Fifth Sunday of Easter

Today's readings are about renewal and new things: The New Jerusalem, a new Heaven with a new earth, and a new commandment.

The first reading, taken from the Acts of the Apostles, describes how the small Christian communities helped the work of renewal in their members by their agápe love, imitating the agápe love of Paul and Barnabas. The second reading, from the Book of Revelation, explains how God renews His Church, the New Jerusalem, by being present in her members, in their parish communities, and in their liturgical celebrations. "See, I am making all things new."

Today's Gospel passage gives us the secret of Christian renewal as the faithful practice of Jesus' new commandment: "Love one another as I have loved you" (Jn 13:35). Jesus has added a new element to the Old Testament command of love by teaching us that the true test of discipleship is to love other people in the same way that he has loved us, with sacrificial, selfless, self-giving and unconditional, agápe love. Hence, the renewal of Christian life means a radical change of vision and a reordering of our priorities in life. Such a renewal brings us to embrace new attitudes, new values, and new standards of relating to God, to other people and, indeed, to our whole environment.

Life messages: 1) Let us learn to love ourselves so that we may learn to love each other. The old commandment says: "Love your neighbor as yourself" (Lv 19:1-2, 9-18). We cannot learn to cherish others and care for them if we have never learned to do the same for ourselves. We live in a world that denies our basic human worth. How do we reclaim our basic worth? We can become whole, and holy, only when we learn to love ourselves properly, acknowledging the fact that we are children of God and that the Triune God resides in our souls, making our body the "temple of the Holy Spirit."

2) Let us love others in our daily lives: We are asked to love as Jesus loved, in the ordinary course of our lives. We love others by responding to their everyday needs with love and compassion. We love others by comforting and protecting those who have experienced loss. We love others by serving others in every possible way, no matter how small, seeing the face of Jesus in each of them. We love others by forgiving rather than condemning, and by challenging rather than condoning. Finally, we love others by sacrificially sharing our time, talents, and blessings with them.

3) Let us demonstrate our love for others in our gatherings and parish assemblies: When we are assembled as a religious or social community, we have an opportunity to demonstrate our love for one another. People must see Christians as people who interact with a love and concern for one another that reveals their strong love and appreciation for each other. They should see in us a quickness to appreciate and a readiness to forgive, even as Christ has forgiven us. (Fr. Tony's Homilies)

What is the Patriotic Rosary?

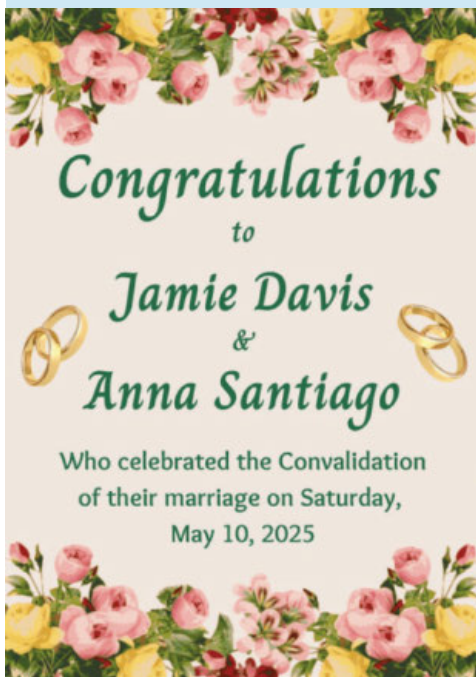

The Patriotic Rosary was written by a member of the Caritas Community in Alabama. It dedicates each Hail Mary of the traditional Catholic Rosary to one of the 50 states, asking for God's protection and guidance for the nation.

We begin the Rosary with the traditional prayers with intentions for the following:

Come Holy Spirit
For the Conversion of our Nation's Capital
The Apostle's Creed
For the Holy Father
Our Father
For Bishops, Priests, Religious
Three Hail Mary's
For the Conversion of our Country
Glory Be

Please join us on the morning of Memorial Day for the 9:00 AM Mass, followed immediately by the Patriotic Rosary. For more information about this version of the Rosary, please visit the following website:

In this beautiful month of May, we honor the Blessed Mother, our own mothers, and one of our Christian Service Commission members who tirelessly promotes the gift of life.

We deeply appreciate the work of Julie Llewellyn in promoting pro-life activities within our parish. Julie organized the Mother's Day carnations distributed after Masses last weekend. These flowers were a small token of appreciation for our mothers who gave us life. All donations received will be given to Right to Life—Lifespan to support their important pro-life efforts.

Julie prepares for the Mother's Day carnation distribution throughout the year—cutting ribbons for the tags while watching TV or during long car rides on vacation. Her dedication is unwavering. In addition to this project, Julie also participates in monthly prayer outside an abortion center, helps nearly every week in our food pantry, and volunteers with Grace Centers of Hope in Pontiac.

