All Souls' Day

All Souls' Day is a day specially set apart that we may remember and pray for our dear ones who have gone for their eternal reward, and who are currently in a state of ongoing purification.

Ancient belief supported by Church tradition: People of all religions have believed in the immortality of the soul and have prayed for the dead:

- 1) The Jews, for example, believed that there was a place of temporary bondage from which the souls of the dead would receive their final release. The Jewish catechism, Talmud, states that prayers for the dead will help to bring them greater rewards and blessings to. Prayer for the souls of the departed is retained by the Orthodox Jews today, who recite a prayer known as the Mourner's Kaddish for eleven months after the death of a loved one so that he/she may be purified.
- 2) First century practice: Jesus and the apostles shared this belief and passed it on to the early Church. "Remember us who have gone before you, in your prayers," is a petition often found inscribed on the walls of the Roman catacombs (Lumen Gentium-50).
- 3) The liturgies of the Mass in various rites dating from the early centuries of the Church include "Prayers for the Dead."
- 4) The early Fathers of the Church encouraged this practice. Tertullian (AD 160-240) wrote about the anniversary Masses for the dead, advising widows to pray for their husbands. St. Augustine (AD 354 – 430) remarked that he used to pray for his deceased mother, remembering her request: "When I die, bury me anywhere you like, but remember to pray for me at the altar" (St. Augustine of Hippo, Confessions, Book 9, Chapter 11, Section 27).
- 5) The Synods of Nicaea, Florence and Trent encouraged the offering of prayers for the dead, citing Scriptural evidences to prove that there is a place or state of purification for those who die with venial sins on their souls.

Theological reasoning: According to Rv 21:27: "...nothing unclean shall enter Heaven." Holy Scripture (Prv 24:16) also teaches that even "the just sin seven times a day." Since it would be contrary to the mercy of God to punish such souls with venial sins in Hell, they are seen as entering a place or state of purification, called Purgatory, which combines God's justice with His mercy. This teaching is also contained in the doctrine of the Communion of Saints.

Biblical basis: 1) II Mc 12:46 is the main Biblical text incorporating the Jewish belief in the necessity of prayer and sacrifice for the dead. The passage (II Mc 12:39-46), describes how Judas, the military commander, "took up a collection from all his men, totaling about four pounds of silver and sent it to Jerusalem to provide for a sin offering" (II Mc 12:43). The narrator continues, "If he had not believed that the dead would be raised, it would have been foolish and useless to pray for them." 2) St. Paul seems to have shared this traditional Jewish belief. At the death of his supporter Onesiphorus, he prayed: "May the Lord grant him mercy on that Day" (II Tim: 1:18). Other pertinent Bible texts: Mt 12:32, I Cor 3:15, Zec13:19, Sir 7:33. (Continued on page 5)

We're Almost There! Help Us Reach Our 2025 CSA Goal

Thank you to everyone who has already given to the 2025 Catholic Services Appeal! Your generosity helps fund more than 100 ministries throughout the Archdiocese of Detroit — including seminarian education, Catholic schools and tuition assistance, youth and family programs, evangelization efforts, and vital works of mercy that serve those most in need across southeast Michigan.

Our parish has responded generously by supporting this year's campaign, and we're now only $5,000 away from reaching our goal! Every gift, no matter the size, makes a difference and helps strengthen the mission of the Church both here and beyond our parish boundaries.

If you haven't yet contributed, please prayerfully consider making your pledge today. Together, we can help the Archdiocese continue its mission to "Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord."

Thank you for your faith, generosity, and continued support!

LISA MARIE BLANEK

248-682-0920 EXT. 1114

LBLANEK@OLORCC.ORG

Thank You! Thank You! Thank You!

We had a very faithful group of parishioners join us for the Rosary in our Marian Garden throughout the month of October. We'll gather again in May — all are welcome!

Do You Have Unused Yarn?

Our Prayer Shawl Ministry is in need of more yarn — at least 4-ply — in colors suitable for both men and women. We're also looking for additional volunteers to help make prayer shawls, either knitted or crocheted. Please see Lisa Marie with any questions or donations. Thank you in advance for your generosity!

What is OCIA?

Several people have asked, What is OCIA? It stands for Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, which was previously known as RCIA. The name was changed in November 2021 to better reflect the Latin translation. The OCIA is an ongoing process of spiritual formation rather than a series of fixed stages. This journey offers all of us the opportunity to reflect on our own faith and relationship with God. Receiving the sacraments was never meant to be a graduation, but rather the beginning of a lifelong journey of growing closer to our Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. And let us not forget our Holy Mother Mary—Mary, please pray for us all!

