Ascension of Our Lord

Today's readings describe the Ascension of the Lord Jesus into his Heavenly glory after promising his disciples the Holy Spirit as their source of Heavenly power and commanding them to bear witness to him throughout the world by their lives and preaching. But the ascended Jesus is still with us through his indwelling Holy Spirit as he has promised, "I am with you always; yes, to the end of time." Today's feast is a celebration of Jesus' final glorification after his suffering, death, and Resurrection – a glory in which we, too, hope to share.

The first reading gives an account of the event of the Ascension as recorded in the first chapter of the Acts of the Apostles. First, Jesus instructed his apostles to remain in Jerusalem and wait for the baptism by the Holy Spirit so that they might become his "witnesses to the ends of the earth" by the power of the Holy Spirit. Then a cloud took Jesus from the sight of the disciples and two Heavenly messengers in white garments gave them the assurance of Jesus' "second coming" or return in glory.

In the second reading, Paul explains the theological meaning of Jesus' exaltation, giving us the assurance that one day, we, too, will be ascending to Heavenly Glory, provided we fulfill the mission entrusted to us by the ascending Lord.

Today's Gospel describes how Jesus ascended to Heaven after giving his final blessing and missionary command to his disciples. The command was to "proclaim the Good News to the whole creation," "to be his witnesses," and "to make disciples of all nations." (Mt 28:16-20, Mk 16:15-20, Lk 24:46-53, Acts 1:1-11).

Life messages: 1) We need to be proclaimers and evangelizers: To be a Christian is to be a proclaimer and an evangelizer. There is a difference between preaching and proclaiming. We preach with words, but we proclaim with our lives. Let us ask the guidance of the Holy Spirit, as we bear witness to Jesus by our transparent Christian lives.

2) We have a teaching mission: Jesus taught us lessons of Faith, Hope, Love, forgiveness, mercy, and salvation by his life and preaching and gave us as we have experienced our Lord and Savior.

3) The ascended Jesus is our source of strength and encouragement: We will be able to overcome doubts about our Faith, as well as baseless fears, anxieties and worries, by meditating on Jesus' Ascension and the lesson it teaches (Fr. Tony's Homilies)

SCHOOL SPOTLIGHT

On May 19th, the 8th grade class of Our Lady of Refuge gathered in joy and reflection for a special milestone: their graduation from middle school. In the heart of our church, surrounded by family, teachers, and classmates, students celebrated not just academic achievements, but the growth of their faith, character, and community.

The day began with a beautiful Mass, reminding everyone of God's presence in each step of life's journey. Father Suresh offered words of encouragement and prayer, reflecting on the importance of trusting in God's plan. "Graduation is not an ending, but a beginning," he shared. "Let Christ be your guide as you continue to grow in wisdom, courage, and compassion."

After the liturgy, the graduation ceremony continued with speeches from school leaders and student representatives. Mrs. Hoffman, Principal, reflected on the class's spiritual and academic journey, praising their resilience, leadership, and service. "You have learned to live your faith—not just in prayer, but in action, kindness, and responsibility," they said.

The ceremony included special blessings and the presentation of diplomas, as each graduate stood before the altar to applause and heartfelt cheers. Awards for academic excellence, Christian service, and leadership were also given, recognizing those who truly embodied the school's Catholic values.

With the light of Christ to guide them, the 8th grade graduates of Our Lady of Refuge Catholic School now step forward into high school with confidence, compassion, and the strength of their faith.

Congratulations, OLR Class of 2025—go forth and let your light shine.

Psalm 47

*R: God mounts his throne to shouts of joy:
a blare or trumpets for the Lord.*

The Ascension is the completion of Christ's mission—it is the moment when He takes His rightful place in glory, securing the path for our salvation. Without it, His work would remain unfinished, and the promise of eternal life would be incomplete.

By ascending, Jesus does more than depart—He opens the way for us to follow. He does not simply leave behind His teachings and miracles; He actively draws humanity into divine life, showing that salvation is not just about redemption from sin, but about union with God. The Ascension is proof that our destiny is not bound to this world but lifted to something greater, a reality beyond what we see.

And His return to the Father does not mean absence—it means presence in a new way. Through the Holy Spirit, Christ remains with us, guiding, strengthening, and ensuring that the grace of salvation is always available. His Ascension is not just history—it is the present and the future, the guarantee that He reigns, intercedes, and prepares a place for us.

