32nd Sunday of Ordinary Time

In the first reading today and in the Gospel reading we meet two widows who are similar. Both are every day, hard working women. Both are poor. Both put their trust in God. Both are rewarded for their faith.

The first widow is from Zarephath, a coastal city on the Mediterranean, northwest of the Kingdom of Israel. Elijah traveled through this land during a famine. As in all famines, the rich complain, and the poor starve. The woman was poor. When Elijah met up with her, she was putting her last scraps together before she and her son would die. Now a stranger goes up to this woman and asks for food in the name of the Lord. Elijah also must have been near starvation. Hospitality to strangers was a law of God. The woman put her total trust in God, and she received enough for her and her son to eat for a full year.

The second widow was the one of the Gospel reading who put two small coins into the Temple treasury. Jesus was people watching, sitting across from the treasury. There were big shows as some of the wealthy came forward letting everyone know about their great generosity. After all, the money from the wealthy had paid for most of the rebuilding of the Temple. What value did the widow's small coins have next to their thousands? But Jesus knew how much she was really giving. It was far more than two small coins. He said that her donation, although it seemed insignificant, was tremendous because she gave all that she had. Her donation was an act of putting her faith in God to care for her.

Thus the Gospel reminds us that we should give, in Cardinal Mercier's words, not only what we have but also what we are. Remember this epitaph on an English gravestone. "What I kept I lost. What I spent I had. What I gave I have."

Someone has enumerated four different types of giving.

The first is called grudge giving. I hate to part with this twenty dollars but I will. The second is shame giving. I must match whatever the Jones family is giving. The third is calculated giving. We part with our money with what, someone deliciously called, a "lively sense of favors to come." Bingos, Las Vegas nights, and raffle tickets fit in very nicely in this category. The final category is thanksgiving. I part with my funds precisely because God has been so wonderfully generous to me. The widow of today's Gospel fits comfortably into this area.

When we feel disappointed we need to put our trust in God. No where in scripture did He say that His followers would be in the majority. But He did say that He would be with us. Like the two widows, we need to give Him our all. We need to put our faith and our trust in Him, and we need to be assured that He sees us; He knows us, and He cares for us.

Jesus, however, wants us to take a step. He wants us to move from being consumers to being disciples. A disciple gives not so he can get something in return. He gives because Jesus has given everything.

God has given us everything. In Jesus he gives us more than we can ask for or imagine. When we acknowledge that, when we place our lives - and possessions - in God's hand, he does take care of us. He wants for us - Faith, communion and abundance. Nothing ever goes unnoticed in the sight of Jesus. He observes our sacrifices. Our God is a God of surprises: "The fatherless and widow he sustains, but the way of the wicked he thwarts. The Lord shall reign forever." Amen.

Why Be Registered?

Are you registered at Our Lady of Refuge parish? Sometimes, people attend Mass at this parish for several years, but never officially register. Registering in a parish is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of Our Lady of Refuge community.

Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for baptisms, Faith Formation registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or Confirmation sponsor, and even funerals.

If you would like to register in the parish, please call the Parish Secretary at (248) 682-0920.

ALL SOULS CELEBRATION

Thank you to all who attended our beautiful All Souls Mass this past Saturday on November 2nd.

Throughout this Month of All Souls you will see this calligraphy board displayed by our Easter Candle in the gathering space of the Church. Also, you will find on a podium in front of the All Souls Board the Book of the Dead for which you are welcome to place your deceased loved one's name(s) that have passed during this liturgical year. LITURGICAL MUSIC

TIM SMITH

TIM@TIMOTHYRSMITH.COM

Due to popular request we added Wednesday November 13 as an additional rehearsal for Christmas Family Choir, which will sing Christmas Eve 4 PM mass.

Parents, kids, adults, seniors and all parishioners in between: Family Choir is rolling, we still need you! ("Hey remember what a blast we had back in 2024 when we all sang together in that Family Christmas Choir?" - this could be you reminiscing in 2034...)

Three simple steps to join:

1. Pick a rehearsal:

Wednesday 11/13/24 6-7 PM Rehearsal

or

Wednesday 12/4/24 6-7 PM Rehearsal

2. Get your music:

a. Contact me for a CD and paper packet.

b. Contact me for a USB stick with audio tracks and pdf.

(See me after mass - or contact me at tim@timothyrrsmith.com - or text me at 248-821-8443)

c. Download pdf and audio tracks with the QR code.

3. See you Christmas Eve for 4 PM mass.

The idea is you listen to the music at home. Singing together as a family is a great activity and you have all the elements you need right here.

You can download the tunes and see if its right for you. These are mainly Christmas Carols that you will know.

Here is the QR code to audio of this Sunday's responsorial Psalm:

Psalm 146:7, 8-9, 9-10

R. Praise the Lord, O my soul!

The LORD keeps faith forever,
secures justice for the oppressed,
gives food to the hungry.

The LORD sets captives free.

R. Praise the Lord, O my soul!

The LORD raises up those who were bowed down;
the LORD loves the just.
The LORD protects strangers.

R. Praise the Lord, O my soul!

The fatherless and the widow he sustains,
but the way of the wicked he thwarts.
The LORD shall reign forever;
your God, O Zion, through all generations. Alleluia.

MEET OUR SEMINARIANS

Theology II
Transition Deacons,

Ordination, 5-2027

The harvest is plenty, The laborers are few. Pray for our seminarians.

Please pray that young people in today's culture will hear and respond to God's call. And do your part to encourage them to consider the priesthood and consecrated life!

A brief note for the parish faithful: The Order (Rite) of Christian Initiation of Adults states, "The People of God...should always realize and show that the Initiation of adults is its own concern and a matter for all the baptized.... [They; i.e. all the baptized] must therefore help others throughout the course of their Initiation" (OCIA 9). Seekers learn to live the Christian life by observing the parish community, following their examples, and imitating their behavior. Catechumenate teams should integrate seekers into the fabric of parish life to give them a hands-on apprenticeship in Christian living.

You may see new people at Mass or other events; this should be a normal and anticipated part of their journey into the Catholic faith. We should always strive to welcome them and to encourage them to continue seeking answers to their deepest questions.