The stages of the OCIA are the same distinct periods as our previous RCIA.

1 – The Period of Inquiry (Pre-Catechumenate)

Our group has been meeting, and many have been attending Mass for months—even years. Today, this stage comes to a close as our inquirers are ready to move forward through the Rite of Entrance into the Catechumenate and the Welcoming of Candidates.

I will continue to share updates as we walk together through this amazing journey of faith.

(Continued from page 3) The Church's teaching: The Church's official teaching on Purgatory is plain and simple. There is a place or state of purification called Purgatory, where souls undergoing purification can be helped by the prayers of the faithful (Council of Trent). Some modern theologians suggest that the fire of Purgatory is an intense, transforming encounter with Jesus Christ and his fire of love. They also speak of Purgatory as an "instant" purification immediately after death, varying in intensity from soul to soul, depending on the state of each individual.

How do we help the "holy souls"? The Catechism of the Catholic Church recommends prayer for the dead in conjunction with the offering of the Eucharistic Sacrifice, and encourages "almsgiving, indulgences, and works of penance undertaken on behalf of the dead" (CCC #1032). Let us not forget to pray for our dear departed, have Masses offered for them, visit their graves, and make daily sacrifices for them. God can foresee and apply the merits of our prayers, penances, and works of charity, done even years after their death, for our departed dear ones, in favor of our deceased dear ones, at the moment of their deaths. (Fr. Tony's Homilies)

Harvest Wagon: We would appreciate you donating for the Harvest Wagon collection to provide holiday meals to our pantry families. The pantry serves many individuals and families who are facing food insecurity. For Thanksgiving and Christmas, we plan to provide all of the ingredients to make a special holiday meal. Your contributions will help us purchase turkeys and hams plus items to complete the meal. We are hoping to provide 55 meals for each holiday. Donation envelopes will be available at the Harvest Wagon in the narthex. Please consider making a $20 cash donation or writing a check to Our Lady of Refuge and noting Harvest Wagon. Thank you for your support to our neighbors in need. The Harvest Wagon will be taken down on Monday.

Food Pantry: If you are also able to provide donations of food and other items listed, we would greatly appreciate it. The number of people shopping in our food pantry each week continues to grow. Despite generous food donations received last month, we are already out of some of our food items and low in several staples. Many of our pantry shoppers rely on food assistance from the federal government. Due to the government shut down, food benefits will not be issued for November. Some of our shoppers were already struggling before the benefit cut. Two shoppers told us last week that they are living in their cars. Thank you for your continued support for the pantry.

Thank you: Twice a month the food pantry receives donations of bagels from Einstein's Bagels on 8366 Richardson Road in Commerce Township and twice a month we receive donuts from the Tim Hortons on 8198 Cooley Lake Road, White Lake. Please say thank you from Our Lady of Refuge if you shop in these stores. Our pantry families greatly appreciate these tasty treats.

Adopt a Family: Please contact me if you are interested in adopting a family for Christmas. We have several families who shop in our Food Pantry and/or receive support from St. Vincent DePaul who we would like to help provide gifts to their children for Christmas. Families range from one child to six children. The parents will provide a list of wishes for each child. If you chose to adopt a family, we would appreciate you purchasing and wrapping the gifts and returning the gifts to the parish office by December 12.

The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls)

Each year on November 2, the Church pauses to remember and pray for all who have gone before us in faith. From the earliest days of Christianity, believers have offered prayers for the dead, and by the tenth century St. Odilo of Cluny dedicated this day to remembering all the faithful departed. While All Saints' Day honors those already in Heaven, All Souls' Day focuses on those still being purified by God's love in purgatory – souls who await the fullness of eternal life. Our prayers, Masses, and sacrifices offered for them are powerful acts of mercy, helping them draw closer to the presence of God.

Today's psalm, "The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want," reminds us that even in the valley of death, the Shepherd guides every soul toward eternal peace. The hymns we sing – "Be Not Afraid," "We Shall Rise Again," "Worthy Is the Lamb," and "God, We Praise You" – echo this faith and hope. They remind us that Christ has conquered death and that love endures beyond the grave.

As we remember our loved ones, let us also pray for all souls in purgatory, especially those who have no one to pray for them. Our intercession is a gift of love that bridges earth and heaven, bringing light to souls who still long for the vision of God. May our prayer, "Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them," rise like incense for every soul still on the journey home.
