The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

The Body and Blood of Christ (the Eucharist) is the most excellent gift ever given to us by Christ. It also shows how much God loves and cares for both our temporal and spiritual welfare. Therefore, what we celebrate today is the sacramental presence of Christ in his Church.

Today, virtually all the readings touched on one issue – giving or offering something. The first reading succinctly tells us that “Abram offered Melchizedek a tithe of everything.” He did not give it to receive something in return. Instead, he did it out of his own free will. Of course, Melchizedek blessed him and offered thanks to God on his behalf with bread and wine. These were offerings of one’s self in the form of material items. Abram is a specialist in self-donation (cf. Gen 22:1-18).

Today as ever before, Christ offers himself sacramentally to us. This is simply a way of expressing his unconditional love for us. He commands us: “Do this in memory of me!” Hence the church teaches us: “The command of Jesus to repeat his actions and words until he comes does not only ask us to remember Jesus and what he did. It is directed at the liturgical celebration, by the apostles and their successors, of the memorial of Christ (CCC 1341).

So, when we re-live the experience, we truly eat His Body and drink His Blood. Also, at another level, “Do this in memory of me” positions us to be ready to offer ourselves ultimately and for the salvation of others as Christ did for our salvation. So, when we re-live this experience, we are nourished spiritually to offer ourselves too to and for others.

In the gospel, Jesus says to Andrew and his colleagues, “Give them something to eat!” Today also, Christ is asking us to offer something. We, fed with the Body and Blood of Christ, are not being asked to give what we do not have. However, the truth is that although we live in a “highly religious world,” many are yet to receive the Body and Blood of Christ.

So, when we draw them closer to Christ, we bring them to the banquet table of Christ, who feeds and nourishes them with His body and blood. Therefore, we must be hospitable enough to help the weak, the spiritually hungry, and the thirsty to participate in the great feast of the Body and Blood of Christ.

Finally, Christ offers us his body and blood, real food and drink, which is the mystery and core of our faith. In the Holy Eucharist, Christ draws us closer to himself. Christ is present with us in the Holy Eucharist as the head of the Church.

So, today’s celebration provides us an opportunity to thank and adore Christ present in the Most Holy Sacrament. So, let us adore Christ saying, “O Sacrament Most Holy, O Sacrament divine all praises and all thanksgiving be unto you.” Amen. (Fr. Njoku C.S.Sp homilies)

SCHOOL SPOTLIGHT

Dear Our Lady of Refuge Community,

We would like to take this opportunity to extend our heartfelt gratitude for your unwavering support throughout the school year. Your dedication and partnership have been instrumental in helping us live out our theme: “Stepping Toward Sainthood.” This year has been one of significant spiritual and academic growth, and we are proud of all that we have accomplished together.

One of the highest compliments we’ve received is that other schools look to Our Lady of Refuge as a model of excellence. This recognition is a direct reflection of the strong, faith-filled community you have helped foster—one that others seek to emulate. For this, we are deeply thankful.

As we reflect on the successes of this school year, we’d like to highlight several key accomplishments that demonstrate the strength and vibrancy of our school community:

- Established a School Advisory Committee (SAC) to support long-term planning and leadership
- Developed and presented the OLR 5-Year Strategic Plan
- Completed the installation of the Gala-funded playground
- Continued the successful implementation of our Watch D.O.G.S. (Dads of Great Students) program
- Saw positive outcomes from the enhanced student behavior plan
- Provided our dedicated staff with a generous Day of Giving bonus
- Upgraded the boys’ elementary restroom facilities
- Repaired cement steps at multiple school entrances for improved safety
- Welcomed a Campus Minister to further deepen our students’ Catholic identity
- Achieved record-breaking fundraising results at this year’s Gala
- Celebrated Mrs. Jessica Haynes, recipient of the “Excellence in Teaching” Award from the Archdiocese of Detroit

It has also been a blessing to work alongside our 57 talented and dedicated professionals as well as our 415 students from over 200 families. As we look ahead, we also take a moment to honor those who are moving on to their next adventures. We extend our deepest appreciation and heartfelt well-wishes to Mrs. Emily Engler, Mrs. Mina Yager, Mrs. Dani Klacking, Mrs. Kim Smith, Mrs. Heidi Bochnick, and Mrs. Lori Randolph. Each of them has made a lasting impact on our school community, and their contributions will not be forgotten. (continued on page 6)

SCHOOL SPOTLIGHT

(Continued from page 5) We will miss them dearly and pray that they continue to be blessed in all they do. May they always know the special place they each hold in our hearts.

Looking forward to the upcoming school year, we are excited to announce new roles and additions to our teaching staff:

- Ms. Brooke Dabish will be joining our team as the 2nd Grade Teacher
- Mrs. Renee Gamble will transition into the role of 3rd Grade Teacher
- Mrs. Katie Roberts will join our Preschool team as the 2-Day Pre-K Lead Teacher
- Mrs. Ferguson will continue teaching Middle School ELA, and we are thrilled to introduce a new Advanced ELA course for our 7th and 8th grade students. This initiative is designed to strengthen writing skills through an integrated approach to grammar and literature, better preparing our students for advanced coursework in high school.
- Mr. Kurt David has joined our staff as the School Counselor. He brings a wealth of experience and knowledge, and we are confident that his guidance will be a tremendous asset to our students and families.

We are incredibly proud of what we've achieved this year and remain energized for what lies ahead. Thank you for being an integral part of the Our Lady of Refuge family.

With gratitude,

The OLR Administration Team

Psalm 110

R: You are a priest forever, in the line of Melchizedek

01

The LORD's revelation to my lord:
"Sit at my right hand,
until I make your foes your footstool."

02

The LORD will send from Sion
your scepter of power:
rule in the midst of your foes.

03

With you is princely rule
on the day of your power.
In holy splendor, from the womb before the dawn,
I have begotten you.

04

The LORD has sworn an oath he will not change:
"You are a priest forever,
in the line of Melchizedek."

Sequence

LAUD O SION

21. Lo the angels' food is given,
To the pilgrim who has striven,
See the children's bread from heaven
Which on dogs may not be spent

22. Truth the ancient type fulfilling,
Isaac bound the victim willing
Paschal lamb, its life blood spilling, manna to the fathers sent

23. Very bread good Shepherd tend us,
Jesu of the love befriend us,
You refresh us You defend us,
Your eternal goodness send us,
In the land of life to see.

24. You who all things can and knowest,
Who on earth such food bestowest,
Grant with us your saints, though lowest,
where the heavenly feast you showest fellow heirs and guests to be.

Amen, Alleluia.

A Prayer of Praise for the Corpus Christi Sequence

Lord Jesus Christ, In the Most Holy Eucharist, You give Yourself completely to us— Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity— a gift beyond measure, a mystery beyond comprehension.

Through the words of Lauda Sion, You invite us to proclaim Your presence, to adore You with grateful hearts, and to cherish the sacred banquet You have prepared.

May we never take this gift for granted. Increase our faith, deepen our reverence, and transform us by the grace we receive at Your altar.

Nourish us with Your Body, strengthen us with Your love, and help us to live as true reflections of Your mercy. We praise You, Lord, in this most holy Sacrament. May every heart rejoice in Your presence and every soul draw closer to Your divine embrace.

Amen.

RE Classes

Serving students in grades 1–8 who do not attend the parish school. Classes meet once a week from September through May and include service projects during Advent and Lent, as well as special programs for Christmas, the Easter Triduum, and May Crowning. Led by volunteer catechists at each grade level, the program uses the Blest Are We: Faith in Action series and includes sacramental preparation when appropriate. In 2025, the program served 46 students from 30 families, supported by 11 volunteers.

Vacation Bible School (VBS)

Serving children ages 4–11. This four-day summer program (held in June or July) includes activities, Bible stories, outdoor games, crafts, and more—all centered around a biblical theme. This year's theme is Parachute with the Angels and Saints, running July 14–17, from 9:00 a.m. to noon. In summer 2024, 32 children participated, assisted by 11 teen volunteers and 5 adult volunteers.

Order of Christian Initiation for Adults

Open to all who are genuinely seeking to understand the Catholic faith. Weekly faith formation meetings are held for those wishing to join the Catholic Church or who have not yet received all of the Sacraments of Initiation, following the standard Archdiocesan schedule. The starting date varies based on the timing of Easter. The program includes minor rites, the Scrutinies, and concludes with the reception of the sacraments at the Easter Vigil. At the 2025 Easter Vigil, we welcomed Kristina Tsao into the Church.

First Reconciliation & First Communion

Serving second-grade students (requires one prior year of RE classes), whether attending the parish school or other schools. Weekly lessons are taught at an age-appropriate level. Reconciliation preparation runs until December; Communion preparation begins in January and continues through April. First Reconciliation dates vary; First Communion is celebrated on the first Saturday in May. In 2025, there were 52 First Communicants.

Confirmation

Serving students in both the parish school and other schools. Preparation begins in the fall of 7th grade and concludes in the spring of 8th grade. Weekly lessons focus on the role of the Holy Spirit in guiding the Church and shaping the lives of believers. Our program uses Chosen by Ascension Press, featuring dynamic video content from Catholic speakers such as Chris Stefanick and Fr. Mike Schmitz. In 2025, there were 9 Confirmandi.