Do you see the Ascension as a moment of completion, or as the beginning of something even greater?

01.

All you peoples, clap your hands,
shout to God with cries of gladness.
For the LORD, the Most High, the awesome, is the great king over all the earth.

02.

God mounts his throne amid shouts of joy;
the LORD, amid trumpet blasts.
Sing praise to God, sing praise;
sing praise to our king, sing praise.

03.

For king of all the earth is God;
sing hymns of praise.
God reigns over the nations,
God sits upon his holy throne.

RE@OLORCC.ORG

This weekend, we are celebrating the Feast of the Ascension. Traditionally, Jesus ascended into heaven, returning to his Father, 40 days after Easter. While there are various ways of counting 40 days from Ash Wednesday to get to Easter Sunday, the 40 days from Easter to the Ascension are much more straightforward. However, those 40 days land on a Thursday, not a Sunday. So, the church from the very beginning celebrated Ascension Thursday and for many years it was a holy day of obligation. In the United States, there exists a unique situation in which some dioceses have transferred the Solemnity of the Ascension to the following Sunday while other dioceses have retained the celebration of the solemnity on Thursday. It is one of the few cases where the Mass readings for the day are different in some parts of the country versus others.

The story of the Ascension is one of my favorites for Lectio Divina, a practice of slowly and repeatedly reading the same bible passage to seek a new or deeper understanding. It also may involve imagining yourself being present to witness the story. I like to think of the angels appearing and waiting a moment before speaking to the disciples, pointing fingers and laughing silently. The 11 disciples were so busy looking up at Jesus, even after he had disappeared, that they did not notice two angels standing next to them!

Tuesday, June 3, will be the final school Mass for the summer. We are grateful for the school staff for their dedication in working with the students and for their hospitality in allowing the parish to use the school's spaces for our programs.

John Lajiness from Sacred Heart Major Seminary will host a webinar on Wednesday, June 25, at 1:30 p.m. to teach about the updated Lay Ecclesial Ministry Certification process. He will share the benefits of seeking certification in the Archdiocese of Detroit and provide an overview of the new process. There will be plenty of time for questions and answers.

You will need to RSVP to the June 25 session. Email re@olorcc.org for a link to the RSVP form from the archdiocese.

Make This a Summer to Grow in Faith!

There's something rejuvenating about slowing down in the summer and finding space to reflect, grow, and reconnect with what matters most. Summer with the Saints on Formed.org is your invitation to do just that. Each week, starting June 1, they'll highlight a saint in celebration of his/her feast day and share that particular saint's story, legacy, and spiritual wisdom through beautifully produced content. Whether you're watching during your morning coffee or winding down in the evening, these saintly stories are here to inspire and enrich your faith life. Sign up today, and let the saints walk with you this summer.

Let There Be Light!

Dear Parishioners,

As many of you have noticed, the lighting in our worship space has been less than ideal—some lights are too bright, some are not working at all, and others flicker, causing discomfort. We are aware of these issues and have consulted with a lighting company to find a solution that won't break the bank.

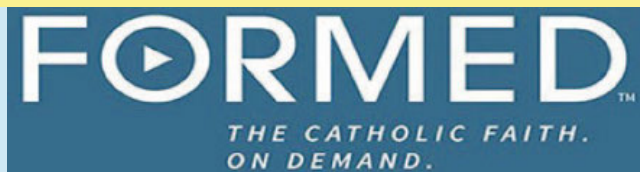

The good news is we've received a proposal for new light fixtures that will fit into our existing fixtures, provide better fitted lights, and eliminate the harsh glare. We have 92 fixtures that need to be updated. The total cost for materials is $1,259, with labor at $5,520, bringing the entire project to $6,779 – that's $74 per light, including labor.

We're grateful to share that a generous parishioner has already donated $1,200 toward this project (thank you, anonymous benefactor!). Now, we're reaching out to see if you'd be willing to help us improve our sanctuary by "buying a light." Donations can be mailed to the parish office or placed in the Offertory basket with a memo that reads: "Buy a Light."

We're so thankful for your ongoing support and generosity. May God bless you for your kindness!

With gratitude,

Eva Ashor, Business Manager
