Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Central theme: Today's Gospel, presenting Jesus' "inaugural address" in the synagogue of Nazareth in which he outlines a theology of total liberation, marks a great moment in Jesus' ministry. The Scripture readings for today focus our attention on the importance and liberating power of the Word of God as "sacramental," making God present in our midst. The readings challenge us to listen to the Word, accept it into our hearts, then put it into practice as we live out our lives, thus liberating ourselves and others from all types of bondages.

Scripture lessons summarized: Today's first reading, taken from Nehemiah, and Luke's Gospel each describe a public reading of Sacred Scripture which challenges the hearers to make a "fresh beginning" with a new outlook. In the first reading, after rebuilding the Temple and restoring the city, Ezra leads the people in a "Covenant renewal" ceremony by reading and interpreting the Law. Today's Responsorial Psalm (Ps 19) sings the praises of the Law of the Lord and its effects on those who accept it. The Second Reading, taken from Paul's first letter to the Corinthians, reminds us that "together we are Christ's Body, but each of us is a different part of it." This suggests that, as different parts of Christ's Body, each of us has a share, as instruments in God's hands, in bringing the freeing and saving mission of Christ to our world in our times.

Today's Gospel describes how, on a Sabbath, Jesus stood before the people in the synagogue of his hometown, Nazareth, reading and interpreting what Isaiah had prophesied about the Messiah and his mission. Jesus claims that he is One sent "to bring glad tidings to the poor, liberation to captives, recovery of sight to the blind and freedom for the oppressed"—language that reflects the Biblical year of Jubilee. To the great amazement and disbelief of his own townsmen, Jesus declares that Isaiah's prophecy is being fulfilled at that very moment "in your hearing," because the prophecy foretells and describes Jesus' own mission and ministry. Jesus' mission is still to give liberation to everyone who will listen to his "Good News," accept it and put it into practice. Luke reports that surprise and admiration were the initial reactions of the people who were astonished at the power and eloquence of this son of their soil.

Life messages: 1) We need to receive Christ's freedom, live it, and pass it on to others: As members of Christ's Mystical Body, we share in the freeing, saving mission of Jesus. But we are captives of sin. We need Christ to set us free. We are often blinded by our evil habits, addictions, and need for financial security. Once we receive true liberation from Christ, we have to share it with those we encounter in our daily lives, families, neighborhoods, parishes, schools, and workplaces.

2) We need to let the power of the Holy Spirit fill us, and then be ready to have miracles done through us. Today's Gospel tells us that Jesus performed miracles because he was filled with the power of the Holy Spirit. Let us be ready to become Spirit-filled instruments of Christ's saving freedom. (Fr. Tony's Homilies)

PSALM 19

R: YOUR WORDS, LORD, ARE SPIRIT AND LIFE.

Why chant a psalm? Chanting connects us to an ancient tradition that dates back thousands of years, from Jewish temple worship to early Christian liturgy. It's a practice that unites us with generations of believers, offering a timeless way to pray and reflect.

What makes chant so special is its simplicity. The melodies are straightforward and flow naturally, much like speaking. This keeps the focus on the words, helping us connect with the deeper meaning of the psalms. It's not about performance—it's about letting the beauty of the psalms shine through in a timeless, meaningful way.

Chanting also creates a sacred, peaceful atmosphere. Its melodies evoke reverence and invite a sense of prayerful calm. Whether sung responsively, in unison, or antiphonally, chant draws people together in worship. And while the music may be simple, it's deeply expressive, capturing the emotions of the psalms—joy, sorrow, or awe—in a way that feels authentic and prayerful.

01.

The law of the LORD is perfect;
it revives the soul.
The decrees of the LORD are steadfast;
they give wisdom to the simple.

02.

The precepts of the LORD are right;
they gladden the heart.
The command of the LORD is clear;
it gives light to the eyes.

03.

The fear of the LORD is pure,
abiding forever.
The judgments of the LORD are true;
they are, all of them just.

04.

May the spoken words of my mouth,
the thoughts of my heart,
win favor in your sight, O LORD,
my rock and my redeemer!

