

Queen of Martyrs

PARISH

It is Christ in you, the hope for glory.
It is he whom we proclaim.
(Colossians 1:27-28)

Colossians

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

2 To the holy and faithful* brothers in Christ at Colosse:

Grace and peace to you from God our Father.¹

Thanksgiving and Prayer

3 We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, because we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love you have for all the saints—the love that springs from the faith and love that spring from the hope that is stored up for you in heaven; and that you have already heard

¹¹being strengthened with all power according to his glorious might so that you may have great endurance and patience, and joyfully ¹²giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you² to share in the inheritance of the saints in the kingdom of light. ¹³For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves, ¹⁴in whom we have redemption, ¹⁵the forgiveness of sins.

The Supremacy of Christ

15 He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. ¹⁶For by him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things were created by him and for him before all things. ¹⁷And he

From the desk of Deacon Luis:

My dear family of Queen of Martyrs Parish,

I want to share with you how awesome this parish of Queen of Martyrs is! You probably know already, but we are one of the most diverse parishes in the entire Diocese of Madison. I have been a deacon here in our parish for more than a month, and the blessings are just incredible. Allow me to count these blessings on your behalf. In the past month, I have baptized more than 10 children, done 3 quinceañeras, preached almost every daily Mass and rotated around our Churches for Sunday Masses, visited the hospitals and nursing homes, participated in various groups of prayers for women and men, lead Holy Hours with the Most Blessed Sacrament, trained altar servers for Mass, gave house blessings, met with couples for marriage prep, accompanied our youth for ministry like Love Begins Here, received prayers and support from our religious sisters, and many other blessings.

It amazes me how active and contemplative our parish is. I am so honored to be part of this wonderful family. This Sunday, the Gospel shows us what it entails to be an active and contemplative disciple. The examples of Mary and Martha are truly embodied by all of us here in Queen of Martyrs parish because we are active in our work for ministry and contemplative in our worship of God. We keep praying that what we do and how we do it is always for the Glory of God and the service of our neighbor. Let's keep opening our hearts for more blessings to come. For instance, we will have the Totus Tuus program happening soon in our parish, and Bishop Hying coming to visit us. Stay active and contemplative for the Lord.

Sincerely,

Dcn. Luis Reyes

Queen of Martyrs Hidden Gems

Summer evenings are a treasure in the Midwest. The heat of the day is past, and daylight continues well into the evening. Let's take advantage of this beauty to gather as a Parish family to enjoy one another and reveal some hidden gems!

Our second evening in this series of three social evenings is at OLA, on the lawn by the Administration Building on July 22 at 6:30 p.m. Our gem that night is our Director of Worship, Chris Malueg.

Join us for this social evening. Please bring:

- chairs for your family
- savory or sweet snacks to share
- beverages of your choice for your family

Prayer for Peace

The Queen of Martyrs Social Justice Committee would like to invite you to join in a weekly prayer for peace on Thursdays at 6:30 pm. Please consider joining us as we seek God's peace for the world.

Queen of Martyrs Parish Respect Life Spiritual adoption update!!

Our sweet babies are half way into their 6th month and getting bigger! They weigh about 2 pounds now and have grown to be about 12 inches long. They are still so tiny, but still so precious. The baby's five senses are developing. Their eyelids are beginning to part and their eyes are opening. By the end of the month, they will have fingerprints and toe prints. They may respond to sounds and other stimuli. And Mom may feel her tiny baby moving around inside her.

As our spiritually adopted babies continue to grow, let's pray for their Mom's that they will treasure and nourish this tiny one in their womb. Let us also pray that they will have the loving support of their family and friends now and after the birth of their baby.

He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord.
(Psalm 15)

Our Jubilee Pilgrimage

An essential part of a Jubilee celebration is a pilgrimage. For the 2025 Jubilee, the Holy Father has asked all bishops around the world to designate their cathedral and other sites in their dioceses as pilgrimage destinations, where the faithful may gain the Jubilee indulgence and unite themselves spiritually with the Holy Father and those making a pilgrimage to Rome, the typical Jubilee pilgrimage destination.

A pilgrimage is an outward expression of an eternal reality. When we move ourselves from one place to another, we remind ourselves that we are on a journey to Heaven, and that our lives here on Earth are a journey of continual conversion toward God and His Will. The difficulties that we may face in our pilgrimage travels (bad weather, fatigue, lack of sleep, for example) remind us of the difficulties that we encounter on our way to eternal life. Ultimately, though, these difficulties can be for our good and for the good of others, if we offer them to God in a spirit of acceptance and patience.

We have six Pilgrimage Sites in Wisconsin!

All six of these sites will be open every Saturday of the Jubilee to pilgrims, from 8:00 am to 12:00 pm, with exceptions for events such as funerals.

- ✠ Immaculate Heart of Mary/Shrine of Our Lady of the Green Scapular (Monona)
- ✠ St. Cecilia Church (Wisconsin Dells)
- ✠ St. Bernard Church (Watertown)
- ✠ Nativity of Mary Church (Janesville)
- ✠ St. Mary Church (Fennimore)
- ✠ Schoenstatt Shrine (Madison)

The Jubilee Passport

You can pick up a Jubilee Passport at any of our six pilgrimage sites; we encourage you to visit all the sites and to collect a passport stamp at each one! Pilgrims who visit all six sites can receive a Jubilee certificate signed by Bishop Hying!

To get your certificate, send a photo of your passport with all six stamps plus your name and address to:
