Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Introduction: The main themes of today's Scripture readings are the power of intercessory prayer, the Our Father as the ideal prayer, and the necessity for persistence and perseverance in prayer, with trusting faith and boldness. In short, the readings teach us what to pray for and how to pray.

Scripture lessons: The first reading, taken from the book of Genesis, gives us a model for intercessory prayer provided by Abraham in his dialogue with God. Although Abraham seems to be trying to manipulate God through his skillful bargaining and humble, persistent intercession, God is actually being moved to mercy by the goodness of a few innocent souls. The Responsorial Psalm (Ps 138), with the Psalm Response, "Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me," is a hymn of hope and trust in the Lord, reminding us that God is close to the humble of heart and to all those who call upon Him in their need.

The second reading, taken from Paul's Letter to the Colossians, though it does not address prayer, reminds us of the need for perseverance in our living Faith in Christ, which provides the basis for all Christian prayers, especially for liturgical prayer: the mystery of the Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ. Paul assures us that, even when we were dead in sin, God gave us new life through Jesus and pardoned all our sins.

In the Gospel passage, after teaching a model prayer, Jesus instructs his disciples to pray to God their Heavenly Father with the same boldness, daring, intimacy, conviction, persistence, and perseverance that Abraham displayed and that the friend in need in the parable employed. He gives us the assurance that God will not be irritated by our requests nor unwilling to meet them with generosity.

Life Messages: 1) Prayer is essential for Christian family life. To remain faithful in marriage, the spouses must pray, not only individually, but together. They need to thank God and offer intercessory prayers for each other, for their children, and for their dear ones. Daily prayer will help married couples to celebrate and reverence God's vision of human sexuality and honor life from conception to natural death. Here is St. John Marie Vianney's advice to a couple: "Spend three minutes praising and thanking God for all you have. Spend three minutes asking God's pardon for your sins and presenting your needs before Him. Spend three minutes reading the Bible and listening to God in silence. And do this every day."

2) We need to accept others as children of God and thereby our brothers and sisters: Through the Our Father, Jesus is giving us a new vision of human relationships: that we all, irrespective of color, creed, or social background, are the children of God and thereby are brothers and sisters. When we learn this lesson — if we can, and will, learn this lesson, if we are able to treat God as our Father and love Him accordingly, and if we are able to treat every other human being as our own dear brother and sister and love each accordingly — then, and then only, shall we experience the Kingdom of God here on earth and enjoy it in the next life. When we love each other, and forgive each other's failings, God also will love us and forgive us. This is the foundation of true Faith. (Joe Vemp) (Fr. Tony's Homilies)

Why Be Registered?

Are you registered at Our Lady of Refuge parish? Sometimes, people attend Mass at this parish for several years, but never officially register. Registering in a parish is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of Our Lady of Refuge community.

Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for baptisms, Faith Formation registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or Confirmation sponsor, and even funerals.

If you would like to register in the parish, please call the Parish Secretary at (248) 682-0920.

We welcome you to our parish family!

5th World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly 2025

From the Vatican, 26 June 2025, by Leo PP. XIV

"If it is true that the weakness of the elderly needs the strength of the young, it is equally true that the inexperience of the young needs the witness of the elderly in order to build the future with wisdom. How often our grandparents have been for us examples of faith and devotion, civic virtue and social commitment, memory and perseverance amid trials! The precious legacy that they have handed down to us with hope and love will always be a source of gratitude and a summons to perseverance."

"Looking at the elderly in the spirit of this Jubilee, we are called to help them experience liberation, especially from loneliness and abandonment. This year is a fitting time to do so. God's fidelity to his promises teaches us that there is a blessedness in old age, an authentic evangelical joy inspiring us to break through the barriers of indifference in which the elderly often finds themselves enclosed. Our societies, everywhere in the world, are growing all too accustomed to letting this significant and enriching part of their life be marginalized and forgotten."

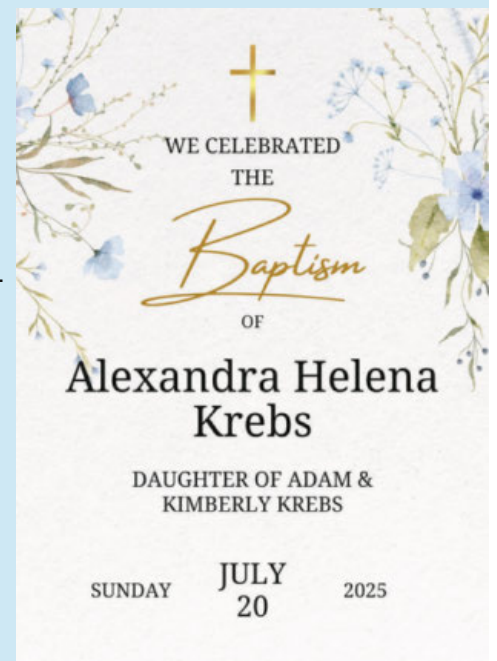

"That is why Pope Francis wanted the World Day of Grandparents and the Elderly to be celebrated primarily through an effort to seek out elderly persons who are living alone."

Thank You, Women of Our Parish!

We've only just begun to get creative—choosing a name for our group and exploring the activities we'd like to schedule. We're grateful to the 21 ladies who attended our opening meeting or signed up to receive more information. This Sunday, as we honor Grandparents and the Elderly, I'd like to offer special thanks to them, as they were the original founders of this group many years ago. We hope to see you at our next brainstorming gathering on August 16th and 17th, following all Masses. Please join us in the Social Hall. Ave!

Thank You to Our Amazing Maintenance Volunteers!

We are very grateful to Clayton Stumpf II and Clayton Stumpf III for rehanging a broken closet door, filling large holes in our masonry walls, cleaning marks off painted surfaces, and taking care of several other tasks. We truly appreciate your help in enhancing our worship and gathering spaces.

Psalm 138

R: Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me.

Psalm 138 is a testimony to God's faithfulness. It reminds us that prayer is not just a cry into the void; it is a conversation with the living God who hears us, strengthens us, and walks with us through every trial.

The psalm begins with deep gratitude: "I will give thanks to you, O Lord, with all my heart." It then describes God's attentiveness; not only does He listen, He responds. Even amid distress, opposition, or weakness, we are never alone. God's enduring kindness and mighty hand uphold us.

And there's a promise tucked in the final lines: "The Lord will complete what he has done for me." It's a gentle assurance that the good work God has begun in each of us is not finished yet, but it will be. His love doesn't leave us halfway.

As a community, let us take comfort in this truth: whenever we have called out in need, God has heard us. May this psalm stir within us a renewed confidence in prayer, and a grateful heart for the quiet ways God answers each day.

01.

I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with all my heart,
for you have heard the words of my mouth;
in the presence of the angels I will sing your praise;
I will worship at your holy temple
and give thanks to your name.

03.

The LORD is exalted, yet the lowly he sees,
and the proud he knows from afar.
Though I walk amid distress, you preserve me;
against the anger of my enemies you raise your hand.

02.

Because of your kindness and your truth;
for you have made great above all things
your name and your promise.
When I called you answered me;
you built up strength within me.

04.

Your right hand saves me.
The LORD will complete what he has done for me;
your kindness, O LORD, endures forever;
forsake not the work of your hands.

Vacation Bible school 2025 Parachuting with the Angels and Saints was a huge success!

Our little angels and saints had a wonderful time learning about their Guardian Angel, Saint Catherine Laboure, and her miraculous medal! The week was full of angels and Saints and wonderful gifts that God gives us, especially the comfort, protection, and guidance of our Guardian Angel. Each station was coordinated to reflect the theme of the day. Wonderful crafts, creative, snacks, fun filled games, and interactive Bible stories led the children closer to Jesus! Many thanks to everyone who gave of their time and talent!