One of the deliveries to Wee Care Pregnancy Center

We are truly grateful for all that Julie does. We also extend our heartfelt thanks to the team who assisted with the carnation distribution: Teresa Roose, Liz Oras, Jane Hart, Karen Semaan, Jan Mittelstaedt, Marilyn and Jim Schafer, Stephanie Riney, and Leeann and Dan Whalen.

Julie also worked tirelessly on our Lenten Giving Tree. Through this initiative, we collected hundreds of baby essentials for new mothers supported by Wee Care and Another Way Pregnancy Center. Below is the text of a thank-you note we received from Another Way:

Dear Friends at Our Lady of Refuge,

Thank you for your amazing donation of baby items. Your generosity is truly appreciated. It is dedicated supporters like you who help AWPC grow and serve more people every year. Thank you again and may God Bless you.

Psalm 145

RESPONSE:

I will praise your name forever,
my king and my God.

Verse 1

The LORD is kind and full of compassion,
slow to anger, abounding in mercy.
How good is the LORD to all,
compassionate to all his creatures.

Verse 2

All your works shall thank you, O LORD,
and all your faithful ones bless you.
They shall speak of the glory of your reign,
and declare your mighty deeds.

Verse 3

To make known your might to the children of men,
and the glorious splendor of your reign.
Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom;
your rule endures for all generations.

Psalm 145 was written by King David. It is one of the many psalms attributed to him in the Book of Psalms.

This particular psalm is notable for being an acrostic poem in Hebrew—each verse begins with a successive letter of the Hebrew alphabet (with one letter, nun, traditionally missing in some manuscripts). It is also the only psalm with the title "A psalm of praise of David", highlighting its focus on pure worship and adoration of God.

During the beautiful month of May, a time traditionally dedicated to honoring the Blessed Virgin Mary, it is customary to sing Marian hymns as a heartfelt tribute to our spiritual Mother, expressing our love and devotion.

Latin

Regina caeli laetare, alleluia.
Quia quem meruisti portare, alleluia.
Resurrexit sicut dixit, alleluia:
Ora pro nobis Deum, alleluia.

English

Queen of Heaven, rejoice, alleluia.
For he, whom you did merit to bear,
alleluia.
Has risen as he said, alleluia.
Pray for us to God, alleluia.

I know I'm a little behind the times on this, but habemus papam! You may have noticed the celebratory white and yellow cloth at the entrance of the church. Pope Leo XIV was elected on May 8th, after only four votes in the conclave. I'm sure many of you have learned much about him already, including the fact that he was born in America. Maybe this will calm the Detroit-Chicago rivalry a little bit, we'll have to wait and see. Before he was elected pope, Leo XIV was the head of the Augustinian order and served as bishop of a diocese in Peru for many years before working in the Vatican since 2023 as leader of the office that oversees all the bishops of the world. There is reasonable speculation, in my opinion, that his role in this office gave him contact with a lot of his fellow Cardinal-electors in the conclave, which helped him be elected as pope.

Pope Leo XIII is an important historical figure in the Church, having written an encyclical - a letter to people all over the world - titled Rerum Novarum, or New Things in English; in the midst of the Industrial Revolution, Leo XIII wrote about the dignity of work and the rights of workers. These themes would be repeated by future popes and developed into what we now call Catholic Social Teaching. Seeing as we are in the midst of a technological or digital revolution, there is hope that Leo XIV will address the societal changes we are experiencing from the Church's perspective, focusing on the dignity of the human person.

Pope Leo the Great (the first Leo) is also important, having convinced Atilla the Hun to stop his invasion of Italy in 452 AD. Details are sparse, but historical records are united in reporting that Leo and Atilla did meet outside of Rome, after which Atilla retreated across the Danube.

Let There Be Light!

Dear Parishioners,

As many of you have noticed, the lighting in our worship space has been less than ideal—some lights are too bright, some are not working at all, and others flicker, causing discomfort. We are aware of these issues and have consulted with a lighting company to find a solution that won't break the bank.

The good news is we've received a proposal for new light fixtures that will fit into our existing fixtures, provide better fitted lights, and eliminate the harsh glare. We have 92 fixtures that need to be updated. The total cost for materials is $1,259, with labor at $5,520, bringing the entire project to $6,779 – that's $74 per light, including labor.

We're grateful to share that a generous parishioner has already donated $1,200 toward this project (thank you, anonymous benefactor!). Now, we're reaching out to see if you'd be willing to help us improve our sanctuary by "buying a light." Donations can be mailed to the parish office or placed in the Offertory basket with a memo that reads: "Buy a Light."

We're so thankful for your ongoing support and generosity. May God bless you for your kindness!

With gratitude,

Eva Ashor, Business Manager
