Sixth Sunday of Easter

Today's readings show us the effects of the abiding presence of God in His Church and of His indwelling in each one of us.

The first reading, taken from the Acts of the Apostles, tells us how the Holy Spirit, indwelling in the Church, helped the apostles to solve a major doctrinal problem about the Gentiles becoming Christians, which shook the very foundation of the early Church. The Responsorial Psalm (Ps 67) prays that all the nations on the earth may recognize their God and praise Him. The second reading, taken from the Book of Revelation, describes the Church as the Heavenly Jerusalem which replaces the holy presence of God in the Holy of Holies in the Temple in Jerusalem. This New Jerusalem is a city united in love, with the victorious Jesus residing in it and in each of its members. The Gospel passage reminds us that the Holy Spirit, abiding within us, is our Teacher, our Advocate, and the Source of our peace and joy. The passage offers a vision of hope as well. Jesus promises his followers that the Holy Spirit will come and instruct them in everything they need to know.

Life messages: 1) Let us be aware of the abiding presence of God within us: We live in the New Covenant of Jesus, daily facing uncertainty, conflict, and temptations. It is the abiding presence of God within us that enables us to face the future with undying hope and true Christian courage. The Holy Spirit, Whom the risen Lord asked His Father to send upon His Church, prompts us to turn to His Holy Scriptures for support and encouragement, enables us to learn the Divine truths, and grants us His peace at all times. However, to be able to receive these gifts, it is necessary for us to spend a little time each day in personal prayer, talking to God and listening to Him. We must deepen our relationship with Jesus, learn to get in touch with him, and sincerely love him. When we listen to the Holy Spirit, we will know His plan for our life and His solutions to whatever problems we face. We will be able to love our fellow human beings, and there will be a core of peace within us. The Holy Spirit teaches us through the Scriptures and preaching during the Holy Mass. Jesus loves us and comes to us in Communion. When the Mass is ended, we go forth in the peace of Christ – and all of this takes place successfully under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

2) We need to have the conviction that we are not alone: One of the great social and ethical problems of our time is isolation. Today approximately 25% of all adults live alone. Spouses, parents, and children often live as virtual strangers to one another. This is unfortunate because we never need to be alone. Jesus shares his joy with us and replaces the burden of our guilt with the freedom of forgiveness. He takes our grief and turns it into joy. So, we need only allow Jesus into our lives to be rid of this loneliness. Oneness with Jesus is the greatest gift we can give our children, our friends, or those who see no purpose in life. We can help to bring people into unity with Jesus, a unity that will change their lives. As we celebrate this Eucharistic meal, our Mass, let us celebrate in a special way the price Jesus paid for our redemption. May this Eucharistic celebration empower us to lead a true Life of the Spirit! (Fr. Tony's Homilies)

Thank You Veterans and Happy Memorial Day

Thank you to all of our military past, present and future! Thank you for continuing to be Soldiers of God! May God bless you and keep you always!

A Veteran's Prayer – Psalm 91

You who dwell in the shelter of the Most High,
who abide in the shadow of the Almighty, Say to the Lord, "My refuge and my fortress,
my God, in whom I trust."

For he will rescue you from the snare of the fowler, from the destroying pestilence.
With his pinions he will cover you, and under his wings you shall take refuge;
his faithfulness is a buckler and a shield.
You shall not fear the terror of the night
nor the arrow that flies by day;
Not the pestilence that roams in darkness
nor the devastating plague at noon.
Though a thousand fall at your side, ten thousand at your right side, near you it shall not come.

Rather with your eyes shall you behold and see the requital of the wicked,

Because you have the Lord for your refuge; you have made the Most High your stronghold.
No evil shall befall you, nor shall affliction
come near your tent,

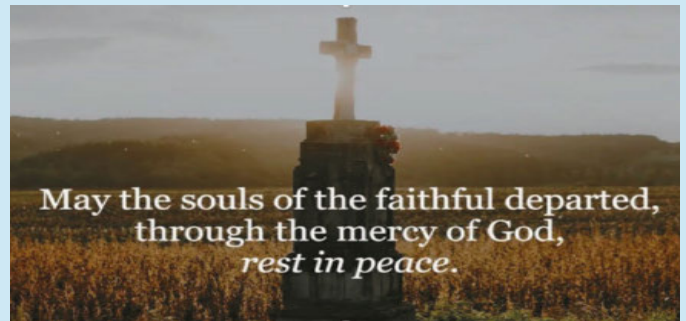

For to his angels he has given command about you, that they guard you in all your ways.
Upon their hands they shall bear you up, lest you dash your foot against a stone.

