are available in the Narthex if you would like one. As we enter into this sacred time of waiting, we are reminded to cultivate a spirit of hope as we eagerly anticipate the fulfillment of God’s promise and the arrival of the light of Christ in our lives. God bless.

Advent WreathQuestion:

What’s the story behind the Advent wreath?

Answer:

Each season in the liturgical calendar comes with its own local and regional rituals. During the Advent season, wreaths adorn church sanctuaries and family dining room tables. You may have said Advent wreath prayers in childhood or taken a turn lighting the candles. The Advent wreath is full of symbolism about Christ and his coming at Christmas. The wreath is made of evergreen boughs, reminding us that the life of grace doesn’t falter with the changing seasons. It always remains fresh and new. Similarly, a circular wreath reminds us of the eternal, never-ending nature of God’s love.

Candles remind us that Christ is the light of the world, the One who “shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.” We use four candles to represent each week of Advent. Traditionally they come in the liturgical colors of the season. Purple has historically represented penance and sacrifice. We see the same color for the season of Lent. On the third Sunday of Advent, however, we light a rose color. The priest will wear rose vestments at Mass. This is Gaudete Sunday. Gaudete means “rejoice” in Latin. On the third Sunday of Advent, we’re roughly halfway through the season. The Church chooses the midpoint to remind us to celebrate in the midst of our anticipation! Whatever the color and whatever the day, the Advent wreath is a beautiful practice to focus our attention on Christ’s coming at Christmas.
