3RD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

John answered them all, saying, "I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire." - Lk 3:16

Advent III [C] Sunday

The central theme of today's readings is the command "Rejoice!" We are to do so mainly by realizing the presence of Jesus in our midst, by receiving Jesus into our lives through our repentance, by our renewal of life, and by our faithful doing of God's will. Today is called "Gaudete" Sunday because today's Mass begins with the opening antiphon, "Gaudete in Domino semper" ("Rejoice in the Lord always"). Today we light the rose-colored candle of the Advent wreath, and the priest may wear rose-colored vestments, to express our communal joy in the coming of Jesus as our Savior. We rejoice because a) we are celebrating the day of Christ's birth, b) we recognize Jesus' daily presence in our midst, and c) we wait for Christ's return in glory.

In today's first reading, the prophet Zephaniah encourages Jerusalem and Israel to shout out for the joy of their expected deliverance by the Lord. In today's Responsorial Psalm (Is 12:6), the prophet Isaiah gives the same instruction, "Shout with exultation, O city of Zion, for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel."

St. Paul echoes this message of joy in the second reading, a letter written from imprisonment: "Rejoice in the Lord always. I shall say it again, rejoice..."

In the Gospel today, John the Baptist explains the secret of Christian joy as our wholehearted commitment to God's Way by the doing of His will. John challenges people to generosity and a sense of fairness so that others may have reason to rejoice. According to John, happiness comes from doing our duties faithfully, doing good for others, and sharing our blessings with others in need. John's call to repentance is a call to joy and restoration. Repentance means a change in the purpose and direction of our lives. John tells the people to act with justice, charity, and honesty, letting their lives reflect their transformation. For us, that transformation occurs when Christ enters our lives, and we begin to live those lives in the ways Jesus teaches and John suggests.

Life Messages: 1) We are called to a change of life. First, we should examine our relationships with others. We need to mend ruptures, ease or relieve frictions, face family responsibilities, work honestly, and treat employees and employers justly. Our domestic and social lives must be put in order. We must abandon our selfish thirst for consumption and, instead, be filled with the expectation of Jesus' coming.

2) We need to remember that we, like John the Baptist, are Christ's precursors: Parents, teachers, and public servants act as Christ's precursors by repenting of their sins, reforming their lives, and bringing Christ into the lives of those entrusted to their care. Parents are expected to instill in their children a true Christian spirit and an appreciation for Christian values by their own lives and behavior. All public servants need to remember that they are God's instruments and that they are to lead the people they serve to the feet of Jesus, so that they, too, may know him personally and accept him as their Savior, Lord and Brother. (Fr. Tony's Homilies)

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 15 @ 4:00
RECEPTION IN THE
SOCIAL HALL WILL FOLLOW

For as long as I have been in music ministry, I should be able to answer the question, “What is worship music, and why is it important?” So here goes...

When we gather to celebrate the Holy Liturgy we receive the presence of God in both the Word and the Eucharist. Each Liturgy is part of the seasonal cycle of the year. In Advent, we await with joyful hope, In Lent we, reflect and repent; in Easter we celebrate the Resurrection of Christ. The rhythm of these seasons is a cycle of solemnity and praise, celebration and lament – just like the seasons of our lives.

Music in worship is a vehicle to help us realize these different seasons. Music can take us through times of sorrow and regret, joy and exaltation. Music is a vehicle – it’s a truck that can carry us through these vastly contrasting times of our lives. Whether we are dancing or mourning or reflecting, music can adapt to that mood and engage and connect us all in a shared ride.

Psalm 122 says, “God inhabits the praises of his people.” So when we lift our voices in song to God, the Holy Spirit inhabits that song and is with us. God is with us in our song.

I love to play all kinds of music. Music has been with me through all the seasons of my life. But to me, Sacred Music, is just that – a profoundly important act of reaching out from the abyss to connect with God and connect with each other.

Here is the QR code to audio of this Sunday’s Responsorial Psalm:

Isaiah 12:2-3, 4, 5-6.

R. Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you is the great and Holy One of Israel.

God indeed is my savior;

I am confident and unafraid.

My strength and my courage is the LORD,
and he has been my savior.

With joy you will draw water
at the fountain of salvation.

R. Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you is the great and Holy One of Israel.

Give thanks to the LORD, acclaim his name;

among the nations make known his deeds,
proclaim how exalted is his name.

R. Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you is the great and Holy One of Israel.

Sing praise to the LORD for his glorious achievement;

let this be known throughout all the earth.
Shout with exultation, O city of Zion,
for great in your midst
is the Holy One of Israel!
