33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time

Central theme: Today's readings give us the assurance that our God will be with us all the days of our lives and that we will have the ongoing presence of the Holy Spirit in our midst, guiding, protecting, and strengthening us in spite of our necessary uncertainty concerning the end time when "Christ will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead." Each year at this time, the Church asks us to consider our "four last things" – Death, Judgment, Heaven and Hell, or the end, judgment, reward, punishment.

Scripture lessons summarized: The readings invite us to focus our attention on the threefold coming of Jesus: 1) His first coming according to the flesh, as Redeemer. 2) His second coming, either at our death, or at the end of time and the world, which will bring our salvation to completion. 3) His coming into our lives each time we step forward in genuine Christian living of loving God living in others by sharing our blessings with them and serving them with agape love.

The first reading, taken from the prophet Daniel (167 BC), was originally given to comfort and give hope to the Jewish people persecuted by a cruel pagan Greek king, Antiochus Epiphanes. It also advises us to live wisely and justly in the present time, instead of worrying about the unknown future. Through the Psalm Response for today's Responsorial Psalm (Ps 16), the Holy Spirit has us sing our Faith affirmation, "You are my inheritance, O Lord!" In today's second reading, the author of the Letter to the Hebrews challenges us to look to the future with hope and serenity because Jesus, having secured the forgiveness of our sins and our sanctification through the sacrifice on the cross, sits forever at God's right hand as the one Mediator between man and God.

Today's Gospel, taken from Mark (AD 69), offered hope to early Christians persecuted by the Roman Emperor Nero, by reminding them of Jesus' words about His glorious return to earth with great power and glory as Judge to gather and reward the elect. Daniel and Mark continue to remind us that God will ensure that the righteous will survive the ordeal and will find a place with Him. Through the parable of the fig tree, Jesus warns us all to read the "signs of the time," reminding us that we must be ever prepared to give an account of our lives to Jesus when He comes in glory as our Judge, because we cannot know "either the day or the hour" of His Second Coming.

Life messages: 1) Let us recognize the "second coming" of Jesus in our daily lives through everyday occurrences, always remembering that Jesus comes without warning. But let us not get frightened at the thought of Christ's Second Coming, because Jesus is with us every day, abiding with the Father and the Holy Spirit in our hearts, dwelling in our Church in the Holy Eucharist, teaching us in the Holy Bible, and unifying us with Him and each other in our worshipping communities. We will be able to welcome Jesus in His Second Coming as long as we faithfully do the will of God by daily serving our brothers and sisters, recognizing Christ's presence in them, and by being reconciled with God and with our brothers and sisters every day.

2) We need to "learn the lesson from the fig tree." This means that we are to watch and wait in a state of readiness. Instead of worrying about the endtime events, we are asked to live every day of our lives loving God living in others, by our committed service to them with sacrificial agape love. (Fr. Tony's Homilies)

Registering in a parish is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of Our Lady of Refuge community.

Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for baptisms, Faith Formation registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or Confirmation sponsor, and even funerals.

If you would like to register in the parish, please call the Parish Secretary at (248) 682-0920.

Catholic Charities Parish Appeal

Please consider contributing to the annual parish collection taking place the weekend of November 23 and 24 in support of the important work of Catholic Charities of Southeast Michigan. You can positively impact the lives of thousands of people served by Catholic Charities throughout the Archdiocese of Detroit and right here in our own backyard. Each year Catholic Charities helps more than 24,000 people combat poverty and crisis to move toward a better life.

If you are able, please give to help Catholic Charities continue critical services including providing perishable groceries and basic needs to homebound seniors, assistance to pregnant moms, behavioral health and substance abuse counseling, food pantries, adoption and foster care services, and other family support services.

Here in Oakland County, a wide range of services are offered including Adoption and Foster Care, Adult Day Services, Behavioral Health and substance abuse counseling, and the Senior Outreach Program which helps low-income and disabled homebound seniors age in place with dignity, delivering perishable groceries and personal necessities to their homes. Senior volunteer and enrichment opportunities are offered through the Retired and Senior Volunteer Program (R.S.V.P.), Foster Grandparent Program and Senior Companion Program. The Walking with Moms in Need initiative partners with the Archdiocese of Detroit to equip and assist Catholic parishes and parishioners in raising awareness about resources that aid pregnant and parenting moms in need.