You shall tread upon the asp and the viper;
you shall trample down the lion and the dragon.

Because he clings to me, I will deliver him;
I will set him on high because he acknowledges my name.

He shall call upon me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in distress;

I will deliver him and glorify him; with length of days I will gratify him and will show him my salvation.

Psalm 67

RESPONSE:

O God, O God, let all the nations praise you!

Verse 1

O God, be gracious and bless us and let your face shed its light upon us.
So will your ways be known upon earth and all nations learn your salvation

Verse 2

Let the nations be glad and shout for joy, with uprightness you rule the peoples;
you guide the nations on earth.

Verse 3

Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you.
May God still give us his blessing that all the ends of the earth may revere him.

This prayer is a timeless plea for divine grace, justice, and unity. It calls for God's light to guide all nations, offering hope in a world longing for peace. Joy comes when righteousness prevails, and the desire for fair leadership echoes across time. In today's interconnected world, moments of harmony remind us that gratitude and reverence transcend borders. Though challenges persist, this prayer remains a beacon—an affirmation that blessing is near, justice is possible, and unity is sacred. It is an invitation to praise, trust, and believe in the enduring presence of divine love among all peoples.

I hope everyone enjoys a safe and blessed Memorial Day weekend. For many years, as a child, this day meant baseball, barbecue, and extra time with my dad. I miss those days! Now, as an adult, I still get to watch baseball, cook my own barbecue, and spend time with my dad. But I also understand the reason behind the holiday: to recognize and to honor the men and women who have died while in service of our country in the Armed Forces. This laudable sentiment reflects a time when Christianity was an accepted part of American culture. We can use this holiday as a stepping-stone, a way of evangelizing, if we can see the kernel of truth in what we are doing.

For what is any memorial of the deceased except an introduction to teachings on the after-life? Why do we honor those who have died by thinking of them and remembering their sacrifice - is it for our own comfort, to remember those we've loved and lost? Is it to show gratitude to those who cannot receive it - except if we believe they continue to exist in some way? Perhaps, but it is more than that. It is a secularized version of the Communion of Saints we recite in the Creed. What else can those we remember be but part of the 'great cloud of witnesses' (Hebrews 12:1)? We recognize this collective group of deceased Americans precisely for the reason they gave their lives. How can we fail to see a reflection of Christian martyrdom in their cause?

Remembering fallen soldiers helps us to remember the cause for which they fought. What these brave men and women all have in common is reflected in the third verse of America the Beautiful, which begins, "O beautiful for heroes proved/ In liberating strife,/ Who more than self their country loved/ And mercy more than life!" Would that we all be brave enough to value our own life less and be willing to sacrifice it for a greater cause. Romans 5:7 tells us, "for a good person one might even find courage to die" and John 15:13 says, "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." This is the pinnacle of Christian sacrifice, a humble echo of Jesus' own sacrifice for us. Yet we may consider fallen American soldiers to have died, not for friends or for a good person, but for people they never even met. Why?

For your freedom and ours.

Let There Be Light!

Dear Parishioners,

As many of you have noticed, the lighting in our worship space has been less than ideal—some lights are too bright, some are not working at all, and others flicker, causing discomfort. We are aware of these issues and have consulted with a lighting company to find a solution that won't break the bank.

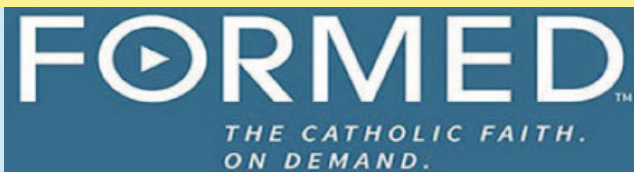

The good news is we've received a proposal for new light fixtures that will fit into our existing fixtures, provide better fitted lights, and eliminate the harsh glare. We have 92 fixtures that need to be updated. The total cost for materials is $1,259, with labor at $5,520, bringing the entire project to $6,779 – that's $74 per light, including labor.

We're grateful to share that a generous parishioner has already donated $1,200 toward this project (thank you, anonymous benefactor!). Now, we're reaching out to see if you'd be willing to help us improve our sanctuary by "buying a light." Donations can be mailed to the parish office or placed in the Offertory basket with a memo that reads: "Buy a Light."

We're so thankful for your ongoing support and generosity. May God bless you for your kindness!

With gratitude,

Eva Ashor, Business Manager
