From the desk of Fr. Bart:

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In this Sunday's Gospel (Luke 12:13–21), Jesus offers a stark warning about the folly of greed and the danger of placing our trust in earthly possessions. The parable of the rich man—who builds bigger barns only to die that very night—reminds us that true wealth is not measured in abundance but in being “rich in what matters to God.” In a culture obsessed with accumulation, Christ calls us to a radical reordering of our priorities. This week, let's take inventory of our spiritual lives: Are we storing up treasure in heaven? Let us seek simplicity, generosity, and a heart that longs for God above all else.

Announcing Hearts Full of Hope Capital Campaign

As we journey together through the Jubilee Year of Hope, we are excited to launch our Hearts Full of Hope Capital Campaign for St. Jude Church and Convent. Our goal is to raise $500,000 to ensure the long-term beauty, safety, and functionality of our parish home. Major projects include a new roof for the church (already completed) painting window trim and replacing rotted wood (already completed), removing lead paint (already completed), installing a new accessibility ramp (work beginning soon), upgrading our aging air conditioning system (already underway), and remodeling the bathrooms at the Convent to welcome the Sisters of the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus (work beginning soon). These improvements are essential as we prepare to welcome more sisters, serve our growing community, and remain a place of worship and hope for generations to come. Stay tuned for more information and how you can participate. Please prayerfully consider how you can be part of this sacred effort to preserve and renew St. Jude Church.

Thank You, Dcn. Luis Reyes

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Deacon Luis Reyes for his joyful and faithful ministry during his summer assignment with us. His presence has been a blessing to our parish, and we are proud to accompany him as his “Teaching Parish” on the journey to priesthood. Dcn. Luis now returns to seminary for his final year of formation, with plans for ordination in May 2026. He will continue to join us for weekend Masses throughout the year, and we promise our ongoing prayers and support as he prepares to answer God's call in a deeper way. Thank you, Dcn. Luis! (Photo is of Deacon Luis planting one of the trees from the June 22 Mass and celebration of becoming one Parish. Each of our four churches received a new tree.)

God's Blessings,

Fr. Bart

Queen of Martyrs Parish: Building Our Future Together!

Can You Help a Fellow Parishioner Get to Mass?

We're looking for kind-hearted volunteers who are willing to offer a ride to fellow parishioners needing assistance getting to and from church. If you have a little extra room in your car and a willingness to help, we'd love to hear from you! Please contact Berta or Amy in the Administration Offices if you're able to assist or would like more information. Thank you for being a part of our caring community!

Prayer for Peace

The Queen of Martyrs Social Justice Committee would like to invite you to join in a weekly prayer for peace on Thursdays at 6:30 pm. On these beautiful summer evenings we will gather in our Peace Gardens between OLA School and Day Care Center for a brief (around 20 minutes) prayer service. Please consider joining us as we seek God's peace for the world.

August Listening Session

We are using the translations of the Vatican document: “For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, Mission” as content and direction for our monthly listening sessions. The Synod summary document can be found online by searching “Catholic Synod 6 final document.” This document is an introduction and five short chapters. At our next Listening Session, we will continue reviewing this important writing.

Our next Listening Session is scheduled for this Monday, August 4, St. Stephen at 6:30 p.m.

The Queen of Martyrs Raffle is Here!!!

In the back of each church this weekend, you will find an envelope with your household’s name and address. (If any of the information is incorrect, please notify the church office so we can update your file accordingly.) In the envelope is a letter with details for this year’s raffle and the prizes, along with raffle tickets. We’re counting on you to help sell the tickets to make our largest Parish fundraiser a success!

The stubs and money from the sold tickets should be returned to the church. The drawing will be held Sunday, September 14, 1:00 p.m. at OLA in the school gym. We will have other activities available before and after the drawing, so in addition to supporting our Parish, we can spend some quality fellowship time together! As always, thank you for your help.

Catholic social teaching is a central and essential element of our faith. Its roots are in the Hebrew prophets who announced God's special love for the poor and called God's people to a covenant of love and justice. It is a teaching founded on the life and words of Jesus Christ, who came "to bring glad tidings to the poor . . . liberty to captives . . . recovery of sight to the blind" (Lk 4:18-19), and who identified himself with "the least of these," the hungry and the stranger (cf. Mt 25:45). Catholic social teaching is built on a commitment to the poor.

Catholic social teaching is based on and inseparable from our understanding of human life and human dignity. Every human being is created in the image of God and redeemed by Jesus Christ and therefore is invaluable and worthy of respect as a member of the human family. Every person, from the moment of conception to natural death, has inherent dignity and a right to life consistent with that dignity. Human dignity comes from God, not from any human quality or accomplishment. (from USCCB)

Queen of Martyrs Respect Life Committee will meet Monday night, August 4 at 5:30 p.m. in the OLA gathering space. All are welcome! Contact Rita Bonds with any questions 608-201-5761

Our Parish school office will resume regular business hours this Tuesday, August 5.