The Center for Working Families at Catholic Charities' La Casa Amiga location in Pontiac provides many family support services including job, education, and financial literacy assistance; food pantry; mentoring and tutoring. The Project Hope pro-life ministry assists pregnant and parenting moms and the La Casa Amiga Legal Clinic provides immigration assistance.

Special collection envelopes are available at our parish, or you can donate online at ccsem.org/impact.

May God bless your generosity!

Mark your calendars! We will be having an Advent-Christmas Concert on Sunday December 15 at 4 PM in the church. Reception in the Social Hall will follow.

Still time to join Christmas Family Choir, which will sing Christmas Eve 4 PM mass.

Three simple steps to join:

1. Attend rehearsal on - Wednesday 12/4/24 6-7 PM Rehearsal (or make arrangements with me)
2. Get your music:
 - a. Contact me for a CD and paper packet.
 - b. Contact me for a USB stick with audio tracks and pdf.
(See me after mass - or contact me at tim@timothyrsmith.com - or text me at 248-821-8443)
 - c. Download pdf and audio tracks with the QR code.

3. See you Christmas Eve for 4 PM mass.

The idea is you listen to the music at home. Singing together as a family is a great activity and you have all the elements you need right here.

You can download the tunes and see if its right for you. These are mainly Christmas Carols that you will know.

This Sunday's responsorial Psalm is one of my favorites. It is a prayer of trust and confidence in a loving God. "I set the Lord ever before me; with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed."

Here is the QR code to audio of this Sunday's responsorial Psalm:

Psalm 16:5, 8, 9-10, 11

R. You are my inheritance, O Lord!

O LORD, my allotted portion and my cup,
you it is who hold fast my lot.

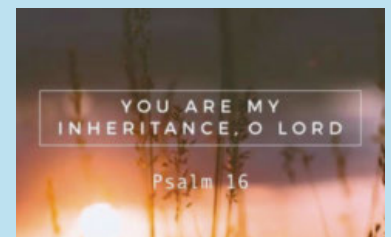

I set the LORD ever before me;
with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed.

R. You are my inheritance, O Lord!

Therefore my heart is glad and my soul rejoices,
my body, too, abides in confidence;
because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld,
nor will you suffer your faithful one to undergo corruption.

R. You are my inheritance, O Lord!

You will show me the path to life,
fullness of joys in your presence,
the delights at your right hand forever.

Please pray that young people in today's culture will hear and respond to God's call. And do your part to encourage them to consider the priesthood and consecrated life!

Please continue to utilize the resources for the National Eucharistic Revival and the Year of Mission, especially the Walk With One initiative. Information can be found at eucharisticrevival.org/walk-with-one. Consider becoming a parish point person to access more resources, including regular emails and webinars. I also recommend watching the video on the Revival's YouTube channel with Dr. Ben Akers titled: Why Evangelize?

It is the role of all baptized Catholics to spread their faith to the people we encounter. The National Eucharistic Revival can help us do this - and the revival didn't end with the conference in Indianapolis last summer.

The Archdiocese is hosting an Advent Day of Reflection on Tuesday, December 3, from 8:30am until 2:30 pm. This event is sponsored by the Department of Evangelization and Missionary Discipleship, Catholic Funeral and Cemetery Services, and the Institute for Lay Ministry at Sacred Heart Major Seminary.

Join Heather Khym, co-host of the Abiding Together Podcast and author of Abide, for a day of prayer, discussion, and personal reflection as we enter intentionally into the Advent Season. All lay ministers, parish staff, and parish volunteers are welcome. The cost is $20 per person. You may pay via Eventbrite with a Credit Card/PayPal or with Cash/Check at the door. Checks should be payable to the Archdiocese of Detroit. Please register by Friday, November 29th.

THANK YOU!!

Sacred Heart Major Seminary wants to extend our heartfelt gratitude to the generous parishioners of Our Lady of Refuge for helping make our annual Halloween celebration such a huge success once again this year! We welcomed around 2,000- 3,000 of our neighbors again this year filling the day with laughter, joy, and an incredible sense of community.

The spirit of fun and togetherness was truly contagious. These moments of celebration are a beautiful reflection of the apostolic work being done through events like this, and we are so grateful for your role in bringing it to life.

Again, thank you so much for your generosity in making the day, week or even year of so many of our young neighbors, and for helping their parents and grandparents experience the joy of seeing them so excited! None of this could be possible without you and your kind support. Please keep us in prayer as we do you.