SCHOOL SPOTLIGHT

Catholic Schools Week—School Spotlight

January is a time for us to celebrate Our Lady of Refuge as a Catholic school option for Raven hopefuls that are looking to grow in both faith and education with the guidance of the Lord. As a school, we will be celebrating Catholic Schools Week beginning Sunday, January 26 - Saturday, February 1st.

Our Lady of Refuge has been, and continues to be, a school of high academic standards. We interweave our Catholic Faith within all aspects of our daily lives. It is a school where we are able to begin together in prayer and lean on the guidance from our Lord as we navigate through our day. Think about a school for your children or grandchildren where they are instructed with the guidance of a staff and community that begin the day with prayer and keep the Lord's teaching at the forefront of all that they do. Our students take time in practicing to know the Lord and understand how to speak to God for guidance. We provide service to local and distant communities with several service projects throughout the year. OLR joins together in Mass as a faith community and experiences the presence of the Lord in the Eucharist. We have high academic standards and offer a great variety of ways for students to grow in their education within our rigorous curriculum. If you find in your heart that this is how you see your children or grandchildren growing in their education, schedule some time to tour OLR. It would be our pleasure to guide you through the opportunities that are available and tell you more about all that we have to offer at Our Lady of Refuge Catholic School! Contact us at 248-682-3422 or www.olar-school.net.

ECC@OLORCC.ORG

At Our Lady of Refuge, we try to create a culture of life. There are many local pro-life organizations that need our help. Some of the organizations we support are pregnancy resource centers and homes for single pregnant moms. These organizations need both volunteers and monetary and physical item donations. As part of the Christmas giving tree, we provided funds to Abigail Ministries and Mary's Children Family Center as well as baby formula.

During Lent, we will have a Lenten giving tree with items to be donated and given to the local pregnancy resource centers.

We currently pray to save baby's lives while in front of the abortion clinic in West Bloomfield on the first Saturday of the month starting at 10:00 a.m. If people are interested, more days and times to pray can be organized.

We also have fundraising activities to support Right to Life-LIFESPAN. In May, we have carnations for Mother's Day available after Masses and ask for donations. In June, we have candy bars for Father's Day after Masses and again ask for donations. During the month of November, we sell Christmas cards after Masses.

There are so many ways to help. Currently, we do not have a pro-life committee at OLR. If you are interested in being part of a committee, helping with the Lenten giving tree and/or finding more ways to help create a culture of life, please contact Julie Llewellyn at 248-842-6392 or julieQQQ@yahoo.com.

From April 24 - May 8, 2025 we will be displaying the Right to Life-LIFESPAN white crosses memorial, a traveling display of small white crosses to represent the deaths of unborn children killed by legal abortion every day in American and to bring awareness to this tragic loss of life. The Knights of Columbus will be installing the crosses. Please contact Oscar Mittelstaedt at oem0604@gmail.com if you would like to help.

Angel's Place Meals

Angel's Place supports individuals with developmental disabilities, particularly those with intellectual disabilities, who may require assistance with daily life demands and completing tasks typically expected for their age group. Located at 2809 Saddlewood Rd, West Bloomfield Township, we would greatly appreciate your consideration in bringing a meal for the residents. Whether it's a homemade dish or something simple like a Costco rotisserie chicken, salad, and dessert (they love desserts!), your contribution would mean a lot. Thus far in the month of October only one meal has been provided from OLR. Thank you for your support of this ministry.

To sign up to bring a meal either use the QR Code, the link on our website or the following website www.signupgenius.com/go/70a0d49a8ab2baaf58-angels#/

We are excited to enhance our liturgical environment with fresh cut flowers each weekend. We invite you to contribute $50.00 or donate a bunch of fresh flowers in memory of a loved one. Your generosity will be acknowledged in the bulletin with a note recognizing the person you're honoring.

To participate, please complete the form found on the shelf in the gathering space. Place it in an envelope and either drop it in the collection basket or deliver it to the Parish Office.

Thank you for your consideration and help.
