A Prayer for Our Nation

By James Martin, SJ

Loving God, on our 250th anniversary as a nation, help us to be just, loving, merciful, grateful, compassionate, and, above all, kind.

Help our nation mirror the kind of people we want to be.

And help us to avoid envy, cruelty, violence, boasting, prejudice, nationalism, scapegoating, and malice towards anyone.

Help us to be loving, as you are, Loving God.

Amen.

A prayer for the 250th anniversary from James Martin, SJ published in Sojourners.

From the Desk of Fr. Bart

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus extends one of the most comforting invitations in all of Scripture: "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." The Lord does not promise a life free from difficulties, but He does promise that we do not have to carry our burdens alone. When we place our trust in Him, we discover that His yoke is easy and His burden light—not because the cross disappears, but because Christ helps us bear it. In a world filled with stress, noise, and uncertainty, Jesus offers the peace that every human heart longs to find.

Celebrating 250 Years of American Independence- Happy Fourth of July!

As our nation celebrates the 250th Anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, we give thanks for the many blessings God has bestowed upon our country. Catholics have been part of the American story from its earliest days. One remarkable figure is Charles Carroll of Maryland, the only Catholic signer of the Declaration of Independence. At a time when Catholics often faced discrimination, Carroll courageously supported the cause of liberty and helped establish a nation where religious freedom would flourish. Throughout our country's history, Catholics have contributed as missionaries, educators, soldiers, public servants, and saints. As we celebrate this anniversary, may we pray for our nation, give thanks for the gift of freedom, and recommit ourselves to living our faith with courage and charity in the public square.

Introducing Deacon Michael Hess

In the next few weeks, I am turning my column over to Dcn. Michael. He will be sharing with us about the Eucharist and will offer us deep reflections on our Catholic belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist.

Welcome Seminarian Andrew Glanville

We are pleased to welcome Andrew Glanville to Queen of Martyrs Parish as our newly assigned seminarian candidate for the Diocese of Madison. Queen of Martyrs will serve as Andrew's Teaching Parish. Over the next four years, Andrew will pray, learn, serve, and grow among us as he prepares for the priesthood and, God willing, ordination in 2030. Andrew will be living at our St. Jude Rectory with Fr. David and me when he is not living at the Seminary, mostly in the summers and on weekends.

We are honored that Bishop Hying has entrusted our parish with this important role in the formation of future priests. Forming seminarians is not only the work of the seminary, but of the entire Church. Through our prayers, encouragement, and witness of faith, each of us can help Andrew discern God's call and grow into a holy and faithful priest.

Please join me in welcoming Andrew and keeping him in your prayers. May the Lord bless him abundantly as he begins this next chapter of his vocational journey.

Gratefully in Christ,
Fr. Bart

Queen of Martyrs Respect Life

At five months old, our tiny, but growing, spiritually adopted babies weigh about 10 ounces. They are 6 to 7 inches long, and their tiny fingers and toes are well defined. They are moving around in their mother's womb. So tiny. So beautiful. God's creation! Please pray for our baby's mother that she will nourish and love her tiny one and receive the support she needs.

Pope's Monthly Prayer Intention July: For respect for human life

Let us pray for the respect and protection of human life in all its stages, recognizing it as a gift from God.

America 250th Anniversary Nation Strengthened by Immigrants

Many Catholic families came to America seeking freedom, opportunity, and a better life for their children. Irish, German, Polish, Italian, Hispanic, and many other immigrant communities helped build our churches, farms, factories, schools, and neighborhoods. Their faith, sacrifices and devotion helped shape the spiritual character of our nation.
