Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Central theme: This week we are at a wedding in Cana where Jesus reveals Divine power by transforming water into wine. The Bible begins with one wedding, that of Adam and Eve in the garden (Gn 2:23-24), and ends with another, the marriage supper of the Lamb (Rv 19:9, 21:9, 22:17). At Cana, Jesus also blesses human marriage, perhaps at that moment instituting the Sacrament of Matrimony. Throughout the Bible, marriage is the symbol of the Covenant relationship between God and His chosen people. God is the faithful Bridegroom and humanity is His beloved bride. Let us pray for God's daily miracles in our families.

Scripture lessons summarized: We see this theme beautifully presented in today's first reading, where Isaiah uses the metaphor of spousal love to describe God's love for Israel. God's fidelity to his people is compared to a husband's fidelity to his wife. Isaiah predicts God's salvation of Jerusalem after the return of the Babylonian exiles and visualizes it as a wedding between God and Jerusalem. Jesus' provision of abundant wine for the wedding feast in Cana signifies that the day foreseen by Isaiah has arrived. Anticipating the joy of this wedding, the Psalmist urges us in the Responsorial Psalm (Ps 96), "Sing to the Lord a new song." In today's second reading, St. Paul reminds us that the new wine that Jesus pours out for us is the gift of the Holy Spirit, given to His Bride. In today's Gospel, John describes the first of the seven "signs" by which Jesus showed forth His Divinity. When the wine "ran short," Jesus' Mother told Jesus about it. At first Jesus seemed to refuse to do anything about it. But later he told the servants to fill six large stone jars with water and take some of the miraculous water-made-wine to the headwaiter. When they did so, the headwaiter expressed his surprise that such a great wine had been reserved for late use.

Life messages: 1) Let us, "invite Jesus and Mary to remain with us in our homes" when we feel shortages in our family lives. The spouses need Jesus and Mary when their dreams are gone, mutual love seems dried up, the relationship becomes boring, and raising the children becomes a burden draining all their energy. The awareness of the presence of Jesus and Mary in the family will encourage parents to create an atmosphere of prayer, Bible-reading, mutual love, and respect, with a spirit of forgiveness and sacrificial service at home. This change will refresh and renovate family life, removing its boredom.

2) Let us follow Mary's instruction, "Do whatever He tells you." This is the only recorded command given by Mary in the New Testament, and it is a prerequisite for miracles in our families. The Bible tells us how to do the will of God and effect salvific changes in our daily lives.

3) Just as Jesus filled the empty water jars with wine, let us fill the empty hearts around us with love. By the miracle of Cana, Jesus challenges us also to enrich the empty lives of those around us with the new wine of love, mercy, concern, and care.

4) Let us learn to appreciate the miracles of God's providence in our lives. God, often as an uninvited guest in our families, works daily miracles in our lives by protecting us from physical and moral dangers, providing for our needs, inspiring us, and strengthening us with His Holy Spirit. Let us also appreciate, where God transforms our offering of bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Jesus. (Fr. Tony's Homilies)

Singing and blessing God's name is a powerful expression of worship that draws us closer to His divine presence. When we sing of God's salvation and tell of His glory, we aren't just reciting words, but expressing the deep joy and gratitude that fills our hearts. This joy comes from recognizing God's mighty works, His grace, and His enduring love.

In the congregation, singing hymns and participating in Mass are collective proclamations of our faith and devotion. By lifting our voices together, we unite in a shared expression of praise, making our worship a powerful testament to God's glory.

Wholeheartedly engaging in singing acknowledges that worship is an active offering of our hearts and voices. The melodies and lyrics of the hymns carry the truths of our faith, embedding them deeper into our hearts. It becomes a way to show our love for God and to remember His wondrous deeds.

Let us always sing with joy, allowing our praises to rise like incense before God's throne, reflecting the gratitude and love we hold for our Creator.

PSALM 96

R: PROCLAIM HIS MARVELOUS DEEDS TO ALL THE NATIONS.

01.

Sing to the LORD a new song;
sing to the LORD, all you lands.
Sing to the LORD; bless his name.

02.

Announce his salvation, day after day.
Tell his glory among the nations;
among all peoples, his wondrous deeds.

03.

Give to the LORD, you families of nations,
give to the LORD glory and praise;
give to the LORD the glory due his name!

04.

Worship the LORD in holy attire.
Tremble before him, all the earth;
Say among the nations: The LORD is king.
He governs the peoples with equity.

Spiritual Growth Series

Metanoia: A Journey With Christ Into Conversion

Join us for a 10-week in-person series with weekly video presentations featuring Fr. Dave Pivonka Metanoia - and believe in the Gospel. In the Gospel of Mark, the first words of Jesus are an invitation to metanoia to repent, to change, to be converted. This series beautifully filmed on location in the Holy Land, highlighting sacred places such as the Sea of Galilee, the River Jordan, the desert of Temptations and many of the holy sites in Jerusalem.

Each of the episodes explores areas of our life where conversion is often necessary. Metanoia will examine topics such as who is Jesus, what must we do to inherit eternal life, and other significant matters of faith. Presented by Fr. Dave Pivonka, President of Franciscan University of Steubenville, as well as personal testimonies whose stories will inspire you to seek to encounter with Jesus and the new life, he is inviting us to. During each session we will also have small group discussions after the 30-minute video.

The series will be held on Monday evenings from 6:15 to 7:30 PM, in the OLR Social Hall or church, starting January 27th and will run through Lent, finishing on April 14th. Sessions will not be held on weeks when OLR School is not in session (e.g. Feb 10, Feb 17). Missed videos can be viewed on Formed.org.

Babysitting and transportation assistance may be available, email Encounter@olorcc.org

Luke: The Story of Salvation Fulfilled

The Gospel of Luke takes you on a journey that begins with the foretelling of John the Baptist's birth and culminates in Jesus' ascension into heaven. Along the way, you will witness key moments in salvation history, including the Annunciation; the Nativity; Jesus' baptism; his public ministry; the Last Supper; and Jesus' suffering, death, and glorious Resurrection. The Gospel's powerful prose and beautiful details will deepen your desire to draw closer to Jesus and be transformed by his teachings.

The Gospel of Luke continually reveals how Jesus is the fulfillment of Old Testament prophecies. With Luke: The Story of Salvation Fulfilled, you will experience joy as you see how God has been faithful throughout the ages and how God's promise can guide you in your everyday lives.

Join us for Luke: The Story of Salvation Fulfilled in the OLR Social Hall beginning February 11, from 9:15—11:15am, and continuing every Tuesday for 8 weeks.
