The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Introduction: The Church's liturgical year concludes with this feast of Christ the King, instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1925 to celebrate the Jubilee Year and the 16th centenary of the Council of Nicaea. Instituting this feast, Pope Pius XI proclaimed: "Pax Christi in regno Christi" ("The peace of Christ in the reign of Christ"). This feast was established and proclaimed by the Pope to reassert the sovereignty of Christ and the Church over all forms of government and to remind Christians of the fidelity and loyalty they owed to Christ, who by his Incarnation and sacrificial death on the cross had made them both adopted children of God and future citizens and heirs of the Kingdom of Heaven. Christ is our spiritual King and Ruler who rules by truth and love. We declare our loyalty to him by the quality of our Christian commitment, expressed in our serving of others with sacrificial and forgiving love, and by our solidarity with the poor.

This Sunday, at the end of Church's liturgical year, the readings describe the enthronement of the victorious Christ as King in heaven in all his glory.

The first reading, taken from the book of Daniel, tells of the mysterious Son of Man (with whom Jesus would later identify himself), coming on the clouds, glorified by God and given dominion that will last forever. In his vision, Daniel saw God seated on a Throne, with millions of people serving Him.

In the second reading, taken from the Book of Revelation, the risen Christ comes amid the clouds as the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last of all things.

In today's Gospel, Jesus asserts before Pilate that he is a king and clarifies that that his kingdom "does not belong to this world." He rules as King by serving others rather than by dominating them; his authority is rooted in truth, not in physical force, and his Kingdom, the reign of God, is based on the beatitudes.

1) We need to accept Christ the King as our Lord, King and Savior and surrender our lives to him. We surrender our lives to Jesus every day when we give priority to his teaching in our daily choices, especially in moral decisions. We should not exclude Christ our King from any area of our personal or family lives. In other words, Christ must be in full charge of our lives, and we must give him sovereign power over our bodies, our thoughts, our heart and our will.

2) We need to accept Jesus Christ as our serving King. Jesus claimed that he came not to be served but to serve and showed us the spirit of service by washing of the feet of his disciples. We become his followers when we recognize his presence in everyone, especially the poor, the sick, the outcast and the marginalized in the society and render humble and loving service to Jesus in each of them.

3) We need to accept Jesus Christ as the King of love. Jesus came to proclaim to all of us the Good News of God's love and salvation, gave us his new commandment of love: "Love one another as I have loved you," and demonstrated that love by dying for us sinners. We accept Jesus as our King of love when we love others as Jesus loved, unconditionally, sacrificially and with agape love. (Fr. Tony's Homilies)

Family of Parishes Advent Tea— Steeped in Jesus, the Christ

December 7, 6:15 PM St. Fabian Social Hall

Presented by LIFT

All women, ages 18 to 102, are invited to join us for an evening of Advent reflection focusing on your relationship with Jesus. Like tea, we need to be steeped, taking the time to allow the Lord to enter in, to wait for the Lord.

Our evening will include dinner, music, prayer, reflection, humor and desserts. Mary Wilkerson is our quest speaker. We will also be collecting items for St. Moses the Black, Fr. Marko Djonovic's parish. Please use the QR code or link below to sign up for this evening.

We are looking for some women to decorate one of the tables with your China, and Advent or Christmas decor. We would also like to have a tea pot on every table. If you do not have one, we will provide them. If interested, please follow the signup genius link for more information.

Those of you who love to bake, please sign up to prepare a dessert for 10-15 people. Please follow the link for sign up genius.

Christ the King is the final Sunday of the Liturgical year. Next Sunday we begin the new cycle with the first Sunday of Advent. There is a dovetail of themes between these two Sundays as a prophetic glance into the joyful coming of the Lord. It is a good time to re-collect our thoughts and ponderings of the year past with both hope and thanksgiving. God bless us everyone.

Here is the QR code to audio of this Sunday's responsorial Psalm:

Psalm 93:1, 1-2, 5

R. The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

The LORD is king, in splendor robed;
robed is the LORD and girt about with strength.

R. The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

And he has made the world firm,
not to be moved.
Your throne stands firm from of old;
from everlasting you are, O LORD.

R. The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

Your decrees are worthy of trust indeed;
holiness befits your house,
O LORD, for length of days.

THE LORD IS KING;
HE IS ROBED IN MAJESTY

Land of Peace

The weekend of December 7 & 8, our brothers and sisters representing the Land of Peace mission- a nonprofit organization will be selling Crucifixes, religious art work, and rosaries- all made of olive wood which is native to Israel and Bethlehem. Since tourism has greatly depleted, Christian families in the holy land, who depend on tourists, have been greatly affected. The goal of this mission is to help the poor and needy families in Bethlehem and Jerusalem. Sale of these goods will help them very much and also give you the opportunity to have “something” authentic from the holy land. Please browse and buy some articles. It is for a good cause and also a help to your personal devotion. Website: www.landofpeace.org
