2024—Mission Cooperative Appeal in our Parish Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill

Introducing their newest Mission Work in Pedro Carbo, Guayaquil, Ecuador

The Mission: In 2010 the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill Korean Province celebrated 50 years in Korea. In gratitude for the Lord's blessings in South Korea and their mission in Yanji, China (1996) they started a new mission in a poor area of Ecuador which consists of taking over a clinic, a school for children with disabilities and assisting with parish work.

The Missionaries: Of the thirty-seven sisters who volunteered for this work, four sisters were chosen to go to Ecuador. These four sisters attended an intensive course for new missionaries offered by the Columban Fathers in Seoul. In preparation for the Golden Jubilee of the Korean Province, the sisters arrived in Guayaquil in March 2008 and studied Spanish at the Catholic University, Universidad Catolica De Santiago De Guayaquil, for a year. After the completion of their formal language studies they moved to Pedro Carbo. Many people comment on the joy and peace these sisters bring to this area. It is a mission of hope and sharing deeply the love of the Lord. One of the sisters said, "Even though I am living in a different culture and a different land I believe that the Lord's love is strong and will help us become one with the people."

The Project: Sending missionaries to the poor in the world has always been stressed in religious communities. The Korean Bishops' Conference urged religious communities of men and women in Korea to share the blessings they have received with poorer countries of the world. Even though there are many needs in the Korean Province, we wanted to respond to the call to go to the small town of Pedro Carbo in the Archdiocese of Guayaquil, Ecuador in order to minister to children who are physically and mentally challenged and to assume administration of a small clinic, Clinica de Nuestra Senora de Mercidad.

Father Herbert Levthner, an Austrian diocesan priest and Ms. Elizabeth Kim, a Korean member of the secular institute Auxilium founded these two facilities and worked here for ten years before the sisters assumed the responsibility.

Since Elizabeth and Father Leuthner knew they would be retiring in 2009, Elizabeth invited the Sisters to come to Pedro Carbo to assume responsibility for the two facilities and also to minister in the local parish which has 50 mission stations and only one pastor.

When the sisters first met the people in the area and experienced their warmth and welcome their hearts burned with the desire to "stay" with them. The area of Pedro Carbo is very poor. There are a large number of children who are physically and mentally challenged in need of education and training and the sisters were happy to take over this very special work. The clinic was originally started (Cont. on page 8)

Why Be Registered?

Are you registered at Our Lady of Refuge parish? Sometimes, people attend Mass at this parish for several years, but never officially register. Registering in a parish is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of Our Lady of Refuge community.

Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for baptisms, Faith Formation registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or Confirmation sponsor, and even funerals.

If you would like to register in the parish, please call the Parish Secretary at (248) 682-0920. We welcome you to our parish family!

- "I had fallen away from the Catholic church for many years, returning about 4 years ago. The participation in this group opened my eyes and challenged me to how much more there is than just attending Mass."
- "Attending ESG provides the community and encouragement I need to prioritize my faith and prayer life on a daily basis. Friendship with the other members is very encouraging for my faith life."

LITURGICAL MUSIC

TIM SMITH

TIM@TIMOTHYRSMITH.COM

Adult Choir is back in session Wednesdays 7:30-9:00 PM in Church. The window is still open to join us for the fall session. We are already working on Christmas music. Mark your calendar: Christmas Concert Sunday December 15, at 4 PM in the Church.

Still looking for more slide techs. We need you!

This Sunday's Responsorial Psalm is paired with the First Reading, which also appears on Good Friday. Here's an excerpt:

The Lord GOD opens my ear that I may hear;
and I have not rebelled,
have not turned back.
I gave my back to those who beat me,

my cheeks to those who plucked my beard;
my face I did not shield
from buffets and spitting.

Like the First Reading, this Psalm also bears witness to deep hardship and conversion. The verses show a progression from despair to faith and assurance. The psalmist looks back on days of hardship: "The cords of death encompassed me; the snares of the netherworld seized upon me; I fell into distress and sorrow...". Then we see the conversion and redemption on the other side: "For he has freed my soul from death, my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling..."

Another instance of this kind of cathartic movement is Psalm 122 from Palm Sunday. You will recall the refrain: "My God, my God, why have you abandoned me." Next time you see that Psalm, look at the progression of the verses. The progression is so striking that the refrain doesn't even really fit with the final verse.

Here is the QR code to audio of this Sunday's responsorial Psalm:

Psalm 116:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 8-9

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

I love the LORD because he has heard
my voice in supplication,
because he has inclined his ear to me
the day I called.

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

The cords of death encompassed me;
the snares of the netherworld seized upon me;
I fell into distress and sorrow,
and I called upon the name of the LORD,
"O LORD, save my life!"

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

Gracious is the LORD and just;
yes, our God is merciful.
The LORD keeps the little ones;
I was brought low, and he saved me.

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

For he has freed my soul from death,
my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling.
I shall walk before the Lord
in the land of the living.

It's a busy time of the year! Schools have started, sports are having games and practices, football is on TV. There's so much to be excited about, especially here at Our Lady of Refuge!

Children's Liturgy of the Word has begun for the school year. Families with children from 4-7 years old are invited to attend the 11:30 Mass, which will have a special time to call the children to hear the word proclaimed to them in a separate space and at their level of vocabulary and understanding. No sign-up is required.

The Archdiocese is hosting an Engaging the Young Church Conference at St. Anastasia in Troy on Friday September 20 and Saturday September 21, 2024. You may attend one or both days. More information and registration is at aod.org/eyc2024.

The Engaging Youth Church Conference is an opportunity for "anyone who knows an adolescent Christian" to:

- Get encouraged and inspired for the work of ministry
- Foster relationships and collaboration between fellow ministers
- Collectively pray for the needs of youth, young adults, and various ministries for them

OCIA meetings will begin on Wednesday, September 18 at 6pm in the gathering space. Anyone interested in starting the process to join the Catholic is welcome to attend.

because many of the mothers were dying at childbirth. Now it has grown and there are more departments in the clinic to help individuals with other health problems. The clinic provides services to all in the area and the patients at Clinica de Nuestra Senora de Mercidad are treated with dignity and respect.

There is so much to do and so much help needed!
These sisters can do the work only if you can help them with your prayers and donations! It is a joy and a blessing to be able to share what we have with others in need! The five sisters who are in Ecuador find many challenges: adjusting to hot weather, learning a new language and culture, experiencing different food, seeing poverty and learning the new work but with your prayers and concern they will be blessed with God's grace and continue to see the beauty in these differences.
The Love of the Lord makes all things one!
